

Globe-Wernicke Sectional Bookcases

For Christmas, give a few Globe-Wernicke sections or many. The cost is small in comparison to the satisfactory and enduring nature of such a gift.

We carry Globe-Wernicke Sectional Bookcases in a wide range of handsome period styles, finishes and sizes and insures a ready choice. Let us help you solve your Christmas problem.

D. W. Cotterel

Book Seller, Stationer, Office Furniture and Supplies 105 N. Second St. Telephone: Bell 2126, United 271

REVIEW OF 1914 BY PROF. WERT

Last Installment of Interesting Events of the Year in Harrisburg

BY PROFESSOR J. HOWARD WERT

Continued From Yesterday

OCTOBER

- 1-Death of Mrs. Margaret E. Boughman, 1923 Derry street, Harrisburg, aged 80 years.
2-Field Day of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, division No. 10, comprising Lebanon, Harrisburg and Carlisle, held at Island Park, Harrisburg.
2-Death in New Cumberland, of Charles A. Burns, for many years a business man of Harrisburg.
3-John Brightbill, a milkman living near Lingiestown, instantly killed by a train on the Northern Central at Dauphin.
3-Sudden death of Mrs. Mary L. Wilson, 417 State street, Harrisburg.
4-Destruction by fire of large barn on the farm of Dedecker Young, near Middletown.
4-Colored Knights of Pythias, of Harrisburg, Scranton and Johnstown, to the number of several hundred, held special services at Bethel A. M. E. church, Harrisburg.
6-The opening, in Harrisburg, of annual session State Firemen's Association and of the Ladies' Auxiliary, the city being elaborately decorated for the event.
6-Death of Jefferson Payne, 545 South Front street, Harrisburg, aged 70 years, for many years employed in the iron and steel industries of South Harrisburg.
6-A destructive fire in Lemoyne, originating from a gasoline explosion, inflicted a damage of $35,000.
6-Formal opening Harrisburg extension University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Finance and Economy with approximately 200 students.
7-Death of Mrs. Anna C., widow of Christian E. Jauss, 1113 North Sixth street, Harrisburg, aged 85 years.
8-The parade of State Firemen, with 12,000 uniformed men in line, was not only the greatest parade ever held in connection with the meeting of the State Association, but also the most extensive parade of any character ever witnessed in the Capital city. About 150 fire companies were represented, accompanied by more than 120 bands and drum corps. Marching over a route of almost eight miles, it occupied nearly three and a half hours in passing a given point, so, although the head of the procession moved soon after 1:30 o'clock, the last divisions were not able to start until almost 5 o'clock. In addition to regular trains some forty special trains brought the fire companies and other visitors to Harrisburg, it being estimated that the number of persons in the city, inclusive of its own citizenship, approximated 200,000. It was a subject of special note that neither in the parade, the masses of the people on the streets, nor in the immense crowds transported by steam and electric roads, was there a serious accident to mar the perfect success of the display.
8-Death of Mrs. Louisa Keys, 434 Kelker street, Harrisburg, aged 76 years.
9-Death, at Bellefonte, of Samuel H. Orwig, for many years an attorney at the Dauphin county bar.
11-Mrs. Uriah Shuman killed in an automobile accident, near Newport, whilst coming to Harrisburg to hear the candidates who were to speak the next day at Fifth Street M. E. church.
12-Burial, in Mt. Calvary cemetery, of Lawrence A. Hepsmith, United States Army, who had died at Vera Cruz, Mexico, September 6.
12-Generational candidates Brumbaugh and McCormick and Senatorial candidate Pinchot delivered sermons or addresses on moral issues, at different hours during the day, in Fifth Street M. E. church, Harrisburg.
12-Five prominent persons of York seriously injured in an automobile accident near Middletown.
12-Death of James P. Rines, 255 Cumberland street, Harrisburg.
12-Four houses on Mohr street, Steelton, destroyed by fire, Henry Arndt, an aged man, being burned to death in one of them.
13-Interesting and extensive pure food exhibit opened in Chestnut street auditorium, Harrisburg.
13-Dedication, at Hershey, of the very fine school building erected by "chocolate king" M. S. Hershey, and by him presented to the school authorities of the district. It started its educational career with an enrollment of 550 pupils.
14-Officials of Toronto, Canada, visited Harrisburg.
15-Death of engineer J. Albert Reinhard, 214 Cumberland street, Harrisburg.
15-Death of Joseph L. Nissley, a pioneer business man of Middletown, aged 86 years.
16-Charles A. Wilhelm, of Harrisburg, specially honored at a banquet given him in commemoration of his having completed half a century of Odd Fellowship.
17-P. R. R. fireman John H. Sites, 1007 Capital street, Harrisburg, committed suicide in Riverside Park.
17-Tabernacle, 240x172 feet, and capable of seating almost 10,000 people, for the use of Evangelist Stough, begun in a vacant square of the old Eighth ward, Harrisburg, several hundred volunteers working on it. It had been intended to complete it in a single day, but this was not entirely accomplished.
18-Cornerstone of new A. M. E. Zion church, Forster and Ash streets, Harrisburg, laid with Masonic ceremonies.
21-"Edison Day" celebrated in vari-

