 On said day of sale I will sell such proportions of said property as each debtor will point out, and in case the debtor will not point out sufficient property, will at once and without further delay, sell the least quantity of said property which any bidder will buy for the amount of taxes, interest and cost due by said debtor. This sale will be without appraisal for cash in legal tender money of the United States, and the property sold shall be redeemable at any time for the space of one year, by paying the price given, including costs and 20 per cent thereon.
 The mortgage creditors are hereby notified that if the property to be sold is not redeemed, the sale thereof when recorded in the conveyance or mortgage office, shall operate as a cancellation of all conventional and judicial mortgages thereon.

AMENDMENTS TO CHARTER of the
LATIN-AMERICAN LIFE AND CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY.
 United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Lafayette, City of Lafayette.
 BE IT KNOWN That on this, the 2nd day of the month of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-sixth, before me, J. F. Jeanmard, a Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified within and for the Parish of Lafayette, State of Louisiana, therein residing, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared F. E. Girard and J. P. Colomb, residents of the said Parish of Lafayette and State aforesaid, both of full age, herein appearing and acting in their respective capacities of Chairman and Secretary, respectively, of the meeting of the stockholders of the Latin-American Life and Casualty Insurance Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Louisiana, by Act of Incorporation passed before O. P. Guilbeau, Notary Public, on the 15th day of September, 1910, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of Court of the said Parish, in Book of Miscellaneous Acts T-3, at pages 313 et seq., their authority in the premises being evidenced by resolutions of the stockholders of the said corporation passed at a general meeting thereof, who declare that said resolutions were passed at said meeting, and that said meeting was held at the Domicile of the said corporation, in the city of Lafayette, State of Louisiana, on the thirtieth day of April, 1912, after written notice had been mailed to each stockholder at his last known address, calling said meeting and stating the purposes for which it was called at least forty (40) days prior to the date held, and which notice was published in the Lafayette Advertiser for at least thirty (30) days prior to date held, a certified copy of the minutes of the said meeting being annexed hereto and made a part hereof, the said meeting having been called for the purpose of amending Article II of the charter of the said corporation so as to remove the domicile thereof to New Orleans and for the purpose of amending Articles IV, V, VI, VII and VIII of the said Charter so as to qualify as a mutual company; and the said appearers further declare that at said meeting of stockholders no held on the thirtieth day of April, 1912, it was resolved, by a unanimous vote of stockholders present and represented at said meeting, there being present and represented by proxy, stockholders owning more than three-fourths of the stock of the said corporation, the total number of votes cast being thirty-three hundred thirty-three (3333), that Articles II, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII of the said Charter be amended so as to read as follows:
ARTICLE II.
 The Domicile of this Corporation shall be in the City of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, and all citations and other legal process shall be served upon the President of the said corporation or, in his absence, or inability to act for other cause, upon the Secretary.
ARTICLE IV.
 This corporation shall have no capital stock, but shall be a mutual company, and shall borrow the initial fund of Five Thousand ($5000) Dollars a mutual company is required to have in its treasury prior to beginning business, as stated and defined in Section 3, of Act No. 245 of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana of 1908, together with such other reasonable amount or amounts for expenses and outlay in procuring, establishing and developing the business of the corporation, as is hereinafter provided for, or as shall be determined by the Board of Directors hereinafter provided for, the said amount or amounts to be borrowed only upon the terms and conditions, and in accordance with the provisions of the said Section of the said Act; and this corporation hereby accepts the proposition of the owners of the stock issued under the charter to which this is an amendment to retire their stock and lend to this corporation, on said terms and conditions above referred to, the funds represented by the said stock with eight per cent interest, this acceptance to take effect simultaneously with the completion of legal requirements in connection with this Act of Amendment and the filing thereof, whereupon all deposits made with the State of Louisiana in the name of this company for the protection of its policy holders shall so remain thereafter for the protection of all policyholders of the company, and all insurance previously issued by this corporation and in force on said date shall remain and continue in force thereafter on like terms and conditions, and this corporation shall thereafter continue in business on the basis herein provided.

