

REGISTRATION.

The Chinese Must Sign With Uncle Sam or Go.

L. B. Ayers, the register agent who is in Carson for the purpose of signing the Chinese who wish to comply with the Geary law...

He says of the negligence on the part of the Chinese to take out certificates of residence:

"It seems that the Chinese six companies have assessed all the Chinamen in the United States from one to five dollars and managed to accumulate nearly a million dollars with which to fight the law."

"Why only yesterday Quong Hing one of the Chinese merchants of your city, told me that the six companies had instructed them not to sign under pain of severe punishment."

"If this is the case it is about time to show the Chinese the error of their ways and give them a dose of U. S. law, or else quit making statute books."

"If the test case soon to be made is knocked out, and I believe it will be, the heathens will be compelled to show their certificates or else suffer the penalty."

"Will it not be a great expense to the Government to ship the offenders back to China as this law provides after they have finished the year at hard labor?"

"Not particularly," continued Mr. Ayers, "we can send them over on our new cruisers by the hundreds and style the voyage a trial trip."

"The six companies will spend every dollar they have secured by their assessment and it will be the means of scattering some Chinese money among Americans. Perhaps it's a good thing (for us) that they are attempting to fight the law."

Mr. Ayers has his headquarters in Sacramento and is pretty generally known in Nevada. He has a wonderful memory for names and faces which causes him to accost every other man he meets...
