We publish to-day a letter from Al. Robbs sublimely, though in language silent, to the wandering "stranger in a stranger and," while the passer by strange land," while the passer-by will find himself pausing for a moment, to reflect up the moral worth ment, to reflect up the moral worth ment, and the moral worth ment is said to said and gambling. He was kind to she friends, and gambling the was kind to she findly receive his family and generous to his friends, but to all others was cruel and brutal, in our immediate neighborhood. Yet but to all others was cruel and brutal, ing him to keep the prisoner in Morning and gambling. He was kind to she findly receive his family and generous to his friends, but to all others was cruel and brutal, ing him to keep the prisoner in Morning and gambling. He was kind to she findly receive his family and generous to his friends.

He has killed, or aided in killing, several and brutal, with all of this we are not satisfied; the has killed, or aided in killing, several and brutal. ment, to reflect up the moral worth of such a community, and listening to the "still small voice" which tells bind that happy homes must be the result. Such enterprises constitute the only sure and permanent means by which our rich stores wealth can be unlocked, and our weste lands be made to bloom and our weste lands be made to bloom. He has been known, simply for amusement, to pick a dog up by few of the crowd went to Tarpey's the nape of the neck, and after shooted and worn out lands. And in a future lands to the balls through it, thow Salinas. He comprehended matters. as the rose of Sharon, and the lily of article I would like to present some the valleys.'

requisite to health and happiness, and thing corn is up; cotton planting pro- was a boisterous runnu, ready thing corn is up; cotton planting pro- was a boisterous runnu, ready the head shot the woman account to immigration, that gressing. Negroes generally working drink swear or gamble upon the but the hard countenances of his executioners upon the slightest provocation. He enjoyed a cutioners upon the particular to health and happiness, and thing corn is up; cotton planting pro- was a boisterous runnu, ready the head shot the woman accounter to health and happiness, and thing corn is up; cotton planting pro- was a boisterous runnu, ready the head shot the woman accounter to health and happiness, and thing corn is up; cotton planting pro- was a boisterous runnu, ready the head shot the woman accounter to health and happiness, and the head shot the woman accounter to health and happiness and the head shot the woman accounter to health and happiness are all looking for slightest provocation. He enjoyed a cutioners upon the head shot the globe, in so far as natural advantages ward to a good erop year. extend, and if we build up good Schools and Churches throughout its Schools and Churches throughout its tra hands next fall. And we want to papers. Wishing to dispossess the landers are we are aware our sparse; give timely notice so that if there he the Nicholson's of the farm be had borders, ere we are aware our sparse- give timely notice so that if there be ly settled neighborhoods will be thick- those that contemplate immigrating to ly inhabited with an enteprising, in- this country next winter, that by thing like legal process, he took ad-natural resources and an enterprising population, need such an institution? Have not we need of better steek, home raised, first class pigs, males and better 1 between 1 betwee horses? Ought'nt we to have the For the Richland Beacon. very best cotton and corn in the State? the best chickens, ducks and turkeys! and vegetables, fruit and preserves? One great incentive to all these indus-tries is a Fair Association. Its discussions as an agricultural club would aid in briaging about unanimity of sentiment among our planters on labor and crop questions, besides acquainting them generally with the best methods in all departments of agricultural husbandry. The annual exhibition of machinery, products and animals, would do much to stimulate of thing all conglomerated."

For the Richland Bencon.

"Darwin on the Center man? What camped behind a big log on his own the wagon drove under a pine from the house. Here he scooped out a hole, that his body might be concealed, and laid down to wait for daylight; but his restive disposition would not let him sleep, so for fun he fired a half dozen shots from his Henry rifle dozen shots from his animals, would do much to stimulate thing all conglomerated."

That ain't it, you got the quite suddenly, without fully arranging their toilet, and took refuge in the went on his knees, and in agonized our planters to introduce better stock. Mrs. P.—"Com—what? Ike you regular home of the Nicholsons. Tarpet to improve old are enough to give a body the hippy-pey then lay in wait until daylight.

Next morning Mrs. Nicholson said appropriately and the head but thirty this a tellah sace effect from a stand of crusters.

