

S. P. TIME TABLE.

EAST BOUND.
Arrives	No.	Leaves
Terminal	2	4:50 a. m.
6:00 p. m.	4	Terminal
10:15 a. m.	6	10:30 a. m.
2:34 a. m.	8	2:39 a. m.
1:20 p. m.	10	1:25 p. m.
1:02 a. m.	12	1:07 a. m.
4:06 p. m.	102	4:11 p. m.

WEST BOUND.
Arrives	No.	Leaves
9:58 p. m.	1	Terminal
Terminal	3	8:50 a. m.
1:25 p. m.	5	1:40 p. m.
4:45 p. m.	7	4:50 p. m.
4:30 a. m.	9	4:35 a. m.
1:07 a. m.	11	1:12 a. m.
3:31 p. m.	101	3:36 p. m.

ALEXANDRIA BRANCH.
Arrives	No.	Leaves
10:10 a. m.	708	Terminal
Terminal	705	1:40 p. m.
3:00 p. m.	Mary Jane	7:00 a. m.

BATON ROUGE BRANCH.
Arrives	No.	Leaves
10:25 a. m.	805	Terminal
Terminal	810	1:45 p. m.

ABBEVILLE TO LAFAYETTE
Arrives	No.	Leaves
10:14 a. m.	807
	806	1:35 p. m.

MORGAN CITY TO WASHINGTON.
Arrives	No.	Leaves
10:10 a. m.	15
	707	10:25 a. m.

EAST BOUND
Arrives	No.	Leaves
1:00 p. m.	708
	16	2:30 p. m.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1914.

Personals.

George Vandergriff left Monday for New Orleans to learn the barber trade.

Lost—A gentleman's diamond ring, on New Years eve between postoffice and S. P. depot. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Pies always on hand at Bunt's Restaurant, phone 703.

DON'T order your calendars for 1915 until you see our complete line of samples. We will call on you in a few days.—Lafayette Advertiser.

Mrs. W. A. Rolle and children left yesterday morning for north Louisiana to stay until Mr. Rolle has moved the household furniture and is settled at Commerce, Texas, where he has accepted charge of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Rolle expects to finish packing and shipping and leave Monday. He will preach a farewell sermon Sunday. During the residence of Rev. Rolle and his family here they have won many friends by their amiable and charming qualities, who regret to see them leave, but give them their best wishes for a happy home in Texas.

For oyster leaves ring up 703, Bunt's Restaurant. 1-do. loaf 30c, 1 1/2-do. 40c, 2-do. 50c.

We still have a well assorted stock of clothing and, as it is late we make it to your interest to buy from us.—Schmulen's.

Dr. Roy Young and H. M. Henshaw of Youngville, were in town Wednesday on business. Dr. Young, when asked how things were in his town, said that nature had treated them well but man hadn't—they had had a big crop with the highest sucrose value ever known there, but man in the shape of the American Sugar Trust had made the prices bad.

Order your corn, hay, oats, bran, shorts, acutrine, rice polish and other feedstuffs from Ramsey Elevator Mills, Phone 410.

FOR SALE—1000 Bales of Hay. Apply to Theriot's Stable.

Gaston Labbe, Euclide St. Julien and Geo. Malagarie, of Broussard, were in town Wednesday transacting business.

DON'T order your calendars for 1915 until you see our complete line of samples. We will call on you in a few days.—Lafayette Advertiser.

WILLIAM ABRAHAM MARKET

St. John Street near Colored Catholic Church.

Mutton, Pork, Veal and Fresh Lard always on hand.

Orders delivered except Sunday. Phone 455.

WAIT and See Our Line We Have Beautiful Samples of ART CALENDARS

made by one of the biggest houses in the country. Designs to suit every business and please all tastes.

Real Work of Art at Astonishingly Low Prices.

We will call on you in a few days—Save your order until you see our samples.

Lafayette Advertiser

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hackett were called to Galveston, Texas, yesterday on account of the death of Mr. J. S. Hackett, which occurred at the sanitarium Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Hackett moved from Lafayette several years ago to Texas City and went into the real estate business. Shortly afterwards he married a young lady from North Carolina. The Advertiser joins Mr. Hackett's many friends here in regretting to hear of the sad news and extends sympathy to his wife in this great bereavement.

Buy your coal and wood from the Ramsey Elevator Mills, Phone 410.

Mrs. Arthur Trahan and little son, of Houston, are visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Domengeaux.

FOR RENT—A good house. Apply to R. Poimboeuf.

Joseph Spell, of the second ward, was here Wednesday looking after business matters.

Adam Chiasson, constable of the first ward, was in Lafayette Wednesday.

FOR SALE—Good gentle buggy horse very cheap.

Free ticket to the Royal theater with each $1.00 purchase, provided you ask for a ticket. J. H. TOWN.

