

THE MORNING APPEAL.

The Official Paper of Ormsby County SATURDAY.....MARCH 9

PINNED TO THE WALL.

Summerfield Forced to show his Hand.

There was a rich scene in the Senate yesterday on the passage of the Income Tax Bill. It was introduced by Summerfield and he counted on being thus enabled to place somebody on record. He made a flowery speech in support of the bill, saying that the measure advocated in the Omaha platform and that it was endorsed by the Populists of the country. After finishing his talk he took his seat with a self-satisfied smirk on his face and settled back to witness the dilemma in which he supposed he had placed his conquerors. When his name was reached he realized that the bill would pass. The smile left him and he began to wear a serious look as he turned uneasily in his chair. But Maute of Eye was dead on and called for another roll call insisting on the enforcement of the rule requiring every senator to vote. The roll was called again and Summerfield made another move to avoid facing the issue. He rose, went over and leaned against the window. Maute would not let up and he called for the rules again. The Senate sustained him, and so the Chair ordered Summerfield to his seat with sharp rap of the gavel, and told him he had to vote. They would tolerate no cowardly lurking of the issue and so Summerfield had to come to his senses and at and vote on the bill. When his name was reached he chirped a faint "aye" and a loud laugh went round the body at the idea that he had been placed on record as a full fledged Populist while posing as a Republican leader of the Senate minority.

The Lander Tragedy.

Further reports from Lander of the Indian killing published exclusively last Thursday's APPEAL show that an Indian named "Cockey" had a quarrel with his sister over $1.50, which she refused to loan him. He killed his sister with a shotgun, and then beat her little children's brains out with a club. He also shot his mother and beat her terribly, breaking her arm and ribs, but not killing her. The murderer has always been considered a bad Indian, and for several years past has repeatedly threatened to kill the family, and last Friday put threat into execution, and had no brother taken such a hasty departure would no doubt have been decapitated also. Saturday afternoon the three unfortunate victims were buried. Monday afternoon Coroner J. A. Cook departed for the scene of the tragedy to hold an inquest. The murderer is in the hands of the authorities and the tribe want to shoot him.

Hiroshima, March 7.—A dispatch from General Nodsu, dated Hai Ching March 4, says two divisions of the First Japanese army assaulted New Chwang proper at 10 that day and entered the city at noon. A portion of the enemy's forces at noon fled to Yen Kow, the New Chwang settlement. The remaining Chinese troops made a stubborn resistance, occupying the houses of the city. Some desperate street fighting followed, and the Chinese were completely routed at 11 P. M., leaving 190 killed upon the field. The Japanese captured 500 prisoners and 14 guns, together with a quantity of munitions of war and colors. The Japanese loss was 28 killed and wounded.

Miss Frank's Lecture.

There was a large audience at the Methodist church last evening, composed of the best people of the city, to listen to the interesting lecture delivered by Miss Ray Frank, on the subject, "The Heart Throbs of Israel."

The APPEAL regrets that lack of space prevents a full report of one of the most eloquent and interesting discourses ever delivered in this city. It was replete with gems of thought and eloquence, and listened to with the most profound attention by a delighted audience.

The entertainment to be given by the Cadets tonight is an assured success. The box sheet is well filled and no choice seats are left. It is a safe thing that the performance will be highly entertaining and the drills alone are worth the price of admission.