Next morning Mrs. Nicholson said appropriate that he had but thirty this a tellah sace effect from a stand of crusters. play a very important part in the deman. His de scent." partments of household economy.

sociation is a practical school production that was right down nice. De cant punish him for firing into a house make a will. A lawyer from the tive of the very best results, and certainly we of Richland Parish are able old lady went on knitting vigorously. Started without arms or the slightest Tarpey bequeathed $1,000 to Nicholtainly we of Richard Parish are able if any people are to have a real good, working organization. The Railroad me? The book ain't about scents nor places us in immediate communication. places us in immediate communication 'oranger' men neither; its to tell how roadway, gun in hand. Mrs. Nichol. some $40,000, to his wife and children. with the great thoroughfares of trade. a man came to be a man, that's all " We are thus convenient to exhibitors. him that, and not have to write a she said, "Good morning, Mr. Tarhim that, and not have to write a she said, "Good morning, Mr. TarHe only said: "Well, I'm ready, but We do not need a large capital in sup-book neither Who is Darwin any. Pev." The villian's only reply was, "Now, you ————, I've got you;" you are committing murder," now then sank on his kneed and the shares put as low as two dollars and allow any one to invest as large.

He.—"A very popular scientifisia- and raising the shot gun, and allow any one to invest as large.

He.—"A very popular scientifisia- and raising the shot gun, BE PULLED THE THEORY. and allow any one to invest as largeWest P.—Weil, well, a very populy as desired. In this way the stock lous, si-and-take-it writer. Oh yes to, written by Hon. H. P. Vickers, I am aware that you are well posted their favored section a desirable and lethorgy produced by the depressing in that vicinity. He says: attractive home for first-class immigration. They have made the right beginning, and one which must and will through my neighborhood since my lag of her assassin, Mat. Tarpey. inevitably prove successful. They return home, to see almost every plan. Mrs. Nieholson was a beautiful wo are building up good Schools and termsking improvement. We see fee, man, tall, stylish, and about thirty tharches evincing therein a spirit of cost and fonce corners cleaned attractive in society, and commanded public enterprise, liberality and local out; new land cleared, and a common the respect of all who knew herpride, that can but redound tenfold to effort among all to try and improve About two years since, her husband. The news of the atrocious murder the prosperity and success of any pee- their farms. When I see this spirit who is a wagon touker by trade, ple—while it is the grand lever by which alone our country can be lifted from its low estate, and the primeval am proud to say that I always glory putes about the interest or deferred wealth for ages hidden in our own in the prosperity of my friends. And payments, no difficulty was had with loved and beautiful Parish be truly one of the greatest evidences of the Tarpey up to the time of the murder. developed. The gain already experienced by Alto, in the many good citi. faces among us. We find that within work at his trade, leaving his wife zens which have been saided to that the inst six months our population has and a bired boy about 17 years old to then the whole male population of the community within the past few months, is one of the strongest evidences in illustration of this truth.

We were no little surprised, on a recent trip through that neighborhood, to find there such a large and hand-some building, as is the new Presby-lage, and our efforts shall be to de-among a gang of desperadoes that terian Church, which they are just serve all that you have said of us. have long infested Monterey and Sannaw completing. Standing as it does, We want to make Alto a desirable ta Cruz counties. His ostensible busin a beautiful grove, near the town, place for those that are in search of a iness was dealing in and breaking quarters, but finding the assassin had in a beautiful grove, near the town, shaded and environed with a l that is picturesque and lovely in natural piace for those that are in search of a diess was dealing in and declarate and horses, and he was also a farmer in a mew home. And when we say Alto, horses, and he was also a farmer in a small way, but he result spent most of his time in bragging and bully-bell the Sheriff protect Tarpey. They scenery, a house crected and dedecat- try. We have two good Church ciling about the streets and saloons of took with them an order from the AS REPRESENTED. ed to the worship of God, it speaks fices, that have in them regular preach. the various towns in the counties Judge directing the Sherid to bring

Mys. Partington on Darwin

"Wot's that you're reading. Ike?" "Darwin on the Decent o' man,"

The agricultural club and fair as man, his dee-scent, du tell! I should that I will go into town and see if we seemed to grow firmer, and asked to would be largely distributed through he's the man that says, we all were Tarpey, take the whole thing, but do quest was denied. the entire community, every one could prognostercated from monkeys and not murder me." But Tarpey took

