Uhl & Leonhard have a fine display of choice meat.

Wells Fargo & Co. have closed their office at Aurora.

The weather we are having just at present is especially acceptable.

A post office has been established at Kirman, Lincoln county, Nevada.

Theodore Winters is preparing to send East six or seven of the horses he has wintered in Nevada.

The people of Inyo county are getting ready to build a creamery, and have already selected a site.

Take your best girl to the Old Folk's Concert tonight and see how they did things in the good old days before you were born.

Mrs. Langtry attempted a skirt dance at a recent matinee, and the papers unkindly suggested that she was too bovine for that art.

Mr. Keeley wants to start an anti-jag factory in Nevada, but is hampered by the lack of desire on the part of the inebriates to quit.

From reliable authority we learn that unless silver advances there is no prospect of the Candelaria Mines starting up for a year or perhaps longer.

Mayo Crosby of Aestria, Or., has caused the arrest of W. J. Barry, ex-Chief of police, for the larceny of $8,400 delinquent taxes alleged to have been collected by him and not paid over to the Treasurer.

It is rumored in Hawthorne that a prominent produce dealer of San Francisco has written to M. Brazzonovich, who killed Billy Robson a month ago, that he can draw on the former to the extent of $5000 if it is necessary.

The Truckee Republican says there is only from four to five feet of snow in the mountains at present, and unless more falls the Reno ranchers will have an opportunity to use the storage reservoir at Donner Lake next Summer.

The following is the list of prizes to be given at Lindsay & Pierces Dancing Academy: Best Gentleman dancer, beautiful solid gold watch; best lady dancer, a solid gold breast-pin; best gentleman scholar, one gold watch chain; best lady scholar, one fan. Don't forget the school on Thursday evening.

Information has arrived at Holbrook, A. T., of the death or capture of the band of renegade Apache Indians who have infested the borders of the White Mountain Indian Reservation. The band numbered five bucks and six women and children. Three men were killed.

Congressman Fowler of New Jersey is a silver man. In advocating the Bland resolution instructing the Committee on Rules to bring in a special order, fixing a date for the silver bill to be taken up, he said the assertion that New Jersey couldn't be carried on a free silver platform was untrue.

That it is possible for a man to kick himself to death is verified in the following item: While loading baled hay at his farm recently Orlando Gardner, of Richmond, lost his temper because a bale went partly into the wagon, broke his hold and fell to the ground. In his rage he kicked violently at the bale, fell, broke his back, ruptured a blood vessel and died on the spot.

Nevada Politics.

The Hawthorne Bulletin expresses its opinion in the following good, strong English:

Nevada can no longer be looked upon as a sure Republican State. Unless the Republican party redeems its pledges on the silver question at this session of Congress, the people will vote for the party which gives the strongest and best assurance of favorable action in this matter. The party with the strongest and best silver plank, and with candidates on it that will do as they promise, will get the electoral vote of Nevada at the next Presidential election.

Unfounded.

Some people take a special delight in concocting fabrications about put up jobs and practical jokes at the "Lodge" on Washoe Lake. Some malicious, unprincipled, rascal has wrongfully accused various members of inducing a modest, unassuming, retiring young man to get into a boat that was never known to stay on the surface over two minutes after being occupied thus causing his location in the so-called limpid waters of the lake and a most decided shrinking of his new corduroy pants.

The slander is increased ten fold when it is stated that Fatty Cohn's pants (waist 53 inches) were occupied during the confinement of the corduroys in the drying room. An APPEAL reporter on behalf of the club has investigated this bold forgery of the truth and every member stoutly denies any knowledge of the affair. In an interview, an officer of the club says:

"We are striving to maintain the organization on strict laws of courtesy toward one another and have every assurance of unbounded success. No matter how well Cohn's pants, Yerington's boots, McCulough's shirt and Elrod's hat may look on a one hundred pound man whose other apparel is hung up to dry, it has never as yet occurred. The Lodge is not intended for such glaring levity and was founded simply as an excluded spot where members can escape from the whirlpool of business and excitement incidental to a city life at the Capitol.

Canada's Refugee.

Thos. Williamson the gentleman who came out west some months ago to observe the scenic effects and also try to forget the address of the Western Canadian Loan Company of Toronto, from which corporation he managed to borrow $23,000 on a couple of forged mortgages, became so infatuated with our grand mountain views and bracing climate that he forgot the way back to the home of his childhood.

Mr. J. E. Rogers a Toronto Government Detective, who previously had some knowledge of the festive Thomas came all the way from Canada at the earnest request of some kind hearted Nevada officials who had been boarding and lodging the tourist some few weeks, solely for the purpose of showing him the best and shortest route to the once home of America's criminals. Mr. Rogers is also a kind hearted, indulgent gentleman and will remain by his traveling companion's side throughout the entire trip, pointing out places of interest and chatting pleasantly as the hours speed on.

