WIN "FED'S" PENNANT

Indianapolis Captures Second Straight Pennant in Close Finish—Team's Attack Brought Flag

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—By winning from St. Louis yesterday the Indianapolis Federal League team for the second time in two years captured the Federal League pennant.

To Manager "Whoa, Bill," Phillips, the "Silent Leader" of the team, who also was at the helm of the club last year, when it won the first flag of the league, is given credit, in a large measure, for the winning of the second championship. He, however, ascribes the victory to his players. The feature of the local team's work this season was its strong attack. Yesterday's victory for Indianapolis, while Chicago was losing two games, gave the local team, which was half a game behind, a one-game lead.

President Gilmore, of the Federals, has announced that he will challenge the winner of the world series on behalf of the winner of the Federal League pennant, but there is little hope that a series can be arranged.

The Federal League race was hard fought from start to finish, nearly every team at one time or another taking part in a rally that gave it an apparent chance for the flag. The addition of Charlie Carr, the veteran, put such batting strength into the Hoosier line-up that Indianapolis began to climb in June, and on June 16 a double defeat of Baltimore by Kansas City and Indianapolis' win over Pittsburgh gave the Hoosiers the lead.

The Chicago team was on top in the last few days until a double defeat by Kansas City in Tuesday's game pushed Tinker's men into second place, as Indianapolis beat St. Louis.

Leading factors in the Indianapolis victory were the pitching of Falkenberg and Kaiserling, the batting of its team in general and the all-around playing of Bennie Kauff, who led the league in stolen bases and for the greater part of the season was leading batter.

LUCKNOW CLERKS BANQUETED

Roy Leslie, President of League, Presided
The Clerks' Association of the Lucknow League banqueted last night at Riverside Inn, celebrating the winning of the season's pennant. Roy Leslie, president of the league, acted as toastmaster. Supper was served to the following:

R. J. Leslie, A. N. Young, W. G. Ford, W. E. W. H. H. L. W. Chard, F. S. Marshall, S. C. Greene, L. G. Weyand, O. E. Waitz, H. E. Leedy, G. W. Smith, J. B. Fagan, A. C. Taylor, R. Levan, I. M. Arthur, A. S. Moyer, V. L. Huntsberger, P. C. Zeigler, C. M. Dunlap and L. J. Fegley.

Central Plays To-day

Because the Lebanon Valley Scrubs—Central High's opponents in the weekly game—wanted to see the varsity team play Franklin and Marshall the game with the local team which was scheduled for to-morrow, was played this afternoon. All of the Blue and Grey's opponents this season have been weak, to-day's game being the first to try the strength of the team.

COLONIAL
Daily continuous vaudeville and pictures.

"To-day"
"To-day," George Broadhurst's and Abraham Schomer's powerful modern drama of New York life, which ran a season at the Forty-eighth Street theatre, New York, comes to the Majestic this afternoon and to-night. The play tells the story of a young couple, Frederick and Lily Wagner, who are typical of modern life in New York, in that the man is bending every energy to make money and the woman to spend it, and they are living beyond their means. The man is a fine fellow, who has made a great deal of money in doing real estate speculations. The woman is a selfish little fool, bent on getting into society, vain of her good looks and of her reputation for always being dressed in the very extreme of style. Harry Von Tilzer, the producer, has provided a magnificent production and a cast of notable players, including Arleen Hackett, Hallett Thompson, Marie Reichardt, Anton Ascher, Marie Dantes, Arthur J. Wood, Marie Burke, Sarah Hubbard and Frank Stone. Adv.

The Fay Foster Company
The famous Fay Foster and big company of well-known stars, comedians, singers and dancers will appear at the Majestic to-morrow, matinee and night, in two rollicking burlesques. All the scenery used in the production is carried by the company and many new and original mechanical and electrical effects of a startling nature will be introduced.

Diplomacy
"You persuaded your husband to join a glee club?"
"Yes," answered Mrs. Biggins; "when he starts to sing at home I can now advise him not to tire his voice, and when he sings in the club I can't hear him."—Washington Star.

roduced. The costumes worn by the lady members of the company are said to be the most elaborate seen this season and were designed by a well-known creator of fashions of one of the famous establishments whose ideas are copied all over the world. Adv.

"My Best Girl"
With what is claimed to be one of the best casts ever assembled for musical comedy and, judging from the past records of the players, the statement is made truthfully, "My Best Girl," the Channing Pollock-Rennold Wolf-Clifton Crawford-Augustus Barratt musical play, which scored an emphatic success at the Park theatre, New York, comes to the Majestic Saturday, matinee and night.

