The crowd at the keno game at the Monarch Saloon is increasing every night. The big pots and small percentage, is the drawing card. *

A keno game has been started at the Monarch. The motto of the managers will be "Small percentage and big pots." *

ALL SORTS.

Lost—A bracelet. Finder call at this office.

Creed Raymond is reported dying in San Francisco.

Clayton Belknap, of Virginia City, was in town yesterday.

Mrs G. W. Richard and sons returned from California Sunday.

Remember the $25 pot at the Monarch saloon Sunday night. *

Dr. Lee is expected home in a few days very much improved in health.

It is said that Superintendent Overton of the Gold Hill Water Co. has resigned.

Remember the dance on Friday night to be given by the new club. It will be nice affair.

The wife of Phillip Krall has presented him with a son. Accept congratulations and expect lively music.

Baron Magri paid the APPEAL of fine a visit last night and kept the fire up during the printing of our large edition.

Ashton the pugilist died of delirium tremens. He hit the bottle too often and succumbed from counters on the stomach.

Although six of the first class who participated in the medal competition a week ago were absent from the range Sunday, the highest ten rolled up 442 points an average of 44 1-5.

J. M. Campbell has retired from the management of the Enterprise and announced in its columns Sunday that the paper would be run by the New Enterprise Publishing Company.

Our evening contemporary cannot get over the disappointment of the last election. He and his associates have been so thoroughly repudiated by the people that it would be a quiet exhibition of good taste to shut up.

Mr. J. P. Howe, manager and proprietor of the Mrs. Gen. Tom Thumb Co., was manager and proprietor of the W. E. Sheridan Co., which visited the Comstock and Carson several years ago, and gave us such grand performances as King Lear and Louis XI. Mr. Howe was also manager last season of the Minnie Hank Grand Opera Co. of 80 people, the largest traveling company in America.

Indians in Council.

Yesterday about twenty Indians assembled in Carson to have a political talk. They took possession of the front steps of the Capitol and discussed the fish business for two hours. Of course the State officers came out and attempted to take a hand in running the convention, just from force of habit. But old Johnson Sides, the interpreter, rebuked them:
 "You jussu mind your own bizzness, you ole party play out last fall." Sides is well posted on politics.

Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons convened at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Judge Belknap, was absent by reason of sickness.

The first case taken up was that of J. B. Johnson, sent from Lander for manslaughter. Hon. W. E. F. Deal presenting the case of applicant. Granted.

The cases of N. Curnow, Robert St Clair and W. R. Fontaine were continued until such time as a full Board should meet.

J. H. Ready, Storey, grand larceny. Under consideration.

The Kids Delighted.

Yesterday the miniature hack and ponies of Mrs. Tom Thumb, were driven about the streets, followed by crowds of delighted children.

The hack is about four feet high and the ponies not much larger than dogs. If the little fellow who drove the hack had started over the mountains to Placerville, every one of the children in his wake would have followed him over the range.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock. d13 t

When your watch or clock needs repairing, consult Frank Blethen, of the Carson Exchange block. Frank is a skillful workman and moderate in his charges. *

STEWART'S PLAIN TALK.

He Reads the Riot Act to Wall Street.

There is a good deal of comment in Washington over the speech delivered by Stewart on his proposed free silver amendment to the McPherson resolution, which directs the suspension of silver bullion purchases authorized by the act of July 14, 1890, especially that part of the address which had a strong political flavor, and which called some of the politicians to put on their thinking caps.

On this point Senator Stewart said: "In 1834 the Republican party was defeated because of hard times. The Democratic party promised free coinage of silver and financial relief, but failed to redeem its promise. The administration of President Cleveland maintained the corner on gold for the benefit of fixed capital. The convention which renominated Mr. Cleveland in 1888 made no mention of silver. The Republican party promised relief and promised to use silver as money and condemned the Democratic administration for its efforts to demonetize silver, but the Republican party failed to redeem its promises and adhered to the policy of the Democratic party which it had condemned.

"Discontent increased. Hard times made the people restless and dissatisfied. The gold kings nominated both candidates for the presidency and furnished them the same platform on the money question. The Democratic party promised relief by tariff reform. The Republican party promised nothing but adherence to existing conditions, both as to tariff and money. The people rebelled against such existing conditions. They decided that no change could be for the worse, and that any change might be for the better. Some, in their apathy and disgust, remained away from the polls, others, and a sufficient number, voted for a change, and the Republican party was defeated.