 This corporation shall transact the business stipulated and defined in Article III of this charter on the "Old Line", or legal reserve, basis, and shall not insure and agree to pay benefits in event of the death of the insured or the maturity of the policy, for more than $500 on one life, nor for more than $20 per week to one person on account of disability resulting from sickness or accident, and the premiums, which shall be stipulated, or fixed, premiums, shall be collectible in periods of less than one month apart. In determining the reserve required on account of and in accordance with the policies of Industrial Life Insurance in force in this company at any time, the New York Standard Industrial Experience Tables of Mortality, with 3 1/2 per cent interest, shall be employed, except as shall be modified by any other standard which may be adopted by the State of Louisiana.
ARTICLE V.
 All of the powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors, composed of not fewer than Seven (7) nor more than Eleven (11) citizens of the State of Louisiana, to be elected annually on the 15th day of September, or if same shall be a holiday, on the next business day preceding, four of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and a majority of those present shall control. All elections shall be made by ballot and shall be held and conducted at the office of the corporation, under such rules and regulations as may be established by the Board of Directors. Notice thereof shall be given by the Secretary of the corporation by publication on Saturday of each week for six weeks prior thereto in a newspaper published in the English language in the City of New Orleans, State of Louisiana.
 At all elections and all corporate meetings every policy holder, or member, of the corporation, whose policy is not lapsed on the date thereof shall be entitled to one vote, to be cast in person, or by proxy written or printed and signed by the member. A majority of the votes cast shall elect. Any vacancy occurring among the Directors of this corporation by death, resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by election, for the unexpired term, by the remaining Directors. Failure to elect Directors on date above specified shall not dissolve this corporation nor impair its existence or management, but the Directors then in office shall remain in office until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.
 The Board of Directors may, from time to time, name and appoint such officers, agents and employees as it may deem necessary for the purpose of conducting the business of this corporation. It shall have authority to fix and define the power, duties and salaries thereof, and each officer, agent and employee, shall hold office or employment at the pleasure of said Board. It shall elect from amongst its own members, or from the policyholders of the corporation not members of the Board, a President, not exceeding three (3) Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and Treasurer.
 The Board of Directors may make or establish, as well as alter and amend, all by-laws, rules and regulations deemed proper for the conduct and management of the business and affairs of this corporation; it shall have the power to borrow and lend money; to acquire real estate for the purposes of its business; to buy and sell all species of real and personal property, on which the corporation may have a mortgage or lien, or which may owe it money, and, in the case of real estate, to hold same for such time as may be necessary to properly and advantageously dispose thereof, and generally to do any and all things reasonable, convenient and necessary for the proper carrying out of the business and affairs of this corporation.
 The present Board of Directors and officers shall hold office until the 15th day of September 1912, or until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified.
ARTICLE VI.
 Whenever this corporation may be dissolved, whether by limitation or otherwise, its affairs shall be liquidated by two commissioners, to be appointed from among the members of the corporation, at a general meeting of the members convened for such purpose, notice of which shall have been given in the time and manner therein provided for members' meetings, and a majority of the votes cast shall be requisite to elect. Said commissioners shall remain in office until the affairs of the said corporation shall be liquidated. In case of their inability or the inability of either to continue, by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled by the election of a new commissioner, in the same manner herein provided for the election of the original liquidation commissioners.

ARTICLE VII.
 This act of incorporation may be modified, amended, changed or altered, or this corporation may be dissolved with the assent of three quarters of the members, convened for such purpose and after notice thereof shall have been given in the time and manner herein provided for elections and members' meetings, provided that a copy of such notice shall be mailed to the last known Post Office address of each member, at least forty days prior to such meeting.
ARTICLE VIII.
 Every person who shall be or become a policyholder of this company shall be a member thereof during the time such policy is duly in force and no longer. Every person who shall become a member of this corporation by effecting insurance therein shall, the first time such insurance is effected, and before receiving the policy therefor pay the rates required by the company thereon. No member shall be liable for the contracts, faults, losses or expenses of this corporation beyond the amount of premium which he may agree to pay the said corporation.
 The Board of Directors shall, on the first business day of January 1914, or within sixty days thereof, and annually thereafter, cause a statement to be made of the affairs of the company; and if, after paying all losses and expenses of the said company, and providing for outstanding risks for the year preceding same, and providing for all reserves and other liabilities, there remains a surplus, each member shall be entitled to such a proportion of the said surplus as the cash premiums paid by such members may bear to the aggregate surplus so declared; the statement so made shall be binding upon all persons entitled to receive certificates as hereinafter mentioned, for the proportionate share of each member so ascertained, a certificate shall be issued declaring him or them to be
