Terrible Explosion.
Johannesburg, South African Republic, Feb. 20.—Details are reaching this city today of what is probably the most disastrous dynamite explosion on record in any part of the world.
Thousands of people have been rendered homeless by the terrible calamity. About a hundred are believed to have been killed, two or three hundred men, women and children severely wounded and many others injured. Viedendorp, the scene of the calamity, is a suburb of Johannesburg, and in it are huddled members of the poorer classes, whites, Malays, Kaffirs and Chinamen.
On the ground were the blackened shapes of human remains, limbs, heads and trunks, scorched and torn.
The victims mostly Malays, Kaffirs and Chinamen, as the whites are in the minority at Viedendorp. Quite a number of white people, including six girls, were killed. In 15 minutes after the explosion the bodies of 50 dead persons, horribly mutilated, were picked up and carried away, while the searching of the ruins continued without intermission. Over 200 of the most severely injured were also carried away, and hundreds of other taken to places to be cared for.
Eight cars of dynamite exploded and caused this horror.

The Cubans all Right.
Houston, Tex., Feb. 20.—Captain J.
H. McGarvey, an old Texas veteran, has just returned from Cuba. On October 16th last he left Key West for Cuba in charge of the Viesta, with a crew of eight men. At Key West the Viesta was loaded with arms and ammunition branded as hard, bacon, etc., and he was instructed to turn the cargo over to an insurgent commander. On reaching the Cuban coast he was chased by a Spanish man-of-war and was compelled to beach his vessel, which he did, and then burned it in order to keep the Spanish from getting it.
He and his crew struck out from their landing place, near Matanzas, for the interior and joined the Insurgents.

Captain McGarvey says the Cubans have at least 45,000 men under arms; that they are supplied with guns and ammunition, and also receive supplies of money regularly from the United States. He remained with the troops until a fortnight ago. He says that the Cubans have the Spaniards completely whipped and at their mercy, and says the reports of Spanish victories are falsehoods.

The Fight.
El Paso, Feb. 20.—Maher left Las Cruces this morning, in a buggy with John Quinn and Peter Lowery, intending to drive across the country some distance and to catch a train. The object is to dodge the rangers. Should Maher be caught by the rangers, the chances are that he will be arrested and placed under heavy bonds not to fight on Texas soil. Fitzsimmons, Julian, Stensel and Jack McCoy leave Juarez at noon today and report, for orders, to Dan Stuart in El Paso. The fight is practically certain to be on Mexican soil, at Rio Grande 50 to 100 miles from El Paso.

Castoria.
"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and

TIMES CHANGE ALSO PRICES.
Do you realize this. Do you know what made it. It was not the old time grocers who showed the people the value of a dollar, but new blood forced new prices to the front and showed the people where they were at.
We did not have to reduce prices to meet them they came to our price. This is our claim. We only want you to know where the credit belongs and deal accordingly.
We changed with the times, not after them, and our groceries are sold for modern prices.
