J. R. Mustain, city passenger and ticket agent of the K. C. S., at Lake Charles, was in town yesterday on business, and paid us an agreeable call.

A letter received from Arthur Poinboeur states that he has arrived safe at Miami, Arizona, where he has a fine position with one of the mines.

Editor Domengeaux, of Breaux Bridge, paid our office a welcome visit yesterday.

Former Superintendent E. L. Wright stopped over in Lafayette Saturday, while passing through. He said he couldn't resist stopping to shake hands with old friends and have a look at good old Lafayette. His friends were just as glad to see him and especially pleased to learn that he is doing fine. He is now National agent-manager for a Chicago publishing concern with headquarters in Chicago. What will also be interesting to his friends here is that he has another sweet little girl at his house, a new comer.

Southside School League.

A fine meeting of the Southside School League was held Thursday afternoon in the High School with Mrs. Reeves in the chair. After a short while spent in routine business, the subject of buying more books was fully discussed. It was moved and carried that the committee to select books for the library be allowed one hundred dollars for purchase of same. Mrs. Demanade spoke about the advisability of planting more live oaks on the school grounds, and it met with the approval of the League. The chair then asked Mrs. Demanade to attend to same. It was moved and carried that the chair appoint a committee on sanitation. Mrs. Reeves then appointed Mmes. Demanade, Le-Rosen and Keith. No further business, the meeting adjourned.

Worship of the Serpent.
The Apaches profess to be descended from a snake, and venerate it accordingly, and the most extraordinary prehistoric earthwork on the continent testifies to the power of the serpent on the imagination of primitive man. The tribes of central Australia, the most primitive people in contact with modern civilization, have in a mythical serpent of gigantic size and magical attributes their nearest approach to a deity.

Any little wound or abrasion of the flesh occurring in cold weather that is not promptly treated becomes a bad sore and is difficult to heal. Apply BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT at once when such accidents happen. The wound heals promptly and soon does away with the annoyance of a bandage. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.
