THOSE WHO COME AND GO.

Dr. Lyons, of Crowley, was in Lafayette Monday greeting friends.

For shirts see Levy Bros.' fine spring line of Manhattan shirts.

Judge Raymond Clark, clerk of court of Acadia parish, was here on business Monday.

Mrs. Ledon Breaux spent Saturday with Mrs. Braste Patin.

Ladies can spend a delightful half hour looking over Levy Bros.' beautiful spring and summer dress fabrics.

W. V. Nicholson, who is now located at San Angelo, Tex., arrived in Lafayette Sunday and will remain some time on business.

Don't forget that Levy Bros. are agents for the celebrated Fred Kaufman and Royal tailors.

C. O. Mouton, president of the Bank of Lafayette, made a short business trip to New Orleans during the week.

Try our preserves and evaporated fruits—Prudhomme & McFaddin.

Mr. G. M. Snodgrass and family left for Rogers, Ark., Thursday, where they will make their home for the present. We regret to lose them, but wish them success in their new home.

Take your prescriptions to Young & Comeaux and you will get pure medicines and just what your doctor prescribes.

A. T. Comeaux, of Youngsville, was in town Monday.

Choice early amber sorghum seed, by the quart or bushel at the Moss Pharmacy.

Mr. S. B. Kahn and little daughters, Josie and Hilda visited relatives in Lake Charles Thursday and Friday, returning Saturday.

Extra choice golden dent corn, by the quart or bushel at the Moss Pharmacy.

Miss Anna Barrett, a charming young lady of Chicago, is visiting her brother, Mr. James Barrett. During the past week she was entertained by Miss Ruth Hall, Miss Genevieve Mouton and Mrs. Arthur Mouton.

Dr. L. Prujans and W. Stoney, of Scott, were in town Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Durand and daughter Miss Philomene, of Anaudville were visiting in Lafayette Monday.

Fresh garden seed in bulk or packages at the Moss Pharmacy.

Mmes. J. E. Primeaux and A. J. Alpha and Misses Philomene and Eugenie Doucet were called to Scott last Thursday on account of the serious illness of their brother Jacque's little child, who, we are pleased to say, is improving.

Sorghum makes an excellent green fodder. The demand for this plant is increasing each year. We have the choice early amber, this is the best—Moss Pharmacy.

Ulysse Landry, of New Iberia, was in town Sunday.

Some of the loveliest patterns in spring and summer dress fabrics in this year's designs at Schmulen's.

A water bag is a handy thing to have about the house in case of sickness. It is useful in so many ways that once you have used one you would never do without it. Young & Comeaux have them from 75 cents up to $1.50.

M. Meyer, of the Falk Mercantile Co., is in New Orleans under medical treatment. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery to health.

Kohl-Rabi is one of the most delicious of vegetables. One ounce will give 2000 plants. Fresh seed at the Moss Pharmacy.

Quite a number of Lafayette people took advantage of the excursion to Alexandria Sunday to see the Four Cohans.

Schmulen is receiving new spring and summer goods every day. Call and see them.

Joe Pizzo is building an up-to-date, modern brick bakery for the use of Gaston Veazey, who is now located across the railroad.

A. J. LeBlanc is having a nice cottage built on Madison street.

Lionel Bienvenu, a popular drummer for a New Orleans house, was here yesterday calling on the trade.

The following list of vegetable seeds can safely be planted in March:

Beets, radishes, early cabbage, kohlrabi, lettuce, spinach, mustard, carrots, leeks, celery, parsley, roquette, cress, chervil, bush beans, pole beans, lima beans, squash, cucumbers, melons, okra, early peas, tomatoes, egg plants, peppers, corn. We have them in bulk and packages,—Moss Pharmacy.

The small frame building on the corner of Vermilion and Jefferson streets was moved last week to a lot beyond Lee Ave.

We Fight.

Tin cans, pieces of hoop, paper, rags and such like don't add much to the beauty of a woman's dress. While we are making improvements, we might as well clean up the lot.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Broussard and Miss Olive Arceneaux left Sunday afternoon for Crowley. Monday, accompanied by Miss Nellie Duhon, they left for Marlin, Texas, where they will spend several weeks for the benefit of their healths.

When all the concrete sidewalks are laid the streets of Lafayette will look quite attractive, if they are kept clean, and an effort should be made to keep them so.

The Etta Bottling Works will shortly add to the list of soft drinks manufactured by them, Pepper-Phosphate, Afri-kola, and a delicious drink known as Lager-Brew, which is a non-alcoholic beverage, but tastes like beer.

A. L. Dyer, Royville, sells the famous Hamilton-Brown $3.50 shoe.

Thursday night Lafayette felt a whiff of the cold, blizzard weather prevailing throughout the North and West. Thin ice was formed and a sharp touch of frost nipped the early vegetables.

Seed Corn.

A large lot of fine seed corn just received by the Magnolia Mills.

Mr. Ed Higginbotham has received all his machinery and supplies for an up-to-date bottling establishment and will shortly begin the manufacture and sale of soft drinks of all kinds.
