

Special to the APPEAL

The People at the Bay.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—The newspaper vote for Mayor resulted in the election of the non-Partisan, by a vote of 18,000, O'Donnell, Independent, 15,000, Easton, Republican, 10,000, McMaan, Democrat, 2,000. The non-Partisan ticket will sweep the city next Tuesday.

Smallpox in Oakland.

Oakland, Nov. 5.—Smallpox has broken out in the Grant public school. Everett Guildner, aged 7 years, was taken home with the disease in violent form.

Killed by Fireworks

Yokohama, Nov. 5.—Two men and four boys were killed today and several injured by the explosion of fireworks at Osaka. Due to carelessness.

Election Troubles Feared.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The greatest alarm is felt over prospective bloodshed at the polls in Alabama and Arkansas. The most conservative public men apprehend serious trouble.

Wheeling, W. Va. Nov. 5.—It is very certain that riot and bloodshed will take place at the polls in West Virginia. The utmost precaution is being taken. Extra sheriffs are being sworn in.

The Tribune is trying to make people believe that it is Newland's money that is winning his fight. It is his devotion to silver, the keen and cutting logic of his speeches and the fact that no gold bug orator in the State can stand before him. This is what is winning his fight all over the State.

All the talk about Harrison being a friend of silver, was logically demolished by Hon. C. C. Powning at the Opera House on Thursday evening. He read the platforms of the States claimed by the Harrison managers and they are all pledged unequivocally against free coinage.

As soon as the News learns that the APPEAL files have been overlooked and the falsity of their quotation of yesterday exposed, they will hasten to attribute it to some other paper. It would not surprise us if the correction appeared in this morning's issue of the News.

Mr. Bartine is now defending Senator Sherman on the platform in Nevada. Mr. Sherman says President Harrison would veto a free coinage bill, and Mr. Sherman endorses the President because he is opposed to free coinage.

In ten States the Republicans have surrendered to the People's party and the Democrats have surrendered in nine. Both old parties seem to be hypnotized by the "ghost dance."

Professor Mulder has decided to put Monday aside for his Reno class. He is daily adding to his pupils in the languages.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock. d 13 tf

Mrs. Scofield is now manufacturing tonics by her own hand at her candy store opposite the Depot, where they will be retailed or made to order. All orders filled on short notice. They are to be had on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday only. Nov. 1 tf.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

FOUND—A bay mare newly shod strayed to the shooting lodge at Washoe Lake almost two weeks ago. The owner can have same by proving property, paying for the animals feed and this advertisement.

HY. DOANE'S SIX-SHOOTER.

He Threatens to Kill John G. Fox.

Yesterday morning, as John G. Fox was walking along in front of Carter's shoe shop he was accosted by Wm. Hy. Doane, Republican candidate for County Clerk, who said: "You have made a lying affidavit about me."

Mr. Fox replied: "The affidavit is true, and I stand by it."

"You are a dirty lying s— of a b—, and I will blow your d— head off," was the reply as he placed his hand on his hip pocket.

Mr. Fox is an old man and severely ruptured, and was obliged to stand and submit to the flood of foul language that Doane heaped upon him. He walked away, and calling on Attorney Summerfield asked for a warrant. Summerfield was not disposed to give it, and said:

"You will have to swear that you are afraid of your life, and of course you are not; you ain't afraid of Hy Doane."

Fox replied: "He has heaped filthy abuse on me and said repeatedly that he would kill me."

Summerfield said he would look up the law, but there was no disposition to issue a warrant until Dr. Guinan, Chairman of the Silver Party Central Committee, with other members of the Committee, called on Mr. Summerfield and demanded the warrant. They were met by some of the District Attorney's fight for delay, palaver and profanity, but they insisted on their legal rights, and finally Summerfield made out the complaint for Fox to sign. Even in this instance he was unable to do the business without resort to his usual crafty work, and dated the complaint in such a way that the alleged offense appeared to have been committed in August. Mr. Fox detected the error and compelled him to change it before he would sign.

