JOBBERB AT THEIR WORK.

The APPEAL does not think that the decent people of this State will submit to the jobberies that are now going on to bleed and blackmail Francis Newlands, the regular Congressional nominee.

He has brought millions into this State to invest, and he has traveled thousands of miles and spent thousands of dollars fighting for the cause of silver.

He has waged the warfare for the white metal in both continents, and as a reward for his splendid work the people of Nevada have sent him to the front as their champion.

A few cheap newspapers are snarling at his heels and holding out their hands for backsheesh. Newlands is making a clean, honorable fight, and the men who sent Woodburn to the front to fight him are being applauded by every piece club man and roustabout in the State.

As far as Mr. Woodburn is concerned, we believe him honest and conscientious, but his candidacy has resulted in a howl of applause from those miserable camp followers of politics, who feed like jackals off the offal of political strife.

Let the decent, self respecting people of Nevada rise and see that these tactics receive a fitting rebuke in November.

Indian Summer.

The best part of the season at Lake Tahoe is just at present. The limpid transparent sheet is as smooth as glass, reflecting the delicate tints of the autumn forests and blending into the rocks and variegated sands upon its shores. The air is charged with the scent of pine groves, while the nights are cool and delightful. The evening brings a soft breeze to refresh the sleepers and one wishes that Tahoe's Indian Summer might last the year round.

A vote for Weaver is a vote for Cleveland, yells the hide bound Republican, but we pity the poor fool who believes such slush. A vote for Weaver is a vote for principle a vote for silver, a vote for more money, a vote for better prices of labor and the products of the farm. A vote for the wife and babies and a home without a mortgage. A vote for the salvation of the nation and the freeing of it from the money clutches of the money power of England. A vote for freedom, justice and right.—Progress Longmont, Colo.

William E. Sharon a member of the National Republican Committee for Nevada, has written a letter to M. H. DeYoung, Acting Chairman of the Executive Committee, in which he resigns as a member of the committee. Sharon says that owing to his views on the silver question he cannot remain on the committee. He will support Weaver and Field for the Presidency.

Messrs. Bliss and Cleveland are still trying to explain to the Strother wing of the Republican party what they meant by their severe strictures on the Administration at the Republican Convention April 30th, in Virginia City. They allege they were then only expressing their sentiments in a Pickwickian sense.

Every friend of silver, of mining, of irrigation and State development, is a friend of Frank Newlands in his fight for Congress. The men who have declined to spend money in State Development, and who are always snarling at State progress, are now trying to bark him down.

The fact that a man can dress his hair pompadour and still be champion of the world, is proving a great surprise to the sporting fraternity.

John Sullivan will not draw a sober breath or a full house for a year.
