Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Center.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure,

Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life,

Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, together with Songs,

Ballads, Anecdotes and Hamorous Incidents of the War for Southern

Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narrative of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvellous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has ever produced.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a full description of the work. Address,

IMPORTANT VETERINARY REMEDIES.

Read the Following:

We, the undersigned, having known Mr. J. W. Santafée for many years can readily certify to his unbaffled skill in the cure of all diseases of the horse, and sincerely and heartily recommend him him and his medicine to the public in general, knowing that it will meet with complete success to all who may deem it prudent to give it a fair trial. Foundered horses cured in twelve hours.
Colic in thirty minutes. Bots in thirty minutes.
Distemper in four days. Farcy and preventive of glanders from eight to ten days. Lung fever in four days. Lookjaw.

ECONOMY & HOME INDUSTRY.

SAVE YOUR RAGS.

THE CHICKASABOGUE

Manufacturing Company

ARE NOW prepared to purchase Good, Clean Cotton and Linen Rags, in any quantity, and to pay for them the highest market price in cash.
They have established a depot at No. 51 North Water street for the receipt and storage of rags and paper stock of all sorts, under the immediate charge of Capt. Thomas E. Baas, who is authorized to pay a liberal price for all stock required by the company's mills and brought to him in a suitable condition.

Rags may either be white, colored or mixed, but they must be free of woollens, clean and well handled.
Dealers in paper stock in the city and interior will find it to their advantage to communicate with us before disposing of their stock elsewhere.

Newspapers will advance their own interests by lending their influence to secure the saving and collecting of all the rags to be found in their respective localities. We will credit them in exchange for paper at liberal rates for the merchantable rags they may send us.

Rags sent by the rivers and Great Northern Railroad should be addressed to the Company at Mobile, Alabama.

All shipments by the Mobile and Ohio Railroad should be directed to Beaver Meadow Station, the location of the Company's Works.

For further information apply at the Company's Depot, No. 51 North Water street, or to the undersigned, in person or by letter, at the office of the Advertiser & Register.