Victor Morley, who is well remembered because of his capable work in "Three Twins" and "The Quaker Girl," deservedly enjoys featured distinction with the company, and in his support are a score of well-known players, a goodly-sized and appearing chorus, together with an especially augmented orchestra. "My Best Girl" is a bright, breezy American farce, well punctuated with enjoyable musical numbers. The story is as unusual as it is interesting. Adv.

"Every Woman"
The largest musical and dramatic production which has ever been offered by the Majestic theatre will be offered on Monday, afternoon and evening, when Henry W. Savage will disclose his enormous production of the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman." Over 750 people appear in the various ensemble of the famous play and the organization is accompanied by a special symphony orchestra. It is without doubt the most sumptuous production which Henry W. Savage has ever sent on tour. "Everywoman" has been witnessed by four millions of Americans and it has been played in five foreign countries. It is an absolutely new idea in theatricals and partakes of the nature of grand opera, the only comedy and drama. This is the only "Everywoman" company touring America and the cast contains several members of the original organization. The seat sale opens to-morrow. Adv.

"The Traffic"
Over 1,000,000 theatregoers have attended performances of "The Traffic" since its initial presentation one year ago, and most of them have enthusiastically applauded the portrayal of the unfortunate Agnes Berton by the clever young emotional artist, Miss Bessie Sankey, who will head the company presenting "The Traffic" in this city at the Majestic next Tuesday and Wednesday and Wednesday matinee. The production carried by this company is one of the most complete on tour this season, the four big acts being shown exactly as during the record engagements in the larger cities. Adv.

At the Orpheum
The gem of purest ray serene of the Orpheum's new season is Irene Franklin, who may be called a metropolitan favorite, for she undoubtedly is, but that doesn't mean that she is thought of as less than light in Harrisburg. Her popularity is attested to by the big audiences and immense receptions at each performance. And right here we must bear in mind that other old favorites are here this week too, no less than our friends Frank Milton and the nifty Delong Sisters, presenting a revised edition of their great comedy sketch "Twenty Minutes Layover at Alfalfa Station." The girls are spirited and good to look upon, wearing some striking costumes to a nicety. Frank Milton keeps the house convulsed with his "rube" gags and side-splitting antics. All that remains of the old act is the station idea and Mr. Milton is also retained as the man of all jobs, with a special hat for everything he does. But the lines are vastly different, the situations are new and the girls sing. But the well known efforts of this trio are always enjoyed in Harrisburg, for they seem to have a warm, warm welcome awaiting them whenever it happens that their names appear on the Orpheum program. Of course, one can't refrain from referring to Irene Franklin when talking about the best things at the Orpheum this week, or for that matter, the best things this season.

Miss Franklin is an artist to her finger tips with a manner and style of delivering her songs that isn't to be compared with anyone else we have ever seen. They are sung the way that Miss Franklin sings them and I believe she could make a gem out of any old song she might choose to sing. Her own keen sense of delighting Orpheum audiences immensely, and they are equally as good as those she sang here two seasons ago, if not better. Toney and Norman, young man and woman in an eccentric song and comedy turn, are coming in for big honors on the current offering too. Adv.

At the Colonial
A breezy comedy sketch presented by really clever players known as Leonard and Arnold, will be the leading attraction in vaudeville features to be uncovered at the Colonial to-day. These players comprise a clever and pleasing miss and an excellent comedian and their offering is one that has appeared in many theatres where the prices were far in excess of those at the Colonial. Burke and Walsh, sidewalk patter funsters, will have plenty of good gags and new parodies, while Dorothy Curtis, a dainty singing comedienne, is bound to please admirers of pretty girl acts. A fine program of first run licensed films will attract lovers of good moving pictures. Adv.

LARGE CROWD AT CARNIVAL
Grounds Are Expected to Be Packed To-night and To-morrow
Despite the very bad weather last night the Ferari Carnival Company's grounds on Seventeenth street, between Chestnut and Derry streets, were crowded with a happy, jostling throng who waited their turn to enter the much pieced all preparations for taking care To-night and to-morrow record-breaking crowds are expected on the grounds and the carnival company has completed all preparations for taking care of the vast crowds that are looked for. The many frequenters of the carnival will be sorry to see this large aggregation of good, clean, fun-making and clever shows leave here on Saturday night.
