The Time Has Come to Clean House

The greedy bi-partisan Penrose machine must be swept out, and the common welfare must be set in the place where it belongs. The magnate system of private monopoly has dominated the politics of State and Nation, stifled equal opportunity, raised the cost of living, and skimmed the cream of industry for the over-rich. It must be destroyed. This country belongs of right to its inhabitants. Extortion for private profit must stand aside for the public good. The Government must be made to serve the people.

Uproot Penroseism

"We demand, will enact and put into execution, if given the opportunity, a constructive program of legislation for the better security of human rights, the uplift of mankind and the moral welfare of the citizenship of the state. But before that great work can be accomplished, or be rendered effective, the state government must be reorganized and the ruins of the crumbling Penrose machine cleared away."
"We must have a new deal, a complete reorganization and one that cleans house from top to bottom."
"If elected, I propose to be Governor."
VANCE C. MCCORMICK.

DR. JOHN H. KREIDER
A Self-made Man of the Common People—A Friend of the Wage-Earner

I stand for protection as regards business man, farmer and wage-earner alike. I stand against all favoritism to special interests. So far as the tariff is concerned, I believe in a protection based on the reports of a scientific non-partisan tariff commission, and enacted one schedule at a time. This method of tariff regulation will insure continued and permanent prosperity.

FOOLS A KILLING ALIEN MOB

Sheriff Lures Twenty-three Men to Court For Arrest

Huntingdon, Oct. 31.—A clever ruse on the part of the authorities yesterday led to the arrest of twenty-three alien miners on a charge of inciting to riot. The Thropp mines, at Melrose, this county, have not been paying the miners for the past several weeks, and the other 100 Italian miners threw down their picks and walked out.
Wednesday, as an American was going to work as usual, he was attacked by one of the strikers and rendered unconscious by a blow on the head. Later in the day the American procured a revolver, shot his assailant in the right leg and took refuge in the general store at Melrose.
Learning of the shooting, 100 angry aliens charged the store with clubs, rocks and other weapons. Their purpose was to kill the American assailant of their fellow-countryman, but he escaped.

Yesterday morning twenty-three of the Italians were informed that they were wanted in Huntingdon, the county seat, as witnesses in the shooting case, and when they arrived at the court house here, Sheriff H. E. Wilson had them all placed under arrest. Taken completely by surprise, all of the twenty-three submitted to arrest without violence. They were held under $300 bail each for appearance in court. Other arrests will follow.

RETURNS AT ORPHEUM

Governor Tener and Candidate McCormick Invited to Occupy Boxes

Wilmer & Vincent have issued invitations to Vance C. McCormick, candidate for Governor, and also to Governor Tener to occupy boxes at the Orpheum next Tuesday evening at both performances, when complete election returns from all over the State and nation will be received and read to the audience.

Following the custom long ago established, the Orpheum will run a second show election night beginning at 11 o'clock, and before this performance is over it is quite probable that the results in all contests will be known. Hundreds of people always accept this opportunity to enjoy some good entertainment while following the results of election, many of them purchasing the same seats for both performances so that they will get the returns from start to finish.

A Puritan Jury

That the Puritan fashion of nomenclature produced some very odd results is very generally known. The London "Chronicle" recalls that James Brome, in his "Travels Over England, Scotland and Wales," published in 1700, gives a copy of a "Jury Return, Made at Rye, Sussex, in the Late Rebellious Troublesome Times."
The names of the twelve good men and true were: Meek Brewer, Graceful Harding, Killin Pimple, Earth Adams, Weepnot Billing, More Fruit Fowler, Hope-for Bending, Return Spelman, Fly Debate Roberts, Stand Fast on High Stringer, Be Faithful Joiner and Fight the Good Fight of Faith White.