- ous ways in Harrisburg, in honor of the great electrical genius and inventor, Thomas A. Edison.
21-Annual State convention of colored Baptists began its sessions in Harrisburg.
21-Death of George J. Wise, 1049 Herr street, Harrisburg, for 34 years an employee of the P. R. R.
22-Death in Philadelphia of Edwin S. Letford, for many years a prominent musician in Harrisburg.
22-The handsome and finely-equipped $200,000 home of the Y. W. C. A., at Fourth and Walnut streets, Harrisburg, thrown open for public inspection.
23-Death of Mrs. Sarah Jauss, of Harrisburg, widow of David F. Jauss, aged 83 years.
23-Death of Charles K. Dare, a wallpaper dealer, 1217 Penn street, Harrisburg.
25-Death of Lewis A. Egolf, of Harrisburg, prominent in the West End Gun Club.
26-Death of Mrs. Mary E. Winters, widow of George Winters, 109 South Second street, Harrisburg, in the same house in which she had lived more than half a century.
27-Funeral of J. Edward Durham, of Locknow, murdered at Meridian, Miss., a few days before, whilst traveling with a carnival company.
27-Death of Brakeman Raymond Glick, of Steelton, from tetanus induced by an accident a week before whilst on duty in the Pennsylvania Steel Company's yards.
28-Death of John H. Bowers, of Somersdale, a veteran of the Civil war.
29-Colonel Roosevelt flying in Harrisburg during a spiking political tour of the State.
29-Death of Mrs. Elizabeth B. Hain, of Hainton, aged 82 years.
29-Death of James Weltner, 436 South Cameron street, Harrisburg, for many years a prominent brick-maker of the city, aged 77 years.
30-Large firemen's parade in Steelton in honor of their fire chief, John E. Shupp, being elected to a vice presidency in the State association.
31-End of a week's campaign to secure new members to the Harrisburg Y. W. C. A., resulting in the addition of about 1,700 names.
31-Five-year-old John McCormick, 334 Harris street, Harrisburg, killed on street near his home by an automobile.
31-Death of Philip W. Boyer, a West Fairview contractor and builder.
31-Death at York of William H. T. Snyder, at one time a prominent Harrisburg newspaper worker.

