TWO REPUBLICAN MEETINGS

Dauphin County League Now Has Membership Close to 400—West End Rally Last Night

Two Republican meetings of more than usual importance were held last night, but neither were in the nature of mass meetings, although there was great enthusiasm at both.

The Dauphin County Republican League held its regular meeting at Republican headquarters, with the County and City Committees, the attendance being so large that the three rooms at headquarters were crowded. City Chairman Oves presided, and during the evening announcement was made of large accessions to the membership, the League now having close to 400 members, the majority of them Republican workers. Chairman Oves reported that arrangements are being made for work for the entire ticket from now until the close of the campaign, and several wards were reported from through their representatives. A feature of the evening were the addresses by Dr. M. S. Gimper, Lloyd Johnston, James Baker, of the First ward, and Herman P. Miller.

The West End Republican Club held what was called a rally meeting which was attended by over 200 of the members, all of them Republican workers in the West End. The principal speaker of the evening was Senator E. E. Beidleman, who gave some facts regarding the Democratic candidates hitherto unpublished, and extolled Senator Penrose and Dr. Brumbaugh. Senator Beidleman also called attention to the importance of active, earnest work for Swartz and Wildman, the legislative candidates, and urged that a big vote be polled for Congressman Kreider. Other speakers of the evening were Congressman Kreider, J. W. Swartz and Augustus Wildman. President Douglass presided.

The Central Palmer-McCormick League at its meeting last night took up a number of campaign matters, and committees will be created to look after special work.

The Central Democratic Club will take about 200 men fully uniformed on the trip to Reading to attend the big mass meeting next Friday. The Club will be accompanied by the Commonwealth band and will leave here on a special train in the afternoon, returning at midnight.
