THE DEMOCRATIC ENQUIRER

Has the largest circulation of any paper in Vinton County. Advertisers and others will please make a note of this.

ELK TOWNSHIP TICKET.

For Justice of the Peace, SAMUEL C. CASE.

VINTON COUNTY JUST O. K.

Whole Democratic Ticket Elected!

"The Voice of the People is the Voice of God!"

MAJORITY 338!

THE AMENDMENT "GONE UP!"

569

MAJORITY AGAINST THE AMENDMENT!

VINTON COUNTY ON A WHITE BASIS!

OFFICIAL MAJORITIES.

On the State ticket the majorities range from 332 to 335, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate/Office and Majority. Includes Thurman (Democrat), Hayes (Radical), Ounderdonk, Jones, Crain, Johnson, Swain, Shivel, Bratton, and Gizzard Foot Amendment.

The majorities for Commissioner and Surveyor are about the same as for Representatives.

We will publish an official abstract of the vote of the county by townships next week.

We have heard no very reliable news from adjoining counties, but there is no doubt that Martin Crain is elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, over Johnson. Jones is elected Senator by a small majority.

Geo. H. PILES has lost a Pocket Book containing $680 in Notes, &c.—See advertisement in this paper.

The result of the election in the State is not yet known. It is supposed that the Democrats will have a majority in the Legislature on joint ballot. Hayes is probably elected by a small majority.

LATE NEWS.

Gen. McClellan arrived in Paris a few weeks since, and has taken passage for New York for the first week in November.

Four thousand bushels of cranberries were gathered on the 1st inst., from a single marsh in the vicinity of Erie, Pa.

The passenger cars on the line from the railway from St. Petersburg to Moscow are two stories high, the upper story being used for sleeping.

The election in Colorado last month resulted in the choice of a Democratic Council and a Republican House. The Council will stand: Democrats, 7; Republicans, 6. The House will stand: Republicans, 14; Democrats, 12.

There are a large number of Indian mounds in Minnesota which the historical society of that State is carefully exploring. The only evidences of skill not discovered are specimens of pottery ware.

Queen Victoria is going to have all the notices of her book collected and printed for her delectation. She has been much pleased with the manner in which it has been received.

There were several shocks of earthquake in East Tennessee last week.

The horse which Zollicoffer rode when he was shot at Mill Creek has been lately sold for $1,500.

The Tobacco crop of Southern Indiana has fallen short of the expectations of the planters.

The yellow fever has visited twenty towns in the lower portion of the State of Texas. Some of these places were never known to have a case of the disease before.

For Ayer's Medicines, Call at Sisson's Drug Store.

THE RIGHT PLACE.—E. D. Dodge is selling his new stock of Goods just received from the Eastern market at greatly reduced prices.

Give him a call.

VALLANDIGHAM.—HON. C. L. VALLANDIGHAM addressed more than ten thousand people of Hocking and other counties, at Logan, on Wednesday of last week; and at about 10 o'clock on Wednesday night he passed through McArthur, on his way to Jackson, stopping over night and partaking of the kind hospitality of O. T. GUNNING and lady and Mrs. MURDOCK, at McArthur Station. A large number of people were out on the streets waiting to see him pass through town.

On Thursday morning, he departed with Mr. GUNNING for Jackson. At Jackson we never saw a larger political gathering—all anxious to "see and hear VALLANDIGHAM!"

The meeting was held at the Fair Grounds, Thursday being the first day of the Fair; and after he had spoken about an hour a heavy rain interrupted the glorious proceedings, compelling the meeting to adjourn.

Mr. V. returned to Hamden on that evening, and took the midnight train for Cincinnati.

THERE are few persons living who would consent for a given sum to part with their hair and forever wear a wig, or even consent to have this glory of the body changed from its natural hue to the color that marks age and decay. Yet thousands for want of a simple remedy within their reach, are becoming prematurely bald and grey. "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is a sure preventative, costs but a trifle, and will work wonders with your personal appearance.

THE GREAT DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT ZALESKI.—We should have been pleased to have attended the glorious meeting at Zaleski, last Saturday, but our business was so arranged that we could not. We learn that the meeting was the largest and most orderly ever held at that place.

The Democratic ladies of that town really deserve praise for taking so much interest in the preparations for the meeting. May God bless them all! And may those who have no husbands get loving ones!

The speeches, which were made by Hon. W. H. SAFFORD and Hon. ARON MAYO, were all that any one could desire. Chaste, candid, truthful, and argumentative; they could not fail to make a deep and lasting impression upon the mind of every candid and reflecting person present.

QUERY.—Has the Rev. Gentleman of this place paid his Washwoman? Facts next week.

