

ONE PLACE AND THAT'S HERE

A good merchant must keep his ear to the ground. We do. That is why we arranged for the exclusive sale of STYLE-PLUS CLOTHES $17 in Harrisburg.

This is the story in a nut shell. By concentrating the force of their great factory upon the makers have been able to put in better fabrics and to turn out better workmanship. Moreover they have been able to add the skill of a great fashion artist so that any man can wear this special suit at medium price knowing that he is well and correctly dressed.

STYLEPLUS CLOTHES $17

A big assortment of styles. We can fit you mentally as well as physically. We have enough fabrics and the models to fit your vocation as well as your body.

Come in and see STYLEPLUS quality at $17 as nationally advertised. You are sure to save money.

resigned his position there and returned to town. Miss Rose Bowers, of Harrisburg, spent last evening in town.

HUMMELSTOWN

Class of Nine Candidates Initiated by Modern Woodmen Camp

Special Correspondence
Hummelstown, Nov. 6.—At the regular meeting of Camp No. 10714, Modern Woodmen of America, last evening a class of nine candidates was initiated. The initiatory work was performed by the degree team of the local camp and was witnessed by a large number of members. Following the regular meeting refreshments were served and an address made by State Deputy M. H. Wyckoff, of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Emma Brinser visited her daughter, Mrs. Guy Krause, at Harrisburg yesterday.

Paul Schaffner, a student at the Lancaster Theological Seminary, and Herbert Schaffner, of Franklin and Marshall College, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schaffner, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burchfield announce the birth of a son, Mrs. Burchfield before her marriage was Miss Edna Shope.

Mrs. Harry Seibert visited her daughter, Mrs. Charles Leiby, at Harrisburg yesterday.

Mrs. Clara Wikel, of York, is spending several days with Mrs. Effa Manbeck.

Mrs. Mary Nitz has returned to her home in Harrisburg after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Miller.

Edward Hoffman, of Lebanon, was a visitor in town yesterday.

Mrs. Harry Snyder and daughter, Dorothy, spent yesterday in Harrisburg.

Harry Spidel, of Steelton, spent Wednesday in town.

Mrs. Joseph Rhoads, of Harrisburg, visited her sister, Mrs. C. H. Miller, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ricker, West High street, announce the birth of a daughter, Mrs. Ricker before her marriage was Miss Jennie Clay, of Langelstown.

Miss Naomi Krause, of Harrisburg, is spending several days at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Brinser.

Harry Light, of Harrisburg, spent yesterday in town.

Miss Marjorie Nissley was a visitor in Harrisburg yesterday.

Mrs. Harry Horst spent yesterday in Harrisburg.

LOYSVILLE

Harvey Morrow, Who Was in the West, Returned Home

Special Correspondence

Loysville, Nov. 6.—Members of the Lutheran church of this place, sold the old parsonage and are going to erect a new parsonage closer to the church than the old parsonage was.

G. B. Heim, a student of the seminary at Gettysburg, was home over election day.

William Gutshall and wife, who reside in Harrisburg, are spending some time with Mrs. Gutshall's mother, Mrs. C. Kiner.

The Rev. W. D. E. Scott and sons have purchased a new large auto. This is the second auto that they now own. C. C. Nickel is getting ready to plant 3,200 trees this fall. He already has a number of men employed for getting the trees ready.

Harvey Morrow, who was in Oklahoma, and several western States from June 1 until Saturday, returned home.

Mrs. Samuel Scott is spending some time in New York.

C. E. Kell and wife were visiting Mrs. Kell's aged father, who has his leg broke.

NEW CUMBERLAND

A Number of People From Here Are Attending the Stough Meetings

Special Correspondence

New Cumberland, Nov. 6.—Cottage prayer meetings will be held this evening at the homes of Samuel Budget, E. C. Oren, H. F. Kohr and John Rosenberger by members of Baughman Memorial M. E. church. The leaders will be J. J. Sprinkel, Frank Seitz, E. H. Fisher and H. E. Kohr.

The brick work of the Church of God will be completed this week and plasterers will begin work in a few days.

The senior class of the New Cumberland High school held its regular meeting last evening.