E. H. Vordenbaumen, of Shreveport, is in town on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Byrd were called to Morgan City Tuesday on account of the death of Mrs. Byrd's brother, William Alpin, who was killed in an accident on a logging train of the St. Bernard Cypress Company near New Orleans Monday. The body was taken to Morgan City, his old home, for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Mouton and three children left Tuesday for Lake Charles to make their home there. They have many friends here who are sorry to see them go, but hope for their success in their new home.

Mrs. S. J. Del Mouly and daughter Margery left Wednesday for their home in Del Rio Texas, after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Ruger.

Position Wanted. Young man, single, wants clerical position of any kind, holds certificate of Institute as bookkeeper. Satisfactory reference furnished. Address X. Y. Z., this office. 1-9-2t.

THE PAPER SHELL PECAN NURSERY LTD.

Home grown trees are certainly the best for planting in our parish. We offer you, to be exact,

4809 Satsuma Orange Trees at prices ranging from

25 to 50c EACH depending on size of tree ordered, and the number wanted. We have a fine assortment of

GRAFTED PECAN TREES Stuart, Schley, Frocher and Money-maker. We will plant you from one to a thousand, and guarantee them to grow. We have also a fine supply of MAGNOLIA FIG TREES As yet we have no phone, but a postal will bring us to your door. Satisfaction guaranteed.

THE PAPER SHELL PECAN NURSERY LIMITED, LAFAYETTE, LA.

Society.

Missionary Society.

Tuesday afternoon the Baptist Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Reeves with sixteen members present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Reeves, the secretary, Mrs. Wallis, called the roll and read minutes of previous meeting and the treasurer, Mrs. Hackett, gave the report from Nov. to Jan. 1, stating that the members had raised over fifty dollars from the proceeds of the Xmas Apron Sale and monthly dues. Judging from this report the ladies have been wide awake and working enthusiastically to accomplish so much. The ladies were glad to welcome as new members Rev. and Mrs. McLendon and Mrs. Bul.

Lafleur-Durand.

Miss Evelyn Durand, of St. Maralville and Mr. A. M. Lafleur, of Ville Platte, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride at 7 p. m. Following the ceremony there was a reception participated in by a few friends and members of the immediate families. The bride is a sister to Mrs. Maurice Patin of this city, and attended the Institute and has many friends here.

Duhon-Doucet.

Wednesday evening about six o'clock Miss Irma Doucet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Doucet, of the eighth ward, and Mr. George Duhon, a prosperous young farmer of the second ward, were married in the Catholic church in Scott, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The Advertiser joins their many friends in wishing the happy young couple a long and prosperous married life.

Ed Rose Dies Suddenly.

Ed Rose, overseer for the Belleard Sugar Factory plantation, died suddenly Wednesday morning at his home near Broussard. He had risen as usual and made early morning coffee when the attack came. He died a few moments after. He was about 45 years old and leaves a wife and several children.

TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANIES TO SEPARATE.

Raphael Thompson, in charge of the local Western Union office, has been notified by company officials that the union between the telegraph company and the Cumberland will be dissolved and the two properties be operated independently.

Terse and Truthful.

"Too much absorbed in his business," was the comment of a newspaper on the death of a brewer who was found drowned in a tank of his own beer.

The "Alleged Gentleman."

This quaint notice was recently posted in a Cardiff club. "If the alleged gentleman who took three brushes from Mr. —'s color box imagines they will paint poultry without the assistance of the master hand he is gravely mistaken and therefore may as well return them to their rightful owner."—Fall Mail Gazette.

PET TORE OFF HIS CLOTHES

Sea-Lion the Cause of Considerable Embarrassment to Owner and Trainer of Animals.

A sea-lion looks much like a seal, but it is larger, has a longer neck, and holds its head very upright. One of the largest sea-lions ever kept in captivity was once owned by Mr. Carl Hagenbeck, who buys and sells wild animals. It weighed nearly a ton, but it was so good-tempered and amiable that Mr. Hagenbeck's father took a great liking to it, fed it himself every day, and made a great pet of it. At last it became so tame that it followed him about the grounds like a dog, stopped when he stopped, and then hopped on again after him in its clumsy way, giving peculiar little cries from time to time, as if to ask him to stop, or not to walk so fast.

One afternoon, when a good many people were looking at the sea-lion, Mr. Hagenbeck took some pieces of fish in a basket, and went into the inclosure to feed his pet. He threw one piece of fish at a time, and the sea-lion caught them in his mouth. Each time he caught a piece of fish he would gulp it down hurriedly, and then give one of his peculiar cries, as if begging for more. When he had eaten more than half the basketful, Mr. Hagenbeck thought he had enough for a meal, and taking up the basket, turned to go out.