"The people put in a protest under the name of the Populist party. The Populist party was without position, without organization, without money, but by way of protest and without hope of success it polled more than 1,000,000 votes. The Democratic party has a lease of power limited to four years unless it men's its ways. If it maintains the corner on gold and does the bidding of the gold kings, the day of reckoning is at hand.

"The next election will bring another change more radical and more decided than any that has taken place since the war."

These ringing sentences have operated to call a halt upon some of the weak-kneed silver brethren, who were about tumbling into the political grave dug for them by the Wall street ghoul.

DIED.

At Dayton on the 6th of January, A. A. Atkins, aged 82 years.

Mr. Atkins was well known and respected by all who knew him. The funeral was held on Saturday under the direction of the Lodge of I. O. O. F., the Rev. Brother Davis, of Carson acting as Chaplain.

Mr. Atkins was the father of Mrs. Campbell, a long resident of Dayton.

Funeral of Thomas Kelly.

The funeral of Thomas Kelly was largely attended on Sunday afternoon. The firemen of Carson and many friends of the family, followed the remains to the cemetery. Rev. G. R. Davis officiated.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

Silver Ballots Cast for Weaver and Field.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock yesterday, Messrs. Bonfield, Powning and Wren, the three men who received the electoral vote of Nevada, met at the Secretary of State's office and cast the votes formally for Weaver and Field, the Populist candidates.

The ballots were solid silver plates about 3 inches by 2, and engraved, on one side of three of the ballots was:

"For President James B. Weaver, of Iowa."

The other three read:

"For Vice President, James G. Field, of Virginia."

On the reverse side of all the ballots was the inscription:

"Electoral Ballots of the State of Nevada, cast Jan. 9th, 1893."

The ballots were cast in the hat of ex-Governor Adams, each elector depositing two ballots.

The necessary papers recording the vote of Nevada were sealed and sent to Washington, and Mr. Bonfield was selected to carry the duplicate in person.

Two of these ballots will be sent to Weaver and Field, two to the Chairman of the National Peoples' Party Committee and the other two will go to Mr. Nixon, the Chairman of the Nevada State Central Committee.

The Midgets Tonight.

Manager Piper was besieged all day yesterday for a matinee but Mr. J. P. Howe the proprietor of the Mrs. Gen. Tom Thumb company could not give the afternoon performance but did make arrangements with Mr. Piper for another performance tonight, at matinee prices.

The Opera House was packed last night, with people standing up and setting on extra chairs.

We wish to call special attention to the adaptability of the midgets as modern love makers, and shows a great deal of study on the part of the Count and Baron, whose method in the art might be of some advantage to the Beau Brummels of this vicinity. These little people are wonderfully well balanced mentally, and Mr. Howe has succeeded in bringing them up to a high standard. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mozart succeeded in provoking laughter and Mozart himself can hit the stage more times in one minute with his feet than any eleg dancer on the Coast.

Trazom's Hypno Electro Magio with Mrs. Gen. Tom Thumb, whom he placed in a catamose state was a marvelous piece of work. Souvenirs will be given to every lady attending.

A grand extra night tonight at the Opera House. Mrs. General Tom Thumb Company will give an extra performance.

The entire performance will be given and in addition Mrs. Gen. Tom Thumb will give a reception when she will meet all her audience immediately after the performance in the theatre.

General admission to all parts of the house 50 cents, children 25 cents. Reserved seats 25 cents extra. Secure your seats early.

Rochester Lamps

Call and inspect at Jacob Muller's store the largest assortment and latest patterns of Rochester lamps ever brought to this market. Having imported them direct from the factory, enables me to sell them for less than they were ever sold before in this State. Also a large assortment of Fancy China, and glass ware, of the latest patterns, just arrived for the holidays. Give me a call and see for yourself. d23 JACOB MULLER.

Mrs. Duffy and Miss Wilcox will give an apron and necktie party at Old Fellows' Hall, Wednesday, Jan. 11. Admission cents 50 cents. Dancing school every Wednesday evening. j6td.

Commencing with Dec. 1st, 1892, I will sell jewelry, fancy goods and all Holiday goods at Auction Prices. d1tf JOHN G. FOX.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.
