YESTERDAY'S PRIMARIES.

Yesterday the Ormsby ring was brought face to face with the real state of affairs in this county. They cut and dried their ticket after the old method and when they started out to whip the voters into line found scores of old Republicans on every side who refused to go to the polls for the simple reason that they have cut loose from the Republican party of Ormsby, so long dominated by a few men who work the party for personal gain.

The Difference.

While Senator Teller was refused permission to appear even in a silver convention in Colorado, and while he and Senator Wolcott are despised and hooted at by 75 per cent of the people of that State for their treachery to the people and every industry of the country, Senator Wm. W. Stewart was welcomed by the State convention of the silver leagues of Nevada, and received round after round of applause, and the unanimous indorsement of the convention for his past services and present fidelity.

Compliment to F. G. Newlands.

The nomination for Congress of Francis G. Newlands, of Nevada, is a reward for faithful service in the cause of free bi-metallic coinage. If elected silver would have in him a forceful advocate on the floor of the house. His argument as well as his ability as an orator would command attention. Both would be hard to match. This is the sort of friend the white metal needs.--Mining Age.

A great many attempts have been made to ridicule General Weaver and the People's party because of the lady speakers who are in the field upholding the banner of the great reform movement. It seems, however, that the g. o. p. recognizes the strength of the fair sex in politics, and at a great political meeting in Ohio Saturday evening, which was addressed by candidate Reid, ex Governor Foraker and Governor McKinley, Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, the lady orator who refused to meet Mrs. Lease in joint debate, and who parts her name in the middle, spoke at some length.

A People's Party Club of 60 members has been organized at Battle Mountain. The Austin Advocate says it was good to hear the old line Republicans and Democrats renounce their old parties and pledge themselves to the new one, many of them saying it was their intention to support the nominees of the new party from President to Constable or Justice of the Peace if they had the opportunity.