But the sea-lion did not agree with him. Quick as a flash, he rushed up to Mr. Hagenbeck, caught hold of his coat with his sharp teeth, and with one wrench, not only tore it off his back, but took a large piece of the shirt with it. He then caught hold of the basket in the most greedy manner, and began to gobble up the rest of the fish as quick as he could.

He was very good-tempered about it, and gulped down his food until the basket was quite empty; then he went over to his master, as if to ask if that were all. But poor Mr. Hagenbeck was standing with his back to the wall, for it had been stripped bare of clothing, and before so many people he felt ashamed. He called out to his son to bring him an overcoat, and when that came, he put it on, still standing with his back to the wall, while the sea-lion hovered about him, evidently puzzled to know what was the matter.—Youth's Companion.

SURGICAL WORK OF THE PAST

Researches Have Shown That Art Was Known Many Thousands of Centuries Ago.

Dr. F. M. Sandwith, lecturing at Kensington (London) Town hall, said the first surgeon of whom he could find any record lived in the fifth Egyptian dynasty, and must have been court doctor to the Pharaoh Sahura, some 4,000 years before Christ.

The first surgical implements of which we know anything were splints found in the Nubian desert. In one place a graveyard was found, and here were remains of bodies with fractured limbs that had been set with bark splints. One was a right thigh bone that had been broken and was still held in position by a workman-like splint and bandages. All the knots were true reef knots, and the wrapping showed how the strips of palm fiber cloth were set just as a good surgeon would set them nowadays, so as to use the full strength of the fabric. In other cases bodies were found with compound fractures, where the broken ends of the bone had broken through the skin. Death seems to have come to them very quickly after an accident of this kind, for no trace of healing of the bones is to be found.

Salt Germs.

Salt, of all things, we deem germ-proof; but, as a matter of fact, salt is one of the most germ-ridden foods we eat.

The speaker, a physiologist, sighed and resumed: "You know gray salt, the 'gros sel' that gourmands eat with boiled beef? Well, that salt is made gray by the addition of mud, plain mud. Hence it always contains from 6,000 to 75,000 bacterial colonies per gram.

"Refined salt, white salt, is almost as bad. It lies, you know in the refinery under a blanket of clay, and its refining consists of a sea-water bath, after which it is dried and heated to the point of crystallization. All this fails, of course, to remove from it its 2,000 or 3,000 bacterial colonies per gramme that it imbibed from its clay blanket.

"The pure-food people should look to our salt. The white, clean stuff is alive with germs. Yet it would be easy to refine it so as to make it germ-free."

Her Anniversary Gift.

"When I make gifts to people," said the girl, "I always try to find something appropriate, or something for which I've heard them express a liking. But not long ago my little system went wrong. The parents of a dear friend were about to start for California on the anniversary of their wedding. Remembering their fondness for Stevenson, I bought a copy of 'Travels with a Donkey,' and had it sent out to the girl's mother. It wasn't until they were well on their journey that I realized what I had done.

"Fortunately they both have a sense of humor and I had a breezy little note of acknowledgment from the father, in which he said he was glad to know that I was sustaining my reputation for appropriate gifts. I never expect to hear the last of that one."

TEACH THE CHILD SUCCESS

Experienced School Teacher Makes a Suggestion to the Mothers of Her Pupils.

Every mother knows how easy it is for a child to become discouraged during the first weeks of school.

"I wish," said a most successful teacher to a mother one "first" day, "that I had all the mothers here instead of the children this morning.

"Yes, I mean that—the forty mothers. I would like to tell them just one thing—the difference between success and failure.

"In the school room as well as elsewhere the difference is just a difference of attitude.

"No general ever won a victory who did not go on the battlefield determined to win.

"In the home is where we form our habits," she continued, "and the habit of success is not a difficult one to form.

"The most important thing for the mother to do is to believe in her child, see that his tasks are such that he can do, and then openly recognize his success.

"No child who has had such home training ever makes many failures in his life. To teach this idea of success necessitates continuous individual work in many cases, and a thorough comradeship with the child.

"At the end of the month," she said, smiling hopefully over the roomful of workers, "I will know them all, but until then—yes, I wish I had the mothers here this morning."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

AMUSEMENT FOR THE TOTS

Game That Will Keep Them Interested During the Long Evenings of the Winter.

Now that the evenings are drawing in, the children will want some new game to play after supper is over. They will all enjoy the "Cut-Out Family Game," which is played as follows: Get a big pile of illustrated journals, catalogues and picture papers, and give each child a blunt-pointed pair of scissors, a large sheet of newspaper or brown paper, and a pot of paste or a packet of pins.

Then read or tell them some simple little tale of every-day life—not a fairy story, but an ordinary, every-day tale of boys and girls and their fathers and mothers. As you go along, stop from time to time, and let the children hunt through the illustrated books for pictures to suit the occasion.

