PLANTATION BITTERS

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.
Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article—a medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest tonic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world—be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.

Standard History of the War. A WORK OF NATIONAL AND PERMANENT VALUE.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR, —BY—
Gen. Henry Lee, THOROUGHLY REVISED AND ANNOTATED —BY—
Gen. Robert E. Lee, WHO HAS ADDED A Full Biography of his Father.

A Full Biography of his Father. 1 volume octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel portraits of Gen. Henry Lee, Gen. Robt. E. Lee, and Gen. Nathaniel Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion crossing the Pedee," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis;" Maps of the Siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobbs's Hill, and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's Residence.
THIS admirable history of the operations of the American armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States, is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. ROBT. E. LEE, the son of the author, and embellished by beautiful Engravings and original Maps, never before published, is a volume of the highest value to every intelligent person.
The fact that it is the only book now published from Gen. Lee's pen, gives it an interest possessed by no other work. Among the new materials introduced in the biography are important letters from President Madison, Gen. Lafayette, Greene and Hamilton, Gen. Rutledge, and others; letters to Washington, Madison, Gov. Reed, Gen. Wayne and others.
The work is handsomely printed and bound; the Steel Engravings and Lithographic Maps are engraved in the most artistic style, and no expense, not care have been spared in preparation to make it worthy alike of its subject and its author.
[From the Louisville Courier-Journal]
"A book by Gen. Lee will awaken such special interest that we are glad to call attention to it."
"We are sure that this announcement alone is sufficient to give the book a very great sale, but when we add that Gen. Lee is personally interested in its publication, such a sale is made certain."
The Book is only sold by subscription, application for which must be addressed to the undersigned at Baton Rouge, La., P. O. Box 114.
