

BOUND TO SHOW 'EM.

The society young girls of San Francisco are all in favor of showing their legs to the public through the newspapers.

Now these same women display their calves to the public as short skirted bicycle riders. As you scan their names, they are the same identical people who were parading their shapes last summer at the seaside.

Jim Fair and Miss Couzins.

Of all the women who claim to have been engaged to Jim Fair, Miss Pheobe Couzins, the lawyer, seems to have the call. She has published his letters, and got her pictures in all the papers.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Tribune's comments on the article of our Eureka correspondent are in keeping with everything that the Tribune has said concerning the late Legislature. It says that "no Republican paper would have published the article or speak lightly of Mr. Allen."

A special dispatch from Eureka, Nevada, received by the Enterprise, says that Lieutenant Governor Sadler was honorably discharged from custody at a preliminary examination, and that there was great excitement in Eureka over the attempt to besmirch the character of a man who is known to be honorable and who is highly respected in the community in which he lives.

An American gentleman recently went over the field at Waterloo with a guide who boasted that he escorted General Sheridan over the scene of Napoleon's great defeat.

Dr. Hogan admits over his signature that the APPEAL's statement that the County Segregation bill was bent on by purchasing votes in the Senate in 1871. Now will Dr. Hogan go further and tell the public who bought and sold the votes.

Controller LaGrave and family came in on the morning's train. They will occupy part of John G. Fox's dwelling for the next four years.

The chances are that it will be eight years, as all the Silver party State officials stand good chance of having a second term.

Silver touched its highest point for years on Saturday last.

The Weiland Saloon.

Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human.
