POLICE JURY PROCEEDINGS.
At an extra meeting of the Police Jury of the Parish of West Baton Rouge held at the Court House hereof, on Friday April 26, 1861 at 11 o'clock a. m. the following members were present viz: J Braud, James L. Lobdell, J T Landry, Stephen Pipes, F A Woods, W W Lemmon, E B Trinidad, D F Caio, Jas. C Woods, N W Pope.
Jas. C Woods in the chair. The President explained the object of the meeting and the Jury proceeded to business—
On motion of Mr. Pope the President appointed Messrs. Lemmon, James Lobdell and Pope, as a committee to make the changes necessary to meet the exigencies of the times in the patrol ordinances and make a report of their proceedings on next meeting day.
The Clerk is requested to notify the Captains of the volunteer companies of this Parish to exhibit to this body on next Monday a correct muster-roll of their respective companies.
On motion of Mr. Lemmon the following was unanimously adopted:
For the purpose of providing for the families of such of our citizens that have volunteered their services for the common defence and for making such provisions as may be immediately necessary for the volunteer companies as have been or may be raised in this Parish placing themselves at the disposal of the Governor.
Resolved, That the sum of ten thousand dollars be appropriated by the Police Jury.
Resolved further, That the bonds of the Parish bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum and redeemable twelve months after date, to issued and for such amount as may be necessary for immediate use for this purpose be immediately negotiated and the amount realized deposited in the Parish Treasury. That [illegible] money so raised and deposited [illegible] Treasury, shall be [illegible] all other [illegible] volunteer bonds.
[illegible] thousand five hundred dollars [illegible] on the tax roll of 1861 for the purpose of meeting the bonds when due.
The following gentlemen were appointed on a committee to negotiate the Parish bonds, or so much as may be necessary, viz: Jas C Woods, V Duralde, E R Chinn, W W Lemmon.
The Jury then adjourned to Monday next at 10 o'clock a. m.
Monday April 29th 1861, at 10 o'clock a. m. the Jury met pursuant to adjournment.
Present:—J Braud, J T Landry, F A Woods, Jas. C Woods, N W Pope, James L Lobdell, Stephen Pipes, Sidney Lobdell, W W Lemmon.
Absent, E B Trinidad, D F Caio—
President in the chair. On motion of Mr Pope the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The committee appointed to make changes in the Patrol ordinance of this Parish made the following Report which was adopted viz:
Ordinance relative to Patrol and the Police of slaves.
Be it ordained by the Police Jury of the Parish of West Baton Rouge.
Sec. 1. That there be created the Office of Chief of Police for said Parish to continue in existence and operation until the termination of the war in which the Confederate States of America are now engaged.
2—That the Chief of Police, by immediately elected by he Police Jury and hereafter at its annual June session of each year, to hold office for the term of one year from the day of his election and until his successor may be qualified.
3:—He shall be a resident citizen of this Parish, shall give bond with two securities living in this Parish, in the sum five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties, shall take an oath to discharge faithfully the duties of his office and to obey the Constitution and laws of the Confederate States and the laws and ordinances of this Parish, and shall receive from the Parish treasurer an annual salary, payable quarterly at the rate of five hundred dollars.
4.—It shall be his duty to superintend and control the Patrols of the Parish, so that effect shall appoint the Captains of Patrols for the different Wards of the Parish, and may appoint as many as he may deem necessary, Lieutenants of Patrol as [illegible] necessary, provided the number shall not exceed five in each Ward. He shall hold office at pleasure of the Chief and shall take the oath prescribed by law for that officer.
5.—He shall make out and keep in his office for public inspection a list of all persons in the Parish subject to patrol duty and shall also make out a list of such persons as liable resident in each ward, and shall deliver same to the Captains of Patrols of said wards.
6. In time of danger and emergency, he may order out special patrols from any part of the parish, of as many as he may think proper and necessary to serve on horseback or foot, and shall be commanded by himself or one of his Lieutenants or Ward Captains.
7. The Chief shall be responsible for the acts of his Lieutenants and Ward Captains only so far as they shall carry out his orders, but the latter shall be liable for any misfeasance in office by him committed.
8. No person who may be appointed Lieutenant of Patrol, or Captain of the Ward, shall be permitted to decline said appointment, and, in case of refusal, shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, recoverable before any Court of competent jurisdiction.
9. The Captains of patrols and the different Wards, upon receipt of the patrol list from the Chief of Police, shall proceed to organize the patrol of the Ward, by dividing the available force into squads of four men each, one of whom he shall designate as leader of the squad, which squad or division, shall be submitted to the Chief of Police who may correct or change same as he may deem proper.
10. The Captains shall take care that the patrols be regularly made at [illegible] every week, and oftener when necessary. They shall have the general superintendence of the Police of their Wards and shall see that the laws are executed and order preserved. They shall be present, when required, to furnish to the Justice of the Peace, a detail of men whenever the public safety may require it. They shall make a weekly report to the Chief of Police every Saturday, in which they shall state the number of patrols and arrests made, fines incurred, punishment inflicted, and the general discipline and disposition of the slave and colored population of their respective Wards.
11. It shall be duty of the Captains to order out patrols, either in writing or verbally, provided, that in ordering out the said patrols, he shall not order the same against for two consecutive nights, and shall inform each leader of the night on which he shall turn out. The leader shall notify the men of his squads and the following day shall make to the Captain of his Ward, a report of his patrol in which he shall state all that has taken place contrary to the laws of the state and the laws and ordinances of this parish.
12. The patrol shall be armed and equipped in such manner as the Chief of Police may direct, provided, in case he should require arms other than those belonging to them, same shall be furnished by the Parish.
13. The leader in his round should take care that the whole [illegible] He shall be subordinate to the Captain and shall be responsible for all disorder, misconduct, or trespass, that may be committed by his permission or connivance. The leader of [illegible] his squad shall obey his order, and the whole squad, leaders and squads, shall obey and be under the supreme command of the Chief of Police.
14. Instance of insubordination and disturbance when there may not be sufficient time to notify the Chief of Police, the Justice of the Peace may [illegible] any special patrols, and shall designate [illegible] order same shall be placed, provided the person designated be already a captain or patrol or lieutenant of the Chief.