Mr. Doane being out of town, Treasurer Collin accepted service for him and gave $250 bonds for Doane's appearance for trial at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

The Jones Interview.

Day before yesterday the gold bug press insisted that Jones was on the Ocean bound for England, but yesterday they printed a column interview which they said was the only authentic one in existence.

In this interview vouched for by the Enterprise as genuine appears the following:

No one doubted the patriotism of the silver Republicans who had given their adhesion to the People's party. The question involved was as to the wisdom of their course. For himself, he was firmly of the conviction that the interests of Nevada would best be served by the electoral vote of the State being cast for Weaver.

Seeing what a terrible break they made by publishing this they now give the public a dispatch from Jones which puts him for Harrison again. Nobody believes the dispatch:

Weiner Sausages.

In the heat and turmoil of the campaign the APPEAL has so far forgotten itself as to overlook the delicious Wiener sausages for sale by Rosser & Muller. These delicate links of delight are made under the personal supervision of Victor Muller himself, and no family should be without some for breakfast. They are combined for a harmonious adjustment of all the organs of the stomach and glide down the throat like a silver torchlight procession up Main street, the day after election. Eat those sausages and vote the Silver ticket.

Not a Harrison Organ.

The Carson News classes the Nevada New Era as a Harrison advocate. Don't fool yourself, sister; the name of the Lovelock contemporary is enough to controvert such statements.—Lyon County Times.

We would never have selected this field in which to run a Harrison organ—the editor would have starved to death.—New Era.

Got him that Time.

When Woodburn was speaking in Dayton the other evening he had to drink considerable water to keep his throat moist. He drank so frequently that finally an Irishman rose in the audience and said:

"This is the first time I ever saw a wind mill run by water power."

Without a sack the Republican combine of this county is like a hen with its head off. They already see the hand writing on the wall and regard next Tuesday as the day of doom.

Weaver's Strength.

Washington, November 2.—General Clark of Colorado, one of the leading Republicans of that State and an earnest supporter of President Harrison, is now in this city, and says frankly that Colorado will be carried by Weaver. He thinks that the Congressmen will be evenly divided.

As the results of his own observations in the West he at first gave Weaver thirty-seven electoral votes, Cleveland 211 and Harrison 195. He allowed Weaver the votes of Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Nevada, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, South Dakota, and two in Minnesota. Since coming to Washington he has added to his list by increasing the vote of Minnesota to four, and also by giving Weaver North Dakota, raising his total vote to 42 and reducing Harrison's to 191. The change in North Dakota is due, he says, to the opposition of the Swedish element to the high tariff advocated by the Republican party.

General Clark is inclined to think if these votes go for Weaver when the Electoral College meets, and the silver men find they can accomplish nothing of themselves, they may see fit to divide their vote and cast it for that candidate who will more nearly conform to their wishes. Preparatory to such a step, or at least anticipating such a movement, General Clark says that each candidate for Elector in the silver States has been required to give his pledge that he will support no candidate who will not agree to sign a Free Silver bill should it be passed by Congress.

General Clark's observations are confirmed by ex-Immigration Inspector H. E. Schulters, who has just been making an extensive tour through the West in the interest of the People's party.

A Card from Guinan

To the Editor of the APPEAL:—Notwithstanding your advice to make no reply to the lead in the News, advising voters not to vote for me for School Trustee, I will say that I cordially endorse this proposition, that Mr. McClure and Mr. Brulin are gentlemen, who will treat ladies courteously under all circumstances; and will state further, that any man or woman, who will say or insinuate that I will not do likewise, either does not comprehend the meaning of this word courteous, or maliciously lies. This declaration is open to all comers.

J. GUINAN.

Specimen Trickery.

The attempt of Sardis Summerfield to invalidate the complaint against Wm. Hy. Doane by dating it August instead of November, is a fair sample of his tricky work as District Attorney.

The complaint shows where the word August was written in and erased at the demand of John G. Fox. Anyone who doubts this statement can see the complaint at the Justice office.

