John G. Fox has a very large display of Christmas goods and wishes the announcement made that he will refuse no reasonable offer.

Active work has commenced on the "Pearl of Savoy" by the Carson Dramatic Club and it will probably be presented during the early part of February.

The municipal authorities of Little Rock, Arkansas, yesterday refused the application of Col. Bob Ingersoll for a license to deliver a lecture in that place.

The Ozark has been fitted up in very elaborate style and the bar partitioned off from the rest and, separate card rooms made. All drinks are ten cents.

The Hawthorne Bulletin says that the report of the sale of the Silver Star group of mines is merely rumor, as the owners of the claims fail to verify the report.

The Atlantic Constitution thinks that if the gold-bugs will climb up and look over the transom they will not think any more that the free coinage men are preparing for a funeral.

The Silver State says the pumping machinery taken by C. Derby to Bartlett Creek is being put up to drain the Badger mine. The shaft is now down 200 feet, and Mr. Derby hopes to be able to sink 200 feet further with the aid of the pump. If the ledge holds out a mill will be put up, as the ore is free milling and assays well in gold.

THE GOVERNORS CONDITION

He is Reported very low in San Francisco.

Yesterday morning it was reported that Governor Jones had died in San Francisco. This originated in the fact that his Private Secretary, Mr. Hanford, had been sent for to bring down his two children and private papers. A dispatch was also received at this office to the effect that he had cancer of the stomach. Gov. Colecord stated to the APPEAL last evening that his physician stated positively that there was not the slightest symptom of cancer of the stomach, although his stomach was in a very bad condition. He also looked for the passage of gall stones, and said that when he got rid of them he would suffer intensely and it would be a critical condition and by no means out of danger.

Governor Saddle, who would be his successor in case of death, arrived yesterday. Much concern is felt in this city and throughout the State over the Governor's condition, and the greatest anxiety is manifested by his friends.

A dispatch was received at this office in the afternoon to the effect that his condition was favorable and that he was resting easier.

Later, San Francisco, Jan. 9, 9:40 p. m.—Governor Jones is still alive but sinking, and it is not thought he will live much longer. May live a day or two, as physicians cannot tell what effect medicine may have.

Chas. M. Shortridge.
Later, San Francisco, 11:50 p. m.—No change in Governor Jones' condition since last report.

A Bad Runaway.

Yesterday about noon a ranch wagon drawn by two horses and driven by a Chinaman ran away on North Carson street. They started to run towards the town. The driver evidently tried to make a turn opposite N. S. R. Co.'s place when the hind axle broke, throwing the Chinaman to the ground. He fell on his head, the forehead being severely bruised. As he was picked up unconscious it is supposed that his skull was fractured. He was employed by Hong On, who has a ranch near Henry Bath's.

After the wagon broke the horses ran down main street one of them dashing into the delivery wagon in front of Wagner's store, breaking a shaft. The runaway horse fell down and was captured.

Some Rich Lots of Ore.

Jim Perkins had ten sacks of ore worked at the mill last week which produced $300. The ore came from the Palmico mine.

Another lot from from the same mine belonging to Perkins, Dickerson and Glantz, yielded $600. There were only 20 sacks in this lot.

Jim Belzar informs us that six tons of ore which he shipped to the mill cleaned up $800.

Last Saturday Bob Stewart hoisted out six pounds and 10 ounces of rock from the Gem mine, and on Sunday he took the amalgam to the mill and after melting received a bar weighing 35 ounces. As the gold from this mine is worth $13.50 an ounce this would make the value of the bar $472.50. Pretty good for less than seven pounds of dirt.—Hawthorne Bulletin.

Frozen to Death.

Saturday morning about daylight when freight train No. 6 pulled into the yard here, Indian Snowball was found on the rear steps of the caboose insensible from the intense cold. He was taken into the car shop but died there in a few minutes. When found his hand was frozen to the hand rails of the caboose and were loosened after considerable difficulty. In all probability he boarded the train at Winnemucca to ride to Wadsworth and slowly froze to death.—Wadsworth Dispatch.

By the way some of the Nevada statesmen who have jumped upon Mr. Newlands because of his patriotic utterances in his recent Reno speech, it would appear that they are hard to please. The same gentleman in the past have found fault with Mr. Newlands because once upon a time he employed an English coachman, and said he was too English for them to support. Now because he has publicly stated that he believes a war with Great Britain would immediately break the gold standard and that he was ready for it, they are all having spasms of brotherly love for England and their fellow man. Upon the war question they are just as un-American as upon the silver question.

The Bodie Miner says a lot of ground at Aurora, Esmeralda county, on which tailings have been accumulating since the early days of that once flourishing camp, has been located under the mining law. The ground is now covered with a dense growth of sagebrush.

Stark Found Guilty.

Yesterday the Justice Court was crowded with jurors, witnesses and spectators to listen to the trial of L. W. Stark, proprietor of the Ormsby House, for assault on Wm. Parker.

Stark threw a beer glass at Parker, his barkeeper, because he wanted to quit. The glass hit Parker in the chin inflicting a painful cut. He then had Stark arrested.

The jury was out but a few minutes and returned a verdict of guilty as charged.

During the trial it was found necessary to eject Joseph Langevin. He insisted on closing the damper of the stove against the orders of the officers. After Constable Patterson had opened the damper half a dozen times and Langevin had closed it as many Langevin jumped to his feet and asked the Court for permission to close the stove damper.

"Sit down," said the court. Langevin failed to obey the order, and Joe Cowan and Patterson grabbed him and hustled him out of the room. It took the combined strength of the two heavyweights to do the work. After this little incident the court proceeded to business.

Stark will be sentenced at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A State Convention.

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—Mayor Sutro and Mayor Davie held a conference this morning and decided to call a State convention to discuss plans for the defeat of the Funding bill. The convention will be held on Wednesday, January 15. Every town with a population of 1,000 will be entitled to one delegate and the larger towns will be entitled to one delegate from each 5,000 of its population. Delegates will be appointed by the mayors or chairmen of the supervisors.

To be Prosecuted.

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—The Government has not yet finished with the once famous Howell case. Howell is now in Stockton and is safe from further prosecution, but some of his witnesses are to be prosecuted for perjury. C. D. Hanson, whose testimony helped Howell materially, has been indicted by the Grand Jury for perjury. Hanson is now said to be in Nebraska.

CHEAP CUSTOM WORK A DECEPTION.

A style of tailoring is rapidly gaining headway which is but an imposition upon the consumer and a detriment to the workman. The cheap custom work or what is called "special order work," is a shrewd dodge for the purpose of deceiving the customer into the belief that he is obtaining custom work at ready made prices. The real worth of custom work lies in the exactness of the fit, and the thoroughness in which it is made. Cheap custom work is therefore inferior to ready made work.

Large concerns, some also engaged in ready made work have grown up of late and depend for patronage upon retail stores, and have numerous agents scattered everywhere soliciting orders and gain trade because of the strikingly cheap prices offered for goods made to order. As a rule these agents seldom obtain an order twice from the same person.

It is about time that this scheme was exposed to the people and ABE COHN of the EMPORIUM shows up the fraud. If you want clothes that fit and are tried on as often as is necessary call at the EMPORIUM Court House Building, Carson City, Nevada.