Perhaps you will begin in this way: "Once upon a time there was a little girl called Susie. She was seven years old and she had long, curly hair. Now, look through your books and find a picture of Susie."

Then the children will spend five happy minutes in finding Susie, cutting her out, and fastening her at the top of the blank sheet. As the tale continues the sheet will become full of portraits of the different people whom Susie met, the pet animals she had, and so on.

It will take an hour or more to fill a sheet, and the children will be quietly and happily occupied all the time.

Club Swinger's Collapse.

Tom Burrows, the champion club swinger, just failed Saturday night at Earl's court to complete 100 hours of continuous club swinging.

He began his task at 7:10 Tuesday evening. Saturday morning he developed sprain of the right ankle. He was compelled to throw the weight of his body on his left leg, and it was the additional pain and fatigue consequent on this that led to his collapse at 8:45.

During the evening it was clear that he was near the limit of his powers of endurance. Two army doctors who were in attendance decided to allow him to fall asleep in the ordinary course of nature, rather than risk a mental shock by stopping him forcibly. Thus he was allowed to totter along until he lurched against a table. His wife caught him in her arms, and Burrows fell asleep, continuing in a deep slumber, despite the cheers of the crowd, while he was carried to a taxicab and driven home. He had swung his clubs for 37 hours and 35 minutes.—London Daily News.

Some Accompanist.

Charles Hough, a young man of youthful appearance, slight in build compared with the woman, and gray as to hair, was at the piano. He understands perfectly how best to accompany the prima donna. He knows that volume is required, what shading is desirable, how much of it, and he follows every motion of the singer to detect her next requirement in the matter of piano support. He not only knows these things, but he does them. That is why he is such an excellent accompanist. He wore evening clothes. The piano was finished in black, one of the low concert type of instrument, with a little outward turn, on the top of which the singer reeled an arm occasionally.—Exchange.

Cruel Tale.

A dreadful story is in circulation about Richard Harding Davis.

Mr. Davis, as everybody knows, is a wit. He was, therefore, terribly annoyed the other day to hear that a brother author had spoken unfavorably of his witticisms. Coming upon his brother author he said:

"My boy, I hear that in a house where other people were kind enough to consider me witty, you declared that I was not so. Is this true?"

"No, not a word of truth in it," the other answered cheerfully. "I was never in a house in my life where anybody considered you witty."

Sheriff's Sale.

Lucosie Girouard et als, vs. Guillaume Girouard et als. No. 5371, 18th Judicial District Court, Parish of Lafayette, La.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale, issued by the Hon. 18th Judicial District Court of Louisiana, in and for the parish of Lafayette, dated Dec. 10, 1913, and to me directed I will sell at public auction to the last and highest bidder for cash, for the purpose of effecting a partition, in front of the court house in Lafayette, La., between legal sale hours on Saturday, January 31, 1914,

the following described property, to-wit:

A. The undivided half of that certain tract of swamp land situated in the parish of Lafayette, Louisiana, containing and measuring thirty-five (35) superficial arpents, more or less, and bounded on the north by Bayou Tortue and on the south by land of J. O. Girouard;

B. The undivided half of that certain tract of swamp land situated in the parish of Lafayette, Louisiana, containing and measuring twenty-five (25) superficial arpents, more or less, bounded on the north by Bayou Tortue and on the south by land of J. O. Girouard.

LOUIS LACOSTE, Sheriff Lafayette Parish La. January 24, 1914.

One of His Attractions.

A cynical young woman once said to me that she found cads more interesting than gentlemen, because you could always tell what a gentleman would do in a given situation, whereas you could never tell, in any situation, what a cad would do. Cads may or may not be the proper sport of cynical young women, but to the average wussy creature the gentleman is wholly delightful in that he is wholly predictable.—Atlantic Monthly.

Fighting Man's Enemies.

In the battle which is constantly being waged by the natives of Africa and the denizens of the jungle 19,104 snakes and 19,000 wild beasts were killed in one year.

Have Thought for Deltas.

While repairing a temple the Chinese cover up the eyes of the idols, in order that the deities may not be offended at the sight of disorder.

E. A. SCHUMACHER, The Electrician Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Agent COLUMBIA MAZDA LAMPS. Phone 533.

Lafayette Building Association

Established February 12, 1900; Authorized Capital $1,000,000

THE HOUR OF HAPPINESS You can easily get a deed for your property by placing small savings where they will do the most good.

Here's the Place Where Your Savings Accumulate

The savings will help you to a strong liking for our system. Come and let us tell you.

LAFAYETTE BULD'G ASSOCIATION

ALEX. G. BROUSSARD, Contractor and Builder. Estimates Furnished on All Kinds of Work. PHONE 414. P. O. BOX 164.

COAL WOOD Geo. A. DeBlanc, Office and Yard Near Depot. Telephone 69J