It is very unfortunate that Mr. Williams should be detained here in Carson in a burglar proof room waiting for some interesting papers from Canada, which are closely connected with the Extradition Treaty of 1890, between the United States and Canada. Mr. Rogers expects these documents every day and when they arrive one of the coldest nerved forgers on the Western continent will be yanked back across the line.

A Dead Chinaman.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Botsford while pursuing a Chinaman who had been seen selling liquor to Indians chased the fleeing mongol through all sorts of dens and alleys all over Chinatown. The Chinaman being hard pushed climbed over a roof and disappeared. As the Sheriff went around instead of climbing over he came upon the body of another Chinaman dead in a bunk. The body was cold and stiff but showed no marks of violence. It is probable that he was a victim of opium. Albert was notified and promised to look after the remains. The live Chinaman was afterwards captured.

Lots of Ducks.

A good many ducks and geese were killed at Washoe Lake Sunday. A large party of hunters went out from here, and Hume Yerington was one of the number. Hume was hiding in a blind, when plunk came a duck against the muzzle of his gun and fell dead at his feet. On examination it was found that the bird's neck had been broken by contact with the fowling piece. Hume withdrew the charges from his gun, remarking as he did so: "No use for powder and shot when ducks are as thick as that. A loaded gun is dangerous, anyway."

At least, that's what Abe Cohn says.

John Wolmering, who is pretty generally known as the proprietor of the Arcade saloon and lodging house, don't propose that anyone shall get the best of him in the matter of beds and liquid refreshments.

PERSONAL.

Evan Williams is busy at the Bay. E. B. Rail, the hardware dealer, is having his large sign repainted. Rail is a great believer in advertising.

Geo. Kitzmeyer's youngest son, George, was severely kicked on his left leg by a horse at Washoe Lake Sunday.

M. Cohn, one of the Directors of the Carson Valley Flour Mill Company, feels confident that the stock will pay two and one half per cent. per month on the investment. Certificates will soon be issued to stockholders.

General Eli H. Murray of San Diego, formerly Governor of Utah, has been appointed receiver of the California Savings Bank at San Diego by the Superior Court, under proceedings instituted by Attorney-General Hart on the behalf of the Bank Commissioners of California.

Grismer Coming.

At the Carson Opera House on Wednesday evening, March 16th, the well known and popular favorites Joseph Grismer and Phoebe Davies, supported by their excellent company, will appear and present for the first time here the ideal comedy-drama, "The Burglar," a dramatization from Mrs. Francis Hodgson Burnett's story, "Edith's Burglar," by Augustus Thomas, author of "Alabama." This will be the last appearance of the Grismers in Carson for some years, as they will begin a starring tour at the Madison Square theater, New York, next Sept. The sale of seats will open at Harris' Drug Store Wednesday morning.

The story of a horrible execution comes from Hanover, Prussia. The knife of the guillotine failed to sever a criminal's head, and an effort of the executioner to forcibly wrench the head from the body was unsuccessful. The knife was again permitted to fall on the neck, again only mutilating it. The executioner then took his own knife and hacked the back of the head until he severed the head from the body.

St. Patrick's Masque Ball.

James Wiggins, the Empire entertainer, has made every preparation to give the public a first class masquerade on the 17th. A good orchestra has been posted as to the requirements of Empire dancers, and first class music will be the result. The well known caterer, Mrs. Koahl, will spread one of her home made banquets for those who desire to enjoy it. Costumes can be secured at the hall, and plenty of stable room is at hand for those attending in carriages.

Pasturage.

On the Duffy and Kirman ranches which contain over 700 acres, being the largest body of pasture land in Ormsby county. As the waters from Clear Creek flume, Ash Canyon and Lake View flow through the property it is the best watered. From the extended range it is eminently fitted for stock cattle and horses. Two bulls, a Holstein and a Jersey, are kept for the service of stock. A limited number of milch cows will be driven from and returned to the city daily. Season commences April 15th. Terms reasonable.

WILLIAM SMYTHE, m1w Lessee.

Talks on the Old World.

Mrs. Kinkead will begin her series of parlor talks on Thursday evening, March 10, at the residence of Judge Bigelow, beginning at 8 o'clock promptly. Subjects in the following order: March 10, England; March 17, Belgium and Germany; March 24, Switzerland; March 31, Paris. Season tickets, adults, each $1.00. Scholars of schools, each 50 cents. Single admission paid at door 25 and 15 cents. m5.

The 11th of March will throw the doors of the theatrical world open to the Empire Minstrels, one of the most powerful and well selected combinations in Nevada. An entirely new program has been arranged for the public, and extra chairs have been placed in Wiggins' theater. Positively last appearance. One night only. Remember the 11th. Tickets at the door. No extra charge for reserved seats. m6.
