GIVE MONEY TO CHURCHES

Gettysburg Woman Leaves $800 to Catholic and Lutheran Gettysburg, Nov. 12.—Both Catholic and Lutheran churches benefit by the will of Mrs. Sallie A. Johns, widow of Louis B. Johns, late of Conowingo township, which has been entered for probate in the office of Register and Recorder Gardner.

Included in the bequest were: $500 to St. Vincent's Catholic church, Midway, and $100 additional for masses; $400 to St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Hanover; $100 to Mt. Olivet cemetery association in trust for keeping up of the burial plot. Mrs. Johns was a member of St. Vincent's church and her husband a member of St. Matthew's church. The remainder of the estate to be divided in equal shares among eleven nieces and nephews.

Four Deer Shot Carlisle, Nov. 12.—The members of the deer party composing the Eichelberger Camp, who are located along the Bendersville Road, near Pine Grove, and who shot a monster specimen Tuesday, brought down another deer yesterday. Their average stands two deer in two days.

C. E. Miller and W. E. Worthington, two residents of this place, are also among the fortunate who have a deer to their credit, for Tuesday at Pine Grove, which seems to be the center of the "battle grounds," these men shot an eight-prong buck weighing 180 pounds.

As he was driving along the road from Biglerville to Pine Grove to join a party of hunters, Arthur Taylor, a young lad of Biglerville, observed a monster specimen of the fleet-footed animal and brought the deer to the ground. This specimen had ten prongs.

Cattle Have Disease Gettysburg, Nov. 12.—The hoof and mouth disease has made its appearance in Adams county. Dr. G. M. Graybill, a State inspector, has announced that he found two herds in the vicinity of New Oxford, which had the disease and were condemned.

One of the farms on which the disease was found is that of George Cromer, between New Oxford and Gettysburg. The other is the Fleming farm, about a mile and a half from New Oxford. This farm is tenanted by Theophilus Bieuvener.

There are nineteen head of cattle on the Cromer place, thirteen of which belonged to Mr. Cromer while the other six he was feeding for Charles Diehl. The farm occupied by Mr. Bieuvener is a rather small one and his herd of cattle is not extensive.

Two additional herds of cattle suffering from hoof and mouth disease were discovered Tuesday in this section, both not far from Abbottstown but on the York county side of this line.

Dog Bit Child, Killed Chambersburg, Nov. 12.—A dog, owned by Albert Thornton, an employe of Vanderau's restaurant, was shot yesterday afternoon on West King street after the animal had attacked a lap dog.

ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. Adlerika cannot gripe and the INSTANT action is surprising. G. A. Little Girl Shot by Brother Waynesboro, Nov. 12.—Bedelia, the 8-year-old daughter of J. M. Robertson, Mont Alto, was painfully hurt and narrowly escaped fatal injury, Tuesday evening, when a ball from a Flobert rifle, fired by one of her younger brothers, penetrated her right thigh. Entering the upper fore part of the thigh the ball pushed its way almost through and was afterward cut out by Dr. W. H. Brosius from the back part of the thigh. The child is out of danger and does not suffer much from the accident.

BOMB WRECKS COURT HOUSE

Bronx Buildings Are Damaged for Blocks Around; White Slaver Was Just Convicted New York, Nov. 12.—A bomb was exploded late last night in the entrance to the county Court House in The Bronx, at Third and Brook avenues. It tore the massive bronze doors from their hinges, shattered the columns on either side, and damaged other buildings within a radius of a dozen blocks. The force of the concussion threw many persons out of their beds.

County Judge Louis D. Gibbs, who has recently sentenced white slavers, was holding the trial of Harry Goldberg for forgery. Goldberg has just been found guilty, and the court room was being cleared when the crash came. The building was shaken as if by an earthquake. The glass in the grated doors was blown out and the corridor leading from the outer to the inner doors was filled with debris. The two big outer doors were wrecked and the three foot granite pillars flanking the entrance listed as if to topple over any moment. The bomb had been placed at the base of one of these pillars.

Marshal John Hoehling had just lodged a prisoner in the county jail in the Court House building, and was on his way back to his office in Brook avenue, directly opposite the entrance to the Court House, when the explosion occurred. Every window in the five story building was shattered.

The Morrisania police station is one block away. Rescued sleeping there were thrown from their beds and windows were smashed. Men and women rushed into the streets, some carrying children in their arms.

All about the entrance to the Court House were found big slugs of lead. These were gathered up and preserved by the police.

Judge Gibbs said he believed the outrage had been perpetrated by friends of the white slavers who have been sent to jail by him during the last six months. A crusade against the white slave traffic has been particularly fruitful under the direction of District Attorney Martin and Judge Gibbs has presided at the trials and imposed sentences.

Aged Retired Farmer Dies East Lampeter, Nov. 12.—Benjamin R. Stauffer, 88 years old, died yesterday from infirmities of age. He was a retired farmer and gardener, and was born on the farm where he died. The farm was handed down to him from his grandfather, who emigrated to this country in 1749, and took up a grant of 600 acres, buying it from William Penn. The original deed is still in the family. Deceased was one of the organizers of the Eastern Market Association. A widow and several children survive.

Women physicians are not a modern innovation. There were plenty of them among the ancient Greeks, some of them being famous.
