

LET ME BE YOUR TAILOR

"BIQUOR"

Work Called for and Delivered.
Phone 239.

Train Service.

Owing to quarantine the Southern Pacific has discontinued all passenger trains except No. 9 going west, due at 5:01 p. m. and No. 10 going east, due at 1:15 p. m. Both trains have been made locals and therefore will arrive later than the hours mentioned. The north bound branch train No. 127 will wait for No. 9.

Personals...

Y THOSE WHO
A COME and GO

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Barras was gladdened Thursday by the arrival of a fine boy.

Go to Fortune's Book and News Stand for your Fashion Plates and Magazines.

Mrs. C. R. vander Heiden and little son, of New Orleans, are guests of Mrs. W. D. Huff.

See Parkerson & Mouton for any kind of insurance. Eight years' experience.

Dr. Lessley, of Carencro, was a visitor here Monday.

Send or phone your order for groceries to Bernard & Meaux. Their goods are reliable and their prices will suit you.

Jules Jeanmard and Albert Guidry, of Carencro, were in town yesterday.

Buy your groceries from Broussard Bros. You will like the kind you get and the prices will suit you.

Jules Guilbeaux, of Carencro, was in town yesterday.

All ladies' summer shirt waists at cost at Levy Bros.

C. A. Miller and Simon Latour, of Carencro, were visitors to town yesterday and paid us an agreeable call.

Go to Schmulen's and see the bargains he is offering in summer goods.

Miss Julia Huff, returned home yesterday from Crowley where she was visiting her cousin.

You should see our line of Spectacles and Eye Glasses to appreciate their value.

T. M. Blossat.

For Sale!

A GOOD MILCH COW.

ALFRED HEBERT.

Miss Daisy Louaillier, after spending one month most pleasantly with relatives and friends in Houston returned home Sunday.

Ramsay & Upton can supply you with meal, grits, feed oats, timothy alfalfa and prairie hay, wheat bran neutral line and other feed stuffs. Phone 192.

Conductor J. S. Baldwin left Thursday with his family for Dallas, Texas, to leave them there until the fever situation becomes better. He will return.

Leave your grocery orders with Prudhomme & McFaddin and you will be pleased.

Little Miss Edna Lopez of New Iberia, returned home last Thursday, after spending three weeks at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. A. C. Campbell.

Prudhomme & McFaddin make a specialty of high class groceries.

Rev. W. T. Tardy, who assisted in the Baptist protracted services, returned Thursday to his home in Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Coumes and little daughter, Leona, returned Tuesday from Pass Christian after spending a month most pleasantly.

Mr. J. Nickerson and family and Mr. F. E. Davis and family returned from High Island Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Schuster, of Milton, was a pleasant caller at our office yesterday forenoon.

Edwin Clapp $5.50 shoes at $4.50 and $5.00 kind at $4.00.—Levy Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Voorbies and children, of St. Martinville, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. J. A. Robichaux returned home Thursday. They were accompanied by Mmes J. A. Robichaux and Paul Robichaux, who will spend several days with them.

Miss Philomene Broussard has returned from Beaumont, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Bonnemaïson.

Good reliable groceries and the lowest market prices at Morgan & Debailon's.

Jos. A. Chargois, appointed by the Council to go to Avondale and New Orleans to see how the quarantine regulations were being carried out, left Saturday.

Mrs. Warrn D. Bates and little daughter, Norma, of Dallas, Tex., are charming guests at the home of Mrs. T. M. Biossat.

Try Morgan & Debailon for groceries and you will keep on trying them.

Mrs. O. B. Jenkins and daughter, Mrs. Lewis, and little baby, returned from Chicago, Monday.

Look over the fine line of toilet articles and novelties at the Lafayette Drug Co.

Mrs. Adam Bourgeois returned from Boerne, Tex., last week.

Get your medicines at the Lafayette Drug Co.—They sell only the best and purest.

Miss Helen Wenly visited Miss Ida Landry Saturday and Sunday at Broussard.

An elegant line of summer clothing going at bargain prices, at Schmulen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Abel Durant left Friday for a year's visit to relatives in France.

Just the shoe for summer wear at Schmulen's.

Paul Dubernard, of Breauz Bridge, has been spending several days in Scott and Lafayette with relatives and friends.

Deputy Sheriff Lucius Duhon and Hagard Girouard, of Broussard, were pleasant callers at the Advertiser office Monday.

Dress Paragrapbs.

