IN DEFENSE OF NEVADA.

The following is an extract from a speech made in Congress by Congressman Newlands:

The gentleman from Ohio [Mr. H. R. H.] yesterday, in opposing the measures for the admission of Utah to the Union, declared that if we had only some means of turning out Nevada whilst we let in Utah he might be in favor of it. I do not see the gentleman on the floor, and I am at a loss to know why Nevada should be the special object of animadversion whenever this question of the creation of a new State is brought up. Do the people of that State forget that when the country was in the throes of rebellion the little State of Nevada poured into the lap of the nation $600,000,000? Do they forget that President Lincoln, shortly before his death, viewing with gratification the increased output of silver in that and the adjoining States, asked Speaker Colfax to bear to that people a special message of congratulation on the fact that "the increasing production of silver in that region will aid the country in the restoration of specie payment and solve perplexing financial questions?"

In this festive week when absent ones are vividly in mind, call at the Novelty Bazaar and select some little kind remembering token for their awakening; a thousand and one things are there to be had, at the lowest prices such as will bud forth the New Year with renewed zest to each and all.

Little did that man of sorrow and of anxiety realize that within eight years after his death the utility of silver would be destroyed; that this country by legislation would deny itself the special benefaction which nature had given it, and that a great and controlling industry in that region would be suppressed.

The following are echoes from the New York Sun:

G. C.—The President can do no wrong.

E.—Wrong!

G. C.—When I arise the sun arises also.

E.—So!

G. C.—And the stars scatter before me like rats.

E.—Rats!

G. C.—I am the lightning and thunder.

E.—Thunder!

G. C.—And when I strike, the earth and the politics thereof are confused beyond question.

E.—Question!

G. C.—I am a strong torrent that cannot well be dammed.

E.—Be dammed!

G. C.—The nations of the earth turn fearful eyes on me and wait my fateful words.

E.—Words!

G. C.—I make a platform, fit a tariff bill or wink when others do, and find it good with all its faults.

E.—False!

G. C.—I see the Stars and Stripes go down to be a royal door mat, but then I don't approve it.

E.—Prove it.

G. C.—I'm here to do the right by weak or strong, and by the gods I'll have my way or bust.

E.—Bust!

G. C.—I fix a time to crown Queen, and at the hour it must eventuate.

E.—You wait!

The trial of abortionist Hall for murder was again postponed on Tuesday for the sixty first time. No one ever deserved hanging more. A day or two after committing the criminal operation, knowing the girl would die, and fearing the result, he took her from her bed, crossed the Oakland ferry, put her in the cars, and left her to her fate. A kind-hearted stranger, noticing she was ill, went to her assistance, and half an hour later she died in his arms. This stranger was afterwards arrested and confined in jail on suspicion, and kept there until Hall was accidentally discovered to be the real culprit. He would have permitted an innocent man to hang for his crime. This all happened more than two years ago, yet Hall walks the streets a free man.—S. F. Star.
