

CRUSADING SIN.

The District Attorney has directed the sheriff to compel all houses of ill fame at within 400 yards of a school house to move at once.

Mayor Grant and the Archbishop.

EDITOR APPEAL:—Sir, you imagine it was very improper and unsuitable in Mayor Grant to have knelt and kissed the ring of the Archbishop of New York before the great audience in Cooper Union gathered to commemorate the birth of the Holy Father.

A CATHOLIC.

Our Catholic correspondent mistakes Mayor Grant's homage of the Tammany vote for a respect for the Catholic Church, and the Archbishop.

Were Grant Mayor in Chicago he would never think of kneeling to a Catholic Archbishop.

No; he would have taken a careful view of the outlook and kneel to some prelate of the Lutheran church, as Chicago is filled with Germans who lean that way religiously.

If Mr. Grant as a private citizen desires to kiss the hand of a Catholic Archbishop it is entirely his own business, but as the head official of an American city he is making an un-American and ridiculous spectacle of himself, just as he would if kneeling to an Episcopal or Presbyterian Bishop.

Americans do not wish to see Church and State allied in this country.

How would our Catholic friend like to see the Mayor of Cork kneeling in public to the Dean of Westminster?