Baron Komura, of the Japanese peace commission, brought 50 trunks along with him. He is evidently prepared for a long seige of diplomatic rag-chewing.—Atlanta Constitution.

Tom Lawson says the only man of presidential size he met on his western oratorical rampage was Governor Yon Yonsen, of Minnesota. Us Scandihoovians must all stand together.—Atlanta Constitution.

Now will the fat man stop knocking the weather? The Salisbury (N. C.) Sun says: "No well man has any right to complain of the weather—only feeble women and sick children have this right. The weather is no hotter than it ought to be."—Atlanta Constitution.

John Paul Jones is in the hands of his friends.—The Buffalo Evening News.

As we understand it the Isthmian canal site is still suited to that purpose.—The Detroit Free Press.

Elihu Root reminds you forcibly of Engineer Wallace. He is so unlike him.—The Chicago Tribune.

It is semi-officially stated that Mr. Cleveland will quit the Equitable. The ex-President is not accustomed to handling a surplus.—The Washington Post.

Not being incorporated, the man who permitted the leak in the cotton crop reports must bear an individual responsibility.—The Detroit News-Tribune.

They may not be the remains of John Paul Jones, but no matter. They serve as an excuse to let John E. Bull know that we haven't forgotten.—The Chicago Record-Herald.

Changes in S. P. Office.

On August 1 Assistant Superintendent C. C. Mallard severed his connection with the Southern Pacific and was succeeded by G. C. Scarlett who since July 1 has been day chief dispatcher. Mr. Scarlett is from North Carolina and was connected with Seaboard Air Line and Southern before coming here. W. F. Gouldsboro who has been night chief dispatcher succeeds as day chief and H. White takes Mr. Gouldsboro's place as night chief.

During Mr. Mallard's residence here he has made a host of friends who will regret to see him leave Lafayette.

Was Treated Well.

Lafayette, La., July 31, 1905.

EDITOR ADVERTISER:

Dear Sir:—Having been detained at the Detention Camp at Bayou Carencro under instruction of the special health inspector of the train, owing that my health certificate was not properly stamped by the seal of the corporation,

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the guards, Messrs. Wm. H. Cayard, Capt. E. Begnaud, C. Jeroie for their kind and courteous treatment.

I remain
Respectfully yours,
LOUIS SURGL.

FOR SALE!
FINE 2 YEAR OLD HORSE.
—APPLY TO—
Wm. NEVEU, Lafayette, La.

FRUIT CAKES.

Everything is good here—much better than you can bake yourself, much better than you can buy anywhere else. We make it our business to bake the best. If you try our fruit cakes you will agree that they are the best.

WISMAN & DOMENCEAUX.

"A GREAT MARK IS SOONEST HIT,"

says the old proverb, and you can't miss the mark as to quality or economy if you aim for here when lumber buying is on your mind. We turn over to you the output of some of the best mills in the country—well seasoned, carefully cut and surfaced lumber fit for the finest house in the land.

A. E. MOUTON.

Phone No. 4. ♣ Lafayette, La.

Our large line of ladies' shirt waists at cost.—Levy Bros.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position.

LIME,

The best disinfectant, at A. E. Mouton's Lumber Yard, Phone No. 4.

Home Mission Notes.

By Local Superintendent.

At the meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference the former trustees of the Brevard school formally turned over the deed to the school property to the Woman's Board of Home Missions, which declares that the conditions upon which the work was entered have been met by the trustees. The property now belongs in fee simple to the Woman's Board of Home Missions.

Owners of the mills of Rome Georgia have kindly offered quarters to the Rome City Missions Board, in which they may operate their various phases of home mission work. Miss May McKensie, their city missionary, thus has her opportunity enlarged.

READ

THE ADVERTISER.

ONLY

$1.00 A YEAR.

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY,
Baton Rouge, La.

THOMAS D. BOYD, A. M. LL. D. PRESIDENT.

Full Literary, Scientific, and Engineering courses. Special and graduate courses. Three Agricultural courses—of four years, of two years, and of ten weeks. Excellent Commercial course. Pre-medical course. Unequaled facilities for instruction in Sugar Chemistry and Sugar Engineering.

Strong faculty, large library, well-equipped laboratories, work-shops, and experiment stations. Instruction thorough, modern, practical, fitting young men for success in any calling.

Thirty-five buildings in most beautiful grounds. Tuition is free to residents of Louisiana. Other expenses very low, considering the great advantages offered.

THE NEXT SESSION OPENS WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20.

Write for Catalogue containing full information.