For Fine Perfumery, Go to Sisson's Drug Store.

Mr. Editor: Permit me through the columns of your paper to correct the malicious, lying, contemptible and cowardly misrepresentation of language used by me, while engaged in a political conversation in the office of the "Vinton Record," and which I find in the last issue of that paper. It runs thus, (I quote from the Record): "I am a rebel; I always was a rebel. It would do my soul to cut a soldier's throat."

Now, when called a "Copperhead," a "Traitor," and a "Rebel," I replied: "Yes, if you like it, I am a rebel, and never pretended to be anything else." (for such, every Democrat is styled) and when asked by a friend (in a joking manner) who happened to be present, if I had any particular love for the soldier, I replied in the same jesting tone: "Confound the soldiers; I would not care if all their throats were cut; and also, said to the same person: "Look out, DAN, or I will cut yours!"—the whole thing being understood by him, as he says, to be nothing more than an idle joke. And it was intended as such, by me.

But, Mr. Editor, these infernal, lying, cowardly, yelping Hyenas of the "Record," these pimps of ill fame, these doers of the dirty work of black-revolutionism, these vile, contemptible curs, these lick-spittles and grovelers in the lowest and blackest filth of political dirt and blackguardism, these worse than "illegitimate children of hell sent forth upon political speculation," would lead the people of Vinton through their cowardly and dastardly misrepresentation of the truth to believe that I am really a rebel and a traitor to our government; but I say they lie, for I am, and so is every Democrat, a better Union man than any negro-loving abolitionist that ever breathed the breath of life. I would go farther and do more to restore this Union to its old and glorious position among the nations of the earth, than dare these cowardly dogs, or any of the disunion clan which they represent. The hottest and most rampant rebel of the South is, to-day, a better Union man than are these Record men.

And, again, Sir, such degraded lying as these fellows have been guilty of, is meaner, lower, and more contemptible than the rectified, double-distilled, and trebly refined quintessence of black damnation boiled down to a jelly.

They also charged me, (while in conversation) with going to Canada to avoid being drafted into the army.

Now, this is another of their hellish lies, and he who utters it, tells an infernal lie when he says so; as I can prove. It is done only through political malice and hatred, simply because I am a Democrat.

Having already occupied more space than I intended, and promising never again to stoop so low as to notice these contemptible Hell-hounds, I will close by respectfully subscribing myself, Your obedient servant, J. G. SWETLAND, JR.

A HORRID DECEPTION!

A YOUNG LADY BRACKENINGLY DECEIVED!

Not long since, a young man supposed to possess good principles, but no fortune, offered his hand and heart to a fair young lady with snug little fortune of $50,000.—The offer was fully considered, and finally refused, on the ground that the young man showed too many years above the young lady; though he was really but twenty-six. Yet his fine side whiskers and hair were tinged with a most brackening hoary white and gray, and fairly indicated a round score more of years than he had really seen. To the young man the refusal came like a frosty blanket in a cold night.

At once he left the city. Time passed on and the young lady received another offer. No objection to the fine and beautiful lover could be found. His head was PERFECT, and his raven locks had a most brackening lustre. His time was taken and the other accepted; the day fixed; every desired preparation made; the minister notified, and the thing done. She happy couple departed in matrimonial peace and triumph.

Three balmy days passed away, when the loving young husband threw his gentle arms around his better half by $50,000, and said, "Darling, what do you think of my white hairs now?" The startled and astonished bride with uplifted hands, exclaimed, "No a-coo R—, is it possible? Am I deceived? Tell me quickly!" The smiling, jubilant husband joyfully replied, "No, you are not deceived, it is I, you are WISE. And this I owe to 'Van Allen's Vegetable Hair Restorer.'"

And this article we now offer you never had its equal on the American Continent. We don't recommend you to play the cheat by its magic influence, but we do say:

1st.—It will positively restore the whitest hair on the heads of the oldest persons to its original color and beauty, while it often brings out a luxuriant growth where the hair is entirely gone, without staining the scalp.

2d.—People whose heads may have become gray may readily have their hair restored and their heads once more covered with shining silky locks, and tresses never surpassed in beauty even in early youth.

3d.—Every disease to which the hair and scalp are subject, finds a healing, restoring balm in this preparation.

4th.—As a dressing no one claims it has an equal, either in richness of its perfume, or its tendency to keep the hair in its proper place.

5th.—If you want white hair made beautiful as in youth, gray hair perfectly restored, and itching scalp permanently cleaned, and itching scalp purified, loose hair made fast, in short, your head covered with the beauty of raven locks, and silken tresses, you have only to use