Instructions to Voters.

During every hour of the day and evening until after the election, competent men will be in the rooms of the Silver Party Central Committee (in Ormsby House Block) to instruct voters how to prepare their ballots under the new Australian ballot law. Every Silver party man should visit the rooms and get the desired information.

Yesterday fifteen voters, all intelligent gentlemen, agreed that the one who was the longest in correctly making out his ballot and folding the same should treat the crowd. The word was given and the labor commenced. After a lapse of nearly five minutes the contestants had dwindled down to two, and at the expiration of that time the fourteenth man had finished. Upon the ballots being opened, eight were found to be erroneously marked and six folded wrong. This shows the necessity of having sample ballots.—Journal.

At the time Hy Doane was threatened the life of John G. Fox, the latter held two notes against him, one dated April 1st 1876, for $400, for goods furnished in Gold Hill, and another for $29 dated September 1st 1875. When a demand was made on him for the payment through a Commercial Agency he replied that he did not legally owe Mr. Fox anything.

It is a collection of just such notes as this that has nearly ruined Mr. Fox previously. Mr. Doane's notes are now for sale at a nominal sum.

The Same Old Weaver.

So says the Chicago Tribune, and for once that unreliable tool of monopolies hit the nail on the head.

Yes, it's "the same old Weaver," The "same old Weaver" who in 1880 against the most adverse circumstances polled about 350,000 votes as the candidate of the Greenback party.

The "same old Weaver" who, during his two years in Congress, made things so hot for the two old parties that they fairly turned heaven and earth to defeat his re-election, which they accomplished only by outrageous lying, scattering Wall street money like leaves of the forest over his entire district.

It's the "same old Weaver" who made that scathing speech in Congress against the Government depositing $60,000,000 among national banks as a compensation to partisan politicians for services rendered.

It's the "same old Weaver" so noted in politics for calling things by their right names and giving figures and dates and book and page.

It's the "same old Weaver" whom the farmer and mechanics of the whole country have been booming for President for the past twelve months, and who, in November, will make both Cleveland and Harrison look ten times sicker than did Bennie when he heard Gresham was going to run.

Yes, Mr. Tribune, it's the "same old Weaver."—Chicago Express.

JOHN W. HY-DOANE, Rector.

Last Night's Meeting.

The Republican candidates gave a pleasant entertainment at the Opera House last night to an audience of ladies and silver men. There was music—vocal and instrumental, and recitations. The candidates, though a little nervous, spoke their pieces quite well, but the feature of the evening was Summerfield's abuse of the APPEAL editor, who was absent in Reno.

Silver Party Committee Meeting.

Tonight a full committee and candidates meeting will be held in the Silver Party rooms over Harris' barber shop. Everyone of the committee and candidates should be on hand.

ALL SORTS.

If Mr. Doane is going to shoot everybody who says he wants commissions on contracts, he will require a gatling gun.

Any voter who expects to see the ballots voted on election day the same size as the sample ballots, will be very much mistaken.

The train that took the Republicans of Carson to Dayton on Thursday evening were met at Dayton with cheers for Weaver and Field.

From the way Mr. Doane was departing himself yesterday he aspires to be the Treasurer instead of the Secretary of the State Central Committee.

The Reno Gazette plaintively asks what is the matter with the Carson Tribune. We should say that the principle ailment of the Tribune was Ed. Parkinson.

The meeting at Wadsworth night before last was the largest political gathering ever held at Wadsworth. Newlands made a convincing speech and captured the town, Wadsworth will give him a large majority.

On the same day and hour that Mrs. Harrison was buried the helm of party management went into the hands of Matt Quay who was called to New York to buy that State for Harrison.

Mr. McCabe has frequently said that he would like to see the color of the hair of the son of a gun who could beat him in Ormsby.

An inspection of the head of Mr. John Ellis will end his anxious search for political novelties.

The Republican ring in this county went to pieces yesterday completely demolished. They have abandoned the fight on the legislative ticket and are trying to save what they can from the wreck of the county ticket.
