

EDITORIAL NOTES.

D. I. Robb, one of the owners of the Douglas and Brown group of mines in Silver Star district, informs his brother, Francis Robb, that the mines have been sold to a Colorado syndicate. There are twenty-five mining claims and the consideration is said to be over half a million dollars.

The Whisky Trust is said to be about to dissolve into its original elements. The Cordage Trust has reduced its capital stock from $34,000,000 to $15,000,000. Other trusts are said to be tottering, but the Coal Oil Trust, the monarch of all, seems to be invulnerable.

The Eastern papers are full of refutations of what is termed "Coin's Miserable Logic." If there was not something either in "Coin's" statements or in his way of stating them, so much refutation would not be needed.

Since Boss Buckley has presented Jake Redolph with 100 shares of lottery stock and a house and lot, Jake's symptoms of pistol insanity are subsiding.

The Supreme Court of Illinois has done more than kill the whisky trust. Its decision is a blow at other corporations of a like nature in that State.

Steel Tower and Water Tank.

Dr. Bergstein, Superintendent of the Nevada Hospital for Mental Diseases, is having a tower and water tank erected at the hospital which will supply every room with water. The tower and tank are made of steel. The tower will be 75 feet high, and the tank is 14 feet high with 16,000 gallon capacity. The total weight of the tower and tank is 24,000 pounds and when the tank is full it will weigh 168,000 pounds. The tower is erected on granite piers, laid in cement and capable of sustaining ten million pounds. The water is pumped by water power from a well on the banks of the Truckee into a tank, the elevation of which is sufficient to force the water into every room in the hospital building.

A Heartless Woman.

Recently a man and horse were found dead on the Wadsworth road, dead from want of water. It has transpired that the wife of the Section boss at Luning refused the man water and this caused his death. The resignation of her husband has been called for by the company.

The Asylum Annex.

The following were the bids put in yesterday to erect the Asylum annex: R. Ryland $8495, Burk Bros. $9287, J. Walker $9225, Geo. E. Holensworth $9174, C. L. Cough $9449, Anderson Patterson $8949. Ryland was awarded the contract.

No Contract.

The Board of Orphans' Home Commissioners have decided to report both the bids put in to build the annex, as they are regarded as too high.

A pastor of a very poor church wished to present his congregation with hymn books, but did not have the money where to buy them. The proprietor of a patent medicine offered to give the books, provided he were allowed to insert his advertisement in them. The preacher reluctantly consented. When the books arrived he examined them carefully, but could not find the advertisement. Congratulating himself upon his good fortune, he presented on Easter morning, then announced, "We will sing No. 67." On glancing at the page an audible smile went through the congregation. They sang as follows: "Hark, the herald angels sing! Johnson's pills are just the thing Peace on earth and mercy mild, Two for man and one for child."

The report in the Chronicle that Anderson's team had run away and killed four horses is untrue. Ex-Assemblyman Brookless tried to drive a ten mule team which bunched on him and a mule broke a leg. Referred to Committee on Public Highways.

Nothing has ever sold so rapidly in Carson as the patent washer for worn out wagon wheels. If any thing ever filled a long felt want it is this simple little invention. It is as handy as a knob on a door.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Cutting returned from below yesterday.

Lazzarone won the Suburban race at Sheep-head Bay. An 8 to 1 shot.

There was a smash-up on the street last evening. No one hurt.