Quite a number from this place are attending the Stough meetings. M. A. Hoff is one of the ushers.

The junior class of the High school has purchased class pins and rings from Baster Bro. & Co. of Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reppman, Church avenue, announce the birth of a son.

J. A. Sprinkel spent several days in Shippensburg this week.

Lucinda Fager has returned from a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Ashenfelter, of near Lewisberry.

Mrs. Edith Feigt entertained the club of which she is a member at her home on Market square yesterday afternoon.

THE DAILY FASHION HINT.

One of the new bell shaped dresses. It has a short basque waist of taupe colored faille silk and a wine colored faille silk skirt.

BREAKS A COLD IN A FEW HOURS WITHOUT QUININE

First Dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" Relieves All Grippe Misery

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffing! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages, stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes good, and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.

Land: The convention voted for its adoption. The special study and work of the Home Missionary Society this year "The Indian." Mrs. Herman Miller than gave "Gleanings from the Synodical Meeting" which were much appreciated. Reports of committees were then heard and adopted. Memorial services were held for Miss Anna H. Matthews, a vice president of the society who died at her home in Lebanon August 30, 1914. Tributes to her memory were paid by Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Hinton and the convention united in singing the hymn "To All the Saints Who From Their Labors Rest." Miss Petrie told of Old Dwight, the first Mission School among the Indians. It was totally destroyed by fire and efforts are being made to rebuild it. A report of the Bailey Memorial Fund for Wausatch Academy showed cash church contributions, the total amount being $2,688.29. The Market Square church in Harrisburg claiming the privilege of contributing half as Mrs. Bailey had been one of their number, their contribution was $1,295. The election of officers for the Society resulted in the election of the old officers with two exceptions. They are president, Mrs. Joshua Sharp, of Chambersburg; vice presidents, Mrs. Thomas L. Wallace, Mrs. E. E. Curtis, Mrs. T. M. Nelson, Mrs. George H. Stewart, Mrs. Walter Scott, Miss Mary Sloan, Miss Ellen Kerr, Mrs. Hinton, the last named succeeding Mrs. Matthews, deceased; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Sheffer; recording secretary, Miss Fleming; succeeding Miss Conroy, resigned; freedmen, Mrs. Seibert; literature, Miss Kelly; Young People, Miss Riddle; Presbyterial treasurer, Mrs. H. B. Johnson; Synodical committee, Mrs. Norcross, Mrs. Mitchell.

The convention received an invitation to hold its meeting next year at Mercersburg and the invitation was accepted. The convention closed with prayer and benediction by the Rev. George Fulton.

A fire at Dillsburg yesterday called our fire department to aid. The Citizens' chemical engine was taken with several members of that company and two members of the Washington company were taken on Gelwick auto truck and they made the distance in a very short time, the home company with the aid of bucket brigade had succeeded in extinguishing the fire.

Mountain fires are still burning and smoke is still perceptible here, and at night the sky, even in the moonlight, shows very red.

The executive committee of the Miller evangelistic meetings held a meeting last evening in the office of A. B. Harnish. Plans for the meeting were discussed.

The evangelistic services in the Methodist church were last evening in charge of the Rev. J. R. Shipe, who preached the sermon of the evening from the text Gen. 3:9 "Where Art Thou?" The Rev. N. W. Kiraecoff assisted in the services. There was one conversion. The services of the evening closed with testimonies.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Neiffer and Mr. and Mrs. Ellenberger, of Harrisburg, were automobile visitors here yesterday.

Mrs. Jennie Anderson, of Harrisburg, is visiting her nieces, Mrs. J. R. Prowell and the Misses Parker.

Mrs. Harriet L. Brandt, of Harrisburg, was a visitor here yesterday.

Mrs. S. P. Segebaum, of Harrisburg, visited friends here, her former home, this week, and attended the Missionary convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown have returned from a visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. S. E. Baschore, Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., Miss Mary Clark and Miss Catherine Keefer represented the Woman's Club, of this place, in the convention of the Cumberland Valley League of Civic Clubs, held in Newville today.

