THE TONOPAH MINING MARKET.

The manipulators of the Tonopah mining market are having a hard time of it to create interest among local dealers. The trouble lies with themselves in overlooking the fact that while they may be the best of miners, it is not everyone that is a born financier. One of the greatest mistakes made in regard to these companies is their immense capitalization. This looks very well to the Eastern man, but it does not suit the ideas of people here, who are accustomed to the system in vogue elsewhere of building up values on paper. Take the best mine ever discovered, and it must have its infancy like everything else, and to start it off as a prospect with 2,000,000 shares, at a dollar each, offered at a discount of 90 per cent to start with, and then jumped to $2.50 when the first stringer of good ore is cut in a shaft not down 40 feet, is neither fair to the mine itself nor the people who take stock in it. Merit alone can win out nowadays in the local mining market, and development of ore, not the mere "strike" of it alone, can assist the manipulator, who in turn must have some training in the business. Admitting all that is claimed for the quality and quantity of Tonopah ores, the method of introducing the shares of the mines to a discriminating public is not such as to win success, and a complete change of base upon the part of the operators could be made with safety.—S. F. News Letter.

Reno sporting men say that gambling has fallen off nearly 50 per cent since gaming was removed to the second story.

"It is perfectly absurd," said Grover Cleveland the other day to a newspaper correspondent, "to suppose for an instant that I have any desire to re-enter public life. Nor have I remotely entertained the thought since I left Washington six years ago." If he did have any desire to re-enter public life he could never do so—not alone because of his treachery to Democratic principals, but because it is an unwritten, but sacred law of the land that no man shall occupy the Presidential office more than two terms. We think Mr. Cleveland is sincere when he says he has "never remotely entertained the thought since he left Washington six years ago." What ever else may be said of him, it must be admitted that he can tell "a hawk from a hand-saw" and "can see beyond his nose."—San Francisco Star.

James Dunn came down Thursday with the $500 forfeit of the Winnemucca ball team and deposited it with the Lovelock Commercial company. We are now sure of a game Sunday, July 5th, and they want to play for $2000 a side. Lovelock is getting ready to celebrate the Fourth in grand style and will give us two days celebration.—Tribune.

The Ordah-Tonopah Mining Company is organized under the laws of the State of Nevada, with a capitalization of 1,000,000 shares of stock; par value, $1 per share, of which 250,000 is vested in "Treasury Stock," for development work.