A Removified Women Shot Deart The Micdirer Takes from July and Having seismed kinself that Hange to Making the Will Under the File! Tree- it question 9 $1,000 which pictures to ours readers in yourself as you frequently honor us plain and beautiful language, the wis- with your presence, and can see for terry county, California, of the 17th Fillizer smiled a knowing smile, and dom displayed by the good citizens of your self that we have a live population of the population of th of the advantages that our country with his feet. He always carried one to his wife and children, and his wick-Our Parish already possesses. Our planters are quite forrequisite to health and happiness, and thing corn is up; cotton planting prothing corn is up; cotton planting pro-We want to make cotton enough to can politician, and was some years "Come, Tarpey, get ready to go to give employment to one thousand exsince tried for forging naturalization Salinas City," was all they said, and sold them, and having a horror of any moving here early in the fall they will vantage of Mr Nicholson's absence Virgin to protect him. This seem dustrious and intelligent population find plenty of work to do, and have a to move an old frame house on to the good chance to secure homes for an- land, and then rent the bouse and fainting, and more dead than alive, or the Richard Bencon.

An Agricultural Fair Association.

Does not our parish, so favored in their interest to come here in the fall. Hoping that the expectations of the procession of the house the first night. about six miles, informed Tarpey, who including Tarpey's mother armed himself with a Henry ride, a brother-in-law, and Mr. Nichols

THE SCENE OF THE MURDER. camped behind a big log on his own town the wagon drove under a pine all monthly and interest to all ing their toilet, and took refuge in the tones

HE PULLED THE TRICKER. opn- The cap snapped. The poor wo wished to hang Tar-

But the lad raw, and Tarpey did not that the hare E e. Mrs. Nichols in lay dead on the of where she had fallen, and way he stopped at the shouse of dorepli Lillizer, an ex-constable, and de-A correspondent from Salinas, Mon-he had accidentally killed a woman him, brought him to Salinas. Here he blustered about the town, and actually made a public speech telling how the "accident" happened. It was, however, deemed best by the Sheriff to take him to Monterey, where the jail was more secure than the one here.

spread like wild fire, and the whole ounty became frantic with excitement. The two witnesses, O'Neill and the boy, testified before the Coroner's jury to the facts as they have been related. The excitement thereupon increased. Dispatches came from all directions urging speedy "justice." A mass meeting in Watsonville passed resotown came to Salinas with vague but determined purpose to do something desperate.

son, concluding with, "If you permit this murderer to go unhanged for twenty four hours you are all cowthe prisoner to Salinas, that his examination might take place. The Sheriff delayed until he finally receivaugmented to nearly five hundred, the body on the ground and stamp it and begged piteously for life, alluding ration for death. He protested that

> PREPARING FOR DEATH. while they were bidding him to prepare, the poor wretch began to pray in a lend voice, confessing his sins, calling on the saints and the Holy lasted several minutes, but finally half revolver, and a double-barrelled shot The former did not seem to realize the state of things; they learned it, how-He arrived during the night, and town in horrer. Three mike out of ever, before long, and started back to "Its all about the Origin of to O'Neill, "Let me go up to the oth- announcement that he had but thirty er house and see where Tarpey's bul-Mrs. P -"All about the Oranger lets struck and get our things. After make his preparations. He then Mrs. P.—"Well, Ike, I could tell O'Neill's arm, but recovering herself protest his innocence of intentional pey then sank on his knees and prayed while the rope was being adjusted.

THE EXECUTION. alm again and the cap snapped. The Tarpey was told to stand on a box Saturday, the 3rd day of May, 1813, RICE&CO.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in 137 Washington Street.

Vicksburg, Miss.,

EXTENSIVE WARE-ROOMS In the City,

In the mean time Mrs. Nicholsen's And keep constantly on hand

ARGEST STOCK OF BOTH

meeting in Watsonville passed resolutions denouncing the murderer, and Fine E Common Furniture

OF ANY HOUSE IN THE STATE.

At the foneral a gray-haired gentleman rose and eulogized Mrs. Nichol-AND REPAIRING ALL KINDS.

PROMPTLY EXECUTED BY SKILLED WORKMEN,

TALL GOODS GUARANTEED TO BE EXACTLY 135 P. O. Box 285 Vicksburg, Miss. March 29th, 1873. Ly

Essence Jamaioa Ginger, Soda and Saidlitz Powders. COD LIVER OIL DEODORIZED BENSING,

NEW ORLEANS INDECIBLE INK.

STOMACH BITTERS.

Important Notice to Delin- RESTAURANT: quent Tax Payers

OFFICE STAAL TAX CULLECTOR. | GAME AND FRESH OVSTERS

H. P. DAUGHTRY. Stand Tax Collector Farish of Richland.

Speaker of the House (Speakersta tyre (Spread) C. C. ANTONI, Lieur, Gay, and President of the Schale Approved Merch 11, 1853. V ILLIAM P. KELLOGG. Governor of the State of Louisiana

A true copy: P. G. Destesne, Scoretary of State.