A Few Best Sellers

The principal character in the following dialogue was not engaged in flirtation, but merely requisitioning a few novels:

Young Lady (reading from list)—"Engaged to Be Married?"

Librarian (referring to shelf)—No, madam.

Lady—"Thou Art the Man!"

Librarian—Yes, madam.

Lady—"Thank you, 'Two Kisses'!"

Librarian—"Out, Indian!"

Lady—"After Dark?"

Librarian—Yes, madam.

Lady—"Thanks. 'Love Me Forever'!"

Librarian—"Wooded and Married!"

Lady—"No, thank you. 'Under Love's Rule'!"

Librarian—"No, madam."

Lady—"Goodby, Sweetheart!"

Thank you very much.—Books of Today and To-morrow.

That Made Him Tired

Bobbie—Don't you feel tired, Mr. Bibbie? Guest—No, Bobbie. Why do you ask? Bobbie—"Cause pa said he met you last night and you were carrying an awful load.—Boston Transcript.

"Will nothing move you?" he asked anxiously.

"Yes," she replied, "I've got a truckman from downtown to do the job for $6 a load."—Philadelphia Ledger.

SUBURBAN

BLAIN

The Supper Given by the Reformed Church Was Quite a Success

Special Correspondence

Blain, Nov. 6.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union of this place held a meeting Sunday in the Lutheran church. The large crowd filled both the main auditorium and the Sunday school room.

A few snowflakes were in the air Wednesday.

Miss Grace Moyer, of Center, was entertained Sunday by Miss Josephine Sheaffer, of this place.

Clark Kiner and Miss Charlotte Waldsmith, of this place, went to Hagerstown, Md., Saturday and were married.

The supper held on Saturday by the Reformed church was a success. There was over $50 cleared.

Miss Goldie Dimm, of this place, returned home on Saturday.

Gordon Minich, of Loysville, spent the week-end with friends here and attended the W. C. T. U. meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stine, of Brierley, attended the W. C. T. U. meeting and visited friends in this place.

DAUPHIN

Items of Interest About People Who Come and Go

Special Correspondence

Dauphin, Nov. 6.—Charles and William Lyter returned Wednesday from a hunting trip to Perry county, having bagged thirty rabbits.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. W. B. Sheetz yesterday afternoon. After the regular business was transacted dinner was served.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gerberich returned on Tuesday from a visit to Hanover.

Mrs. John Pety and son, John, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fite.

H. C. Forney and family are spending the winter in Harrisburg.

Charles Baileys, of Halifax, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. J. E. Williams and daughter, Mae, spent Sunday at Camp Hill.

Clenton Bickel, of Philadelphia, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mariani Bickel, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Greenawald and son, Stanley, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Greenawald, returned to Roselle, N. J., on Wednesday.

Reginald Fernaud, of New York, spent several days in town.

HALIFAX

Junior Christian Endeavor Society Will Hold a Meeting Saturday

Special Correspondence

Halifax, Nov. 6.—H. N. Peck, of near Dauphin, was in town on business Wednesday.

A special meeting of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society will be held in the United Brethren church to-morrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. An interesting feature of the service will be a message by Mrs. C. A. Pike on the work of Miss Mellie Perkins, a missionary at Velardi, New Mexico. A special offering will be lifted.

Harry Lutz moved his family to Elizabethtown on Thursday, where he will be employed in a shoe factory.

The general committee making arrangements for the dedication of the new Boyer Memorial school building met on Wednesday evening and furthered the arrangements for the exercises of the day. Mrs. Eliza Loomis was appointed chairman of a committee to look after the purchasing of a piano.

and John H. Klingman, Prof. S. C. Beitzel and H. Stewart Potter were appointed as a committee to arrange the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller and children, Misses Lillie and Florence Miller, and Harvey G. Jury attended to Loyaltan and visited the former's aunt, Mrs. John Barry.

HERSHEY

The Rev. I. M. Hershey Accepts Charge of Shamokin U. B. Church

Special Correspondence

Hershey, Nov. 6.—The Rev. I. M. Hershey, the librarian at this place, has been appointed as pastor of the Shamokin United Brethren church to take the place of the late Rev. A. S. Beckley, who died several weeks ago.

