NEWS OF STEELTON

OFFICER JONES GIVEN A HEARING BY COMMITTEE

Members of Borough Police Force Found of Chicken, But Taboo Beer—Many Persons Attended Inquiry Into Charges Against Policeman

A second hearing in the case of Patrolman Jones, who was suspended by Burgess Wigfield several months ago and later reinstated by the police committee of Council a few weeks later, was held in the Council chamber last evening.

This hearing was ordered by Council at its October meeting after finding out that the previous action of the police committee in reinstating the suspended officer was irregular.

The Burgess made a charge of insubordination, neglect of duty and intoxication against Officer Jones and the latter, in defending himself against these charges, presented a large number of witnesses whose testimony disproved the allegations made by Burgess Wigfield.

Seated with the police committee, composed of Chairman Nelley, Councilman Henderson and Councilmen Sellers, was Borough Solicitor P. B. Wickerman, who, with the committee and Burgess Wigfield, questioned the witness.

The conduct of Patrolman Jones, which resulted in his dismissal in July, was first taken up and testimony heard from Charles Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dickson, Dr. C. H. Crampton, of Harrisburg; Chief of Police Longacker, Sergeant Masters, John Brinton, Burgess Wigfield and Patrolmen Tomblino, Pearson and Wyan. This testimony had mainly to do with the alleged intoxicated condition of Jones on the evening of July 3. The Burgess' sworn testimony that Jones was drunk was refuted by the policeman.

The complaints made by the Burgess before Council October 5 were again alleged misconduct on the evenings of September 22 and 23, during a wedding celebration of West Side foreigners. The testimony on these charges was given by Councilman Reich, Thomas Muldoon, Ira Rider, Patrolman Pearson, James Porter and several foreigners, all of whom, with the exception of Reich and Rider, were at the wedding celebration while the patrolman was there.

The Burgess charged Jones with drinking on that evening and the testimony both sustained and opposed the complaint.

All testimony last evening was taken in short hand and the case will be decided by Council.

All who testified last evening were sworn by Squire Gardner, who was present by request. Kasimir Pozoga interpreted the testimony given by the foreigners. Thomas J. Nelley, chairman of the police committee of Council, presided at the meeting, which lasted from 7.30 to 10.20 p. m.

Considerable humor was injected by Officer Pearson, who, with Officer Jones, were ordered by Police Chief Longacker to attend the celebration incident in the wedding of West Side foreigners on the evenings of September 22 and 23 in order to preserve the peace, at which celebration Jones was accused of drinking beer.

In speaking of the affair, Pearson said that when he arrived at the place he inquired if they had any chicken to eat and was told to go down to the cellar and help himself. When Pearson reached the cellar he claims to have found more prepared chicken there than he had ever seen and that he eat until he could swallow no more, but that neither he nor Officer Jones drank any beer.

BOROUGH CODE IS NOW READY

Second of State's Law Compilations May Be Had Free of Charge

Supplementing the codification of the State's taxation laws, which was issued during August, the Legislative Reference Bureau now has issued a similar codification of all general laws affecting boroughs; this, like the taxation code, is printed in pamphlet form and is being given free of all charge to anyone who applies for it.

No codification of borough laws has been made since the general borough statute was enacted more than half a century ago. The last Legislature directed the Legislative Reference Bureau to prepare codes of all classes of laws and to present such as may be ready to the Legislature of 1915. Three will be presented next January—the taxation code, the borough code and the corporation code; the last-named will be ready for the public about November 1.

These codifications have been prepared under the supervision of James McKirdy, assistant director of the Legislative Reference Bureau. As with the taxation code, he especially invites criticism of the borough code, to the end that any errors which may have crept in may be corrected before the bill is presented to the next Legislature. The code establishes no new laws, being merely a systematic, logical and convenient arrangement of existing statutes on the subject.

Anyone interested in the subject who desires a copy of the borough code may have it free by writing to Mr. McKirdy in Harrisburg.

$50,000 SAID TO HAVE BEEN OFFERED TO SUPPRESS BILL

Statement Made at Meeting of State Federation of Women's Clubs in Pittsburgh Yesterday—Governor Tener Knows Nothing About It

In the meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs held in Pittsburgh yesterday, the statement was made, during a discussion of a paper on "Household Economics," that in the last Legislature Representative Wilson, of Philadelphia, had introduced the cold storage bill, had been requested by Governor Tener to withdraw it, and that on his refusal to do so, a Chicago packer offered him $50,000 to suppress the bill.

Governor Tener, when asked regarding the story, said he knew nothing about it only that on representation of the fishermen of Erie the bill was amended so as to exclude fish from its provisions, and that so far as the storage of meat was concerned there was no controversy. Governor Tener said he knew nothing of the extension of the time for holding eggs in storage, but he had several talks with Representative Wilson regarding the general provisions of the bill, and had not asked him to withdraw it. As to the attempt to bribe Mr. Wilson with $50,000 the Governor knew nothing of it nor of any other attempt to bribe.

Buy Here Not Alone Because Prices Are Lower, But Because Qualities Are Better

ANOTHER OF THE REMARKABLE MILLINERY EVENTS

That Has Made the Name of This Store a By-Word With Thousands of Women

Several years ago a new era in Millinery merchandising was inaugurated in Harrisburg. It dates from the time this store opened its Millinery Department and provided a channel through which the women of Harrisburg could at all times buy stylish shapes and trimmings at prices far below what they had been accustomed to pay.

Of course, it was impossible to confine prices in this department to our price limits in other departments of one to twenty-five cents, and at the same time present a comprehensive assortment of shapes and trimmings. So we decided to carry in addition to everything in this line that could be sold at twenty-five cents or less, millinery that would meet the requirements in style and quality of the most discriminating buyer, and sell it at prices free of the customary inflation which so generally prevails in the pricing of shapes and trimmings.

And then to make this department even more important, we established a weekly buying system. Every week our buyers visit the eastern markets and return home with new stocks, thus enabling us to present at all times absolutely the newest creations in the realm of fashion.

In a word, we have made this department one in which exceptional values prevail, not only on certain irregular sale occasions, but every day in the year—a fact that thousands of women in and about Harrisburg have proven to their satisfaction, are repeatedly taken advantage of.