UNITED STATES MARSHALS SALE. THE VICKSBURG BANK,

J. H. CALLAWAY. In the United States Gircuit Court Mr. Nicholson wished to hang Tar- for the Fifth Circuit and District of Louisiana, No. 6528.

BY virtue of an alore writ of first jorius to me directed in the above entitled not. I will proceed to sell to the layerest lidder on

TRESH FISH.

OFFICE STAAL TAX CILLIC FOR.

Restard Fallish.

Rey offe, Abrea 17, 1878.

The special attention of delinquent tax pay is hereby called to Act No. 46 of the Goud A Assembly of 1873, herein attached, profing that all back taxes which are paid him NINETY DAYS from March 14th, N., shall be upon the assessed value of the perty, all penalties, interests and costs as feeting.

Mouroe, Nov. 26th, 1872—1y, agreemited.

WM. A. PAIRCHILD, SAME R. PAIRCHILD. FAIRCHILD & CO.,

VICESBURG, ' STEAM PLAINING MILL

And Lumber Yard.

Sash, Doors, Blinds, Hould-

OUBLE BARRELED Shorthmer coverage by the first the same of the sam

Mark No. 1 and 1 a

Mosquilo Har Re tiailing.

II. B. BRUSEN, Copper, Tin & Sheet-Iran Barke

COOKING AND BLATTACKING House Furnishing Goods

Short Look, Block and The

Victobuvg, Mi

PROTOGRAPHER.

Gallery of Une Arie. VICESBURO, MISS.

> SPECIALITIES. IMPERIALS,

e to touthed negatives | for

LAMKIN & EGGLESTON. CONTON PACKURS -DEALERS IN-

Groceries, Provisions AND LIQUORS.

Corner Crawford and Lever S VICKSBURG, MISS. Liberal advances in Cash or Sur made on Cotton sold by us er stoked. Planters, and Merchants' Warelessee.

MAURICE MASTERSON. HOUSE AND SIGN PAINTER.

DELPI, LOUISIAN ... , 7 OULD respectfully offer history the citizens of Delhi and survey

Painting. Paper Hanging are requested to examine his work in around Delhi, as it speaks for 2-cif

ACCOMMODATION TO TRAVELERS.

At Monroe, La.

"COOD BOARD AND COMPRESSE

T ROOMS, AT TWO DOLLARS PL Sendle Man 50 Cents Longist of Co

House situated only one ha dred yards from the Depot. Mrs. C. HEWSON.

J. J. Cowan & Co., CONTON PAGEORS,

Corner of Wa Munto's and Crawford Since VICKSBURG, MILS.

A. E. ADAMS, with J. J. Cowen & Co. Liberal Advances made on Contents be and sold at Vicksburg.
dec 27.74-Iv.

SUCCESSION SALE.

THE STATE OF LOGISTANA / Succession of Joseph D. Thomas By virtue of a wast of sale issued from the Parish Court in and for the Parish Franklin, and to me directed as Sheriff, I well as public method to the logical backer cash, at the inventoried apparentment at door of the Court house in Kopetier, on Saturday, the 5th day of April, 1877. the following described property, howit South West quarter, Section two. Town is fortiered, of Ringe six East, containing hundred and twenty acres more of less. J. A. LIDDELL.

Mar 1 3sq. 6; $18]. SHERIFF'S SALE.

A A. Shure, State of Lennis No. 35 NS.

B W. Graves 120cD Company of Front the Hend 17th District Company of the Farsh of Madennia the Farsh of Madennia the Sarah of Madennia the Sarah of Madennia the Sarah of the Farsh of Harbland I have said will offer for mile at the door of homes in Kayville, and Farsh for which the beautiful appraisance of the Sarah of Harbland I have been it of appraisance of the Sarah of Harbland I have been it of appraisance of the Sarah of Harbland I have been it of appraisance of the Sarah of Saturdaythe 5th dancet Apilel. 18

the following described proper? The East had or the North West and the East had of the South West and the fact for the fact of the South West and the section of the South West section of an er. I. was let 14. North of Factory Corner Caina & Monroe Sts Victosburg, Miss.

Fig. 5, 1873 om.

School of an interview of the design of the section of

Ant Start South London to 1 is the Bencon Other .