He will move with his family to that place in a few weeks. The Rev. Mr. Hershey has been a resident of this place for several years and his many friends regret to see him leave.

Sixteen carloads of cocoa beans were received at this place last week.

The Rally Day services in the United Brethren church on Sunday forenoon were a success. Addresses were delivered by a number of the former superintendents of the Sunday school and the total attendance was 370.

Mrs. O. G. Romig and daughter, Florence, transacted business at Harrisburg on Saturday.

Miss Evelyn Bowman, of Roversford, was the guest of C. S. Maulfair and family on Thursday, October 29.

Mrs. George S. Rentz and children have returned from Hunter's Run, Cumberland county, where they spent the summer.

J. B. Sneath is on a four days' motor trip through the coal regions. He accompanies George Dillinger, of Lemoyne, N. Y.

Mrs. Morris Wenger was a visitor to Anville on Saturday.

NEW BLOOMFIELD

Prof. L. E. McGinnis Lectured in Presbyterian Church

Special Correspondence

New Bloomfield, Nov. 6.—Professor L. E. McGinnis lectured in the Presbyterian church of this place, last evening at 7:15, on the subject, "The Tragedy of an Unused Life."

James R. Magee, an attorney-at-law of New York, was a visitor in town on Tuesday. He voted here.

A. P. Nickel and wife, of this place, returned home from Chicago Monday.

Benjamin Clark, of Trenton, N. J., spent the week-end in this place.

Miss Gertrude M. Spangler, of Center Hall, a parishioner of the Rev. G. W. and Mrs. McInay, several years ago, spent the week-end visiting them at their home in this place.

Miss Mabel McKeehan returned to Philadelphia, Saturday after spending the summer at her home in this place, and also visiting Miss Grace McKeehan, who is teaching school at Skillman, N. Y.

Miss Corinne Askins returned to her home in this place after visiting her sister, Miss Laverina Askins, who is teaching school in Yardville, N. J.

David Holmes, wife and daughter, of Carlisle, spent the beginning of this week with relatives in this place.

MILLERSTOWN

Mrs. W. D. Bollinger Has Returned From Trip to Washington

Special Correspondence

Millerstown, Nov. 6.—Miss Ruth Ritzman spent several days in Thompson.

Mrs. P. R. Shenk spent several days in Baltimore with her son, Robert, who is improving after an operation he underwent at a hospital in that city.

A. H. Uish and J. E. Rounsley were in Harrisburg on Tuesday.

George Heisey has moved into Mrs. Mary Pellow's house on East Main street.

Miss Lillie Nankiville, a teacher in the Steelton schools, spent Sunday at her home in this town.

Mrs. W. D. Bollinger has returned home from a visit to Washington.

LINGLESTOWN

School Board of Lower Paxton Township Meets at Paxtonia

Special Correspondence

Linglestown, Nov. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. David Shadle spent Monday with friends at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Elizabeth Balthaser, Mrs. Emory Hassler and Mrs. C. B. Care on Tuesday afternoon attended the funeral of their relative John McCormick, who was killed by an automobile at Harrisburg on Saturday.

Elmer Hassler, of Washington, D. C., spent Monday as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hassler.

Miss Sallie Zimmerman and Mrs. Alice Rabuck spent Monday with friends at Harrisburg.

The school board of Lower Paxton met at Paxtonia on Monday evening to grant orders for the teachers' pay for the second month of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ricker, of Hummelstown, announce the birth of a daughter, Mrs. Ricker was Miss Jennie Clay, formerly of this town.

A number of friends and relatives attended the funeral of Mrs. Halia held at Shoop's church on Monday.

Samuel Balthaser, of Jersey City, spent Tuesday with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Balthaser.

George Lingle, of Lebanon, on Wednesday was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Lingle.

Mrs. H. D. Koons and son, Harry, spent Wednesday with friends at Shippenburg.

Miss Anna Mehning, of Harrisburg, and Miss Beas Early, of Hainton, on Tuesday visited friends here.

Harry Lewis, of Ephrata, is spending a few days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles George.

