SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS

BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

LOOKING OUT FOR NUMBER ONE.

Text, "Take heed to thyself."—I Tim. vi. 6.

One is God's number. It signifies unity. God is one. The Bible begins with God. Jesus said, "I am Alpha," that is the beginning, the first letter of the Greek alphabet. "Number one" in the world is self. "Taking care of number one" is taking care of self. Usually means looking out for self and selfish interests, having a good time, gratifying the five senses. And why shouldn't we?

As I walked by myself I talked with myself.

And myself said this unto me: Look out for thyself, take care of thyself Or no one will take care of thee.

Surely! There is only one God and there is only one you. Preserve that individuality. The charm of childhood is naturalness. But before we know it the artless, unaffected life which we like so much has become artificial. The stiff requirements of education and society are taken on. Affection of speech, manner, dress and character greet us on every side. Genius attracts hundreds of imitators. The great lawyer has a score of copyists. The great preacher has many echoes. Imitation is the death of originality. Be yourself. The rose does not copy the aster, nor the violet the sunflower. All Scripture teaching is to take care of "number one." But "number one" is a compound creature of body, mind and spirit.

Number One's Body.

The first duty is to be a first class animal. Now and then there is a genius who seems to be able to do his work no matter what the bodily condition, but it is only relative. What it might have been may only be judged by what it is. It is hard to row with an anchor out. There is a vast difference between taking care of "number one" and gratifying "number one." If mental and spiritual condition, time and eternity, depend so largely on the body no one but an idiot would neglect "number one's" body. I wish that were true. There would be less sickness, fewer early deaths, practically no pauperism. In spite of all our selfishness we do not take care of self. We abuse ourselves. Then after a few years nature presents her little bill and is a veritable Shylock in her demands. Last week on a lecture tour a well preserved man of eighty jumped off the wagon at the station. "How spry you are!" "I am living on the capital of a well spent youth." As pastor in a district where I must be brought into contact with hundreds of human wrecks I can testify that the grace of God gives a new heart, but not a new body. Let a young man make his body a whisky jug or a beer keg, abuse his body till the fiber is burned out, smoke poisoned cigarettes till his yellow fingers tremble, is black under the eyes and his cheeks fall in and then at some church seek religion. He cannot hinder the process of broken laws. Suicide is not rare. Fortunately or unfortunately tombstones do not tell the whole truth.

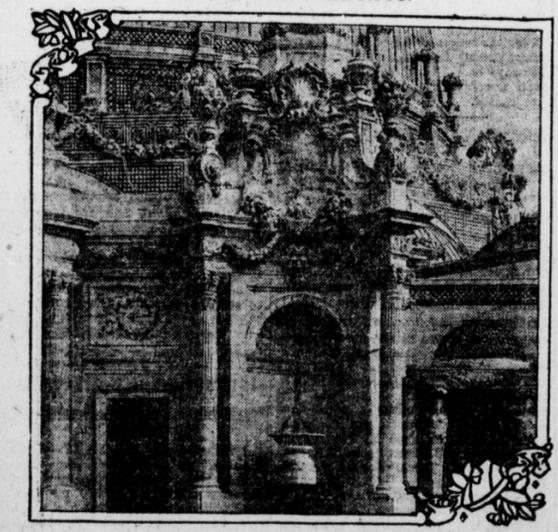

Number One's Mind.

The mind is a photographer's chest in which he stores negatives. The picture of five or ten years ago is reproduced, only that the photographer may move or quit business and the plates are lost or destroyed. But you cannot move away from yourself. All that you see and hear goes into the recesses of your soul to make pictures for the future. You will have them with you till the judgment day. Taking care of "number one" implies education, acquisition of useful knowledge, the cultivation of the intellectual powers. You must not only work industrially at your trade, be economical and provident in your expenditures, but you must also read—you must avail yourself of the many opportunities which you are offered by a cheap press and many public libraries. History, travel, art, science, literature, are yours. Never before was it so true that "knowledge is power." Never before were there so many open doors for advancement. Those doors may open at any moment. Only he who is prepared may step in. Now is the time to stock the mind. The chances are that if "number one" is ignorant now he will be ignorant for life.

Number One's Soul.

If we could only profit by experience. Remember Kipling's lines: If only myself could talk to myself As I knew him a year ago, I could tell him a lot That would save him a lot Of things he ought to know. In nothing do we rob ourselves as in spiritual things. We are dual beings. Man has a body, he is a soul. He is a creature of two worlds. This world is a place of preparation. One's great business is the salvation of one's soul. Strange to say, however, if you think of that only you may lose the very thing you seek. "He that seeketh his life shall lose it." While "He that loseth his life for my sake shall find it," said Christ. By looking out for "number two," the other fellow, by the roadside of life, we are going on in self forgetfulness—finally the gate of heaven is reached. "Chorea" is a nerve disease in which the patient turns round and round on one spot. Love of self is just as incessant spinning on that spot. Sometimes the center of our egotism is about our taste or talents, or sins, or suffering. Our true center is not self, but Christ. Look unto him who is the author and finisher of our faith.
