The Enterprise, who when the world comes to an end will lay it to the Silver party, blames the Silver party for not having told who was to be claim adjuster of the Southern Pacific.

It is generally supposed that the Spanish Government is doctoring the dispatches sent from Cuba and that there is really a bigger rebellion on the island than the Spanish Government is willing to admit.

The Rockford III Monitor reports as follows: "We spent last year $870,000,000 for meat and $1,080,000 for liquor."

If we had such an appetite or such a thirst we would never publish it to the world.

A Girl's Confession.

Omaha, March 29. — Cora Smith, who came here last September, from Des Moines, was arrested this morning on a charge of murdering her father. The girl's mother is now in the Iowa penitentiary for murdering her husband. Cora finally made a confession, saying she could not bear to see her mother suffering a life of imprisonment for a crime she committed herself. The girl's father was first mysteriously shot and made blind. He recovered and was then slowly poisoned to death.

FILLED FULL.

HOW MASON DEALS WITH THE INTERVIEWER.

Mr. Mason, the gentleman who is inspecting the Mint shortage, is one of the closest mouthed men in the world, but he never lets it appear that way. When a newspaper man goes to the Mint to gather information about the shortage he inquires for Mr. Mason and is ushered right up stairs.

The dialogue is something like this:

"Mr. Mason I believe."

"Yes sir take a seat."

"I suppose by this time you have particulars about the shortage."

"Yes indeed, glad you called."

"Have you nailed the man yet?"

"Well we are yorking on him."

"Of course you know by this time who the man is?"

"Yes I think we do."

"Well I suppose you have no reasons now for keeping the thing quiet any longer?"

"No particular reason that I know of. In fact I—"

"There comes a long pause."

"Its pleasant weather, isn't it Mr. Editor."

"Yes indeed."

"Almost too pleasant to be in doors."

"But about the bullion theft. Did you assay the bar?"

"What bar?"

"The stolen bar."

"Why bless you my boy how could we if it was gone?"

"Oh yes, that's so."

"As soon as we assay it we will let you know."

"Have the bondsmen gone off his bonds yet?"

"Whose bonds?"

"The man who took the brick?"

"I can't inform you on that. Say let me suggest, pardon me if I suggest a course. See his bondsmen and get the story from them."

"But who are they?"

"I haven't the slightest idea; no one has ever told me."

"Yes I'll go down street and see 'em."

Interviewer slides down stairs and winks significantly when he is asked about the shortage as he says: "I know a great deal about it, but yer see Mason told me confidentially and I wouldn't think of giving it away."

April Weather.

Festers's calculations for April are as follows:

Temperature in the New England States will average about normal and rainfall below. South Atlantic States temperature and rain about normal. The mouth of the James river I make the dividing line between north and south Atlantic states.

The Ohio valley and upper and lower lakes low temperature and average rain. West Gulf States and Lower Missouri valley high temperature and dry. Upper Mississippi valley average temperature and dry. Upper Missouri valley and Red River of the North high temperature and dry. North Pacific coast temperature and rainfall above. South Pacific coast temperature and rainfall below.

The average path of the April lows, or storm centers, enters the Pacific coast at mouth of Columbia river, passes about 150 miles north of Salt Lake and Chicago, over south parts of Newfoundland, Ireland and England. During first half of coming April the paths of storm centers will principally lie north and the last half south of the average path described above.

Death of Capt. Todman.

News was received here yesterday of the death of Captain Todman at Orangetown, California.

Capt. Todman has been for many years identified with the steamboat business at Lake Tahoe. He owned the first boat navigated by steam at the Lake and placed several fast crafts upon the waters of the famous summer resort. He was the father of Mrs. Judge Goodwin of Salt Lake. At the time of his death he owned considerable property about the Lake and also some fruit ranches in California.

Years ago when everything was booming in Nevada and California there was always a big rush of pleasure seekers to the Lake and Capt. Todman made a great deal of money which he invested advantageously in California.

He was known to all the tourists of the Coast and the portly old Captain's picture spinning mariners yarns often graced the pages of the city papers.

He will be missed from the Lake by the thousands who depended on him to steer them safely across the Lake in rough weather.

Crystallized limestone is being hauled from the deposits of that mineral near Steamboat Springs to Reno where a lot of it will be burned to see if it can be used as mortar for building and plastering houses.

Pythian Camp.

In May the Uniform Rank of the K. O. P. will hold an encampment at Monterey.

Tickets for the round trip include railroad fare (both ways), transportation of baggage to and from Monterey, use of tent during the week and seventeen meals. The cost of these round-trip tickets is fixed as follows from the points named:

Truckee.....	$18 40
Colfax.....	16 10
Sacramento.....	14 20
Suisun.....	12 95
Red Bluff.....	18 10
Nevada City.....	17 10
Woodland.....	14 10
Fresno.....	15 60

Children between 5 and 12 years, half fare.

These figures are not given unless sixty people, a full carload leave the point named. Upon request, rates will be given from any other railroad station where a carload can be obtained. At a trifling cost in excess of these figures a number of towns can combine and make a carload. Committees or individuals should go to work at once and work zealously, for the time is short. After May 4th no tickets will be sold.

The Orphans' Home.

The Orphans' Home Commissioners have elected Arthur M. Beebe of Reno Superintendent of the Orphans' Home. The Board consists of State Treasurer Westerfield, Surveyor General Pratt, and School Superintendent Cutting. Mr. Pratt voted to retain the present incumbent Mr. Grimm, and Mr. Westerfield and Mr. Cutting voted for Mr. Beebe, who was elected.

Mr. Beebe is an old resident of Reno and is highly respected. He is sober and industrious, never uses harsh language and is kind to children. He was among the first Republicans to join the silver cause in 1892, and he supported Weaver in the Presidential campaign of that year. His wife, who is an excellent lady, will be Matron of the Home, and Miss Mamie Moore will be teacher after the expiration of the present term.

The selection of Mr. Beebe gives general satisfaction, and those who are acquainted with the gentleman say that the Board could not have made a better choice.—Journal.

The Arlington Case.

The case of A. Livingston vs. John Wagner for $1,500 was tried in the District Court yesterday.

The evidence showed that when the Stein Bros. left the Hotel, Isador Stein left $2000 worth of furniture with Wagner with the agreement that he should sell it and turn all the money over to Stein except $500, which he had paid to the Bank for a claim against the Hotel. Stein then assigned his claim of $1,500 to Livingston who brought suit.

The Court decided that Wagner not having sold the furniture as yet, did not owe the $1,500 under the agreement. But that the furniture, however, was Steins and the money subjected to his order when sold.

Beef Rising.

Cattlemen are purchasing and shipping cattle from all over the State, and beef continues to rise. A dispatch from St. Paul says:

There has been an advance in the price of all dressed meats. Beef has gone up in the last two days from 2 to 2½ cents, and interviews with prominent dealers indicate that there will be a further rise of from 3 to 5 cents in the next couple of weeks.

There is a great scarcity of cattle that are fit for the market. The drouth of last summer was so prolonged that cattle went into the winter in bad condition, and farmers have fed them just enough to keep them alive. Montana cattle are reported in fair condition, but none of these will reach this market for many weeks. There is also a great scarcity of hogs and sheep.

Joaquin Miller wants to organize a relief expedition to go down to the Sandwich Islands and liberate the political prisoners there.