Miss Lillian Hain and nephew, John Hain, 2d, of Hainton, on Wednesday visited friends here.

Mrs. Annie Smith spent Tuesday and Wednesday with friends at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Charles Koons and son, Charles Koons, on Tuesday attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Babble, held at Mount Holly.

Mrs. Joseph Snyder spent a few days with friends at Harrisburg.

MIDDLETOWN

The Funeral of Jacob Drayer Will Take Place Sunday Morning

Special Correspondence

Middletown, Nov. 6.—Jacob Drayer, who formerly resided in town, but moved to Collins Station about 2 1/2 years ago, died at his home there on Thursday morning from a complication of diseases, aged 59 years. He had only been ill for about three weeks.

The deceased was well known in town, having resided on South Wood street. Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons, Herbert, of town, and Killian and Howard, residing at home; also his mother and one sister, who reside at Greencastle, Pa. The funeral will be held from his late home on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock and at 11 a. m. in the Church of God. The Rev. H. P. Hoover will officiate. Interment will be made in the Middletown cemetery.

The remains of Paul, the 3-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Irely, who died at the parents' home on Tuesday afternoon from pneumonia, were laid to rest in the Middletown cemetery. Services were conducted at the home on Lawrence street this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. H. F. Hoover, pastor of the Church of God, officiated.

Miss Estella Heistand, who had been visiting relatives in town for some time, returned to her home in New York on Thursday.

Mrs. Harry Rudy and son, of Litzitz, are spending several days in town as the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Myers, Pine street.

Mrs. Kate Weaver, of Lancaster, is spending a few days in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Weaver, North Union street.

T. C. Smith, Spring street, has installed a large gasoline tank in his yard, holding nearly 600 gallons, and from the tank he will run a line of pipe to the curb, which will work automatically, the same to be used by persons running automobiles, and will be quite a convenience to many.

Harry Kreiser, who is employed at the Winderoff stove works, met with a painful accident yesterday while at his work by having two of his fingers broken by being caught in a wheel and also had a hole cut in his hand. He went to a physician, who dressed the wounds.

Richard Hipple transacted business at Harrisburg yesterday.

Mrs. Boyd Bishop and son will leave on Saturday for Dillsburg, York county, where they will visit relatives for several days.

Miss Florence Beard entertained the D. P. Club at her home on East Main street last evening. Refreshments were served.

The Liberty band have changed their meeting night for practice from Thursday evening to Tuesday evening, as several members play in the orchestra at the Luna rink on Thursday evenings.

The Sunday school class of St. Peter's Lutheran Sunday school taught by A. S. Quickel held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Clayton Hoffman on Water street last evening. After the business was transacted a social hour was spent. Refreshments were served.

Miss Rachel Poist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Poist, will enter the German hospital at Philadelphia, where she will take up the work of a trained nurse.

Jacob Embick, Jr., has resigned as bartender for Wesley McCreary, of the Keystone hotel.

Charles Hickenell, who had been working at Hershey, Pa., as carpenter,

Rub, Tear, Scratch, No More!

Zemo Gives Immediate Relief From Itching and Burning—Drives Away Eczema Quickly

Get a Free Trial Bottle and Prove It

If you want to put a quick stop to the torture of eczema or other skin trouble, and want to rid yourself of the affliction forever, you can't begin using Zemo too soon. This clean, antiseptic, non-greasy liquid does the business, and does it in a jiffy, as you will admit when you have tested it.

Prove Zemo! Try a 25c bottle from your druggist today, or send your address and 4c (for actual postage) to E. W. Rose Co., Laboratories, Dept. 37, St. Louis, Mo., for a free trial bottle.

Send no money, but do send your name (in plain wrapper) that will convince you in short order. Send now!

Zemo is sold and guaranteed by druggists everywhere, and in Harrisburg by Golden Seal Drug Store, E. Z. Gross, Kennedy's Medicine Store, Croll Keller, W. T. Thompson, C. M. Forney, and Charles Hickenell, Pa. J. Nelson Clark Drug Co.

JOHN DREW, HERE NEXT TUESDAY, IS A REAL COUNTRY GENTLEMAN