NOVEMBER

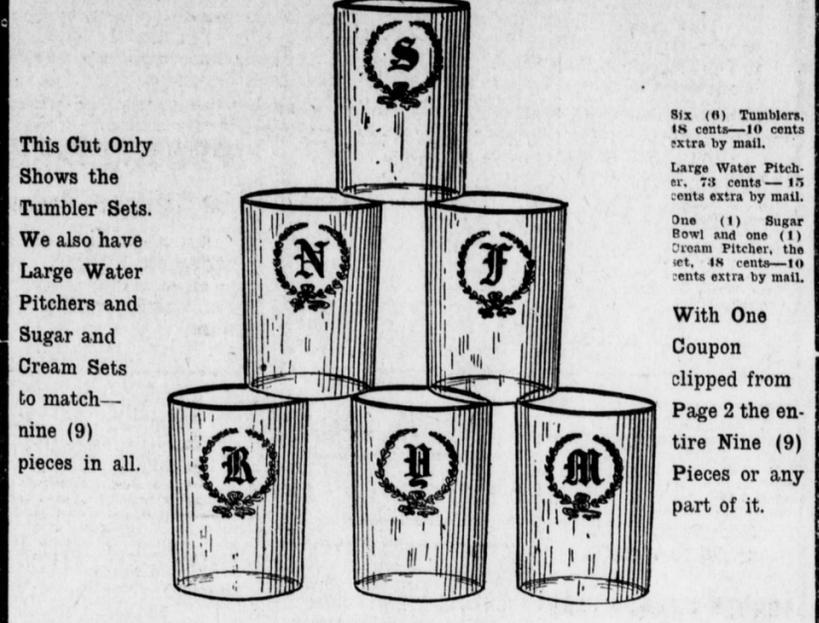

- 1-Beginning of Stough evangelistic campaign in Harrisburg, 17,500 attending the three services of the day in the tabernacle specially erected for the occasion.
1-Death of Mrs. Mary C. Greenbaum, 1728 North Sixth street, Harrisburg, a prominent worker in the Fifth Street M. E. church.
2-Death of Mrs. Leah Donner, widow of Frederick Donner, 922 North Sixth street, Harrisburg.
3-Annual fall Scottish Rite reunion opened in the Cathedral, Harrisburg.
3-State election results in sweeping Republican success.
4-Death of George V. Corl, 11 Evergreen street, Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war and a former fire chief of the city, prominent in the Odd Fellowship of the State.
4-Death of Mrs. Sarah Hoffman, 1742 North Third street, Harrisburg, aged 87 years.
4-Unknown man found dying in Enola yards from injuries received from a locomotive.
5-Thousands of men fighting desistrically for acres in the vicinity of Shippensburg, Doubling Gap Springs, Dillsburg, Lykens, Summerville, Enola and other points in Dauphin, Cumberland and York counties.
5-Death in Washington, D. C., of Henry Gannett, formerly of Harrisburg, a prominent geographer for the U. S. government.
6-Death of Samuel Giles, of Highspire, a veteran of the Civil war, from complications caused by a bullet received at Antietam, which he had carried in his leg for more than half a century.
7-John J. Hughes, of Steelton, found dead in one of the buildings of the Pennsylvania Steel Company plant.
8-Death of Mrs. Susannah Herr Wiestling, widow of Dr. Jacob G. Wiestling, Harrisburg.
8-Death of 8-year-old Ralph O. Witmer, 905 South Twentieth-and-a-half street, Harrisburg, from injuries received in an automobile collision two days before.
8-Edward H. Schull, of Steelton, found drowned in the Susquehanna.
9-Opening of annual Dauphin county teachers' institute in hall of the House of Representatives, Capitol.
9-Harry M. Holstein, 126 Verbeke street, Harrisburg, State secretary of the O. U. M. and for more than thirty years a prominent blacksmith of our city, found dead in bed.
9-Death of John Hull, 1906 Penn street, Harrisburg, a P. R. R. car repairer.
9-Sudden death of Adam Hartz, 1417 Weyth street, Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war.
10-The burning of the barn of Frank Armstrong, Swatara township, involving a loss of $9,000 on building and contents.
10-Death of Edward L. Groff, 202 Reilly street, Harrisburg, Assistant State Senate Librarian.
10-Some 4,000 young people of Harrisburg paraded from Market Square Presbyterian church, Harrisburg, to Stough meeting in the tabernacle.
10-State Live Stock Sanitary Board, meeting at Harrisburg, placed entire State under quarantine in regard to cattle on account of the spread of the foot and mouth disease.
10-August Cretenoud, residing near Hummelstown, died at Harrisburg hospital from a gunshot wound received that day in a hunting accident.
11-Funeral of Charles E. Jamison, 614 Verbeke street, Harrisburg, hotel keeper at Saberton, where he was found dead, four days before, having been murdered, presumably.
11-Death of Mrs. Sarah C. Shaeffer, widow of Samuel Shaeffer, 1113 Capital street, Harrisburg.
12-Mrs. Mary Dierck, 529 1/2 MacLay street, Harrisburg, died from the effects of poison accidentally taken some days before.
12-Mr. and Mrs. John Sheats, Camp

- Hill, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary.
12-Death of Mrs. A. S. Payne, 1709 Market street, Harrisburg.
13-Death at Dauphin county almshouse, at the age of 85 years, of Jacob Lenker, once a prominent man of affairs in the upper end of Dauphin county.
14-Death of Abraham R. Hess, a prominent Steelton grocer, aged 89 years.
14-Annual Bucknell-Gettysburg football game played on Island Park, Harrisburg, Bucknell winning, 25 to 0.
15-Death of John G. Willis, 15 North Eighteenth street, Harrisburg, superintendent for the Bell Bros. Manufacturing Company and a prominent fireman of the city.
17-Beginning, at the Capitol, of annual session of the Welfare and Efficiency Conference, accompanied by an interesting exhibit of safety machinery, at Chestnut street auditorium, which had opened on the 16th.
17-Death, in Philadelphia, of Charles A. Fahnstock, a native of Harrisburg.
17-Death of Thomas R. Dickert, 113 Market street, Harrisburg, a retired stonemason.
18-Death of Michael C. Bitner, 323 Granite street, Harrisburg, a machinist at the Locknow shops.
18-Conductor Charles P. Treadwell, 51 North Eighteenth street, Harrisburg, fell dead at his home after the excitement caused by a slight fire next door.
19-Twenty-seven head of live stock burned up in a fire of supposed incendiary origin which destroyed a large barn two miles from Carlisle.
19-Death of Mrs. Mary Bowers, of New Cumberland, less than a week after the death of her husband, Harry C. Bowers, leaving six doubly orphaned children.
21-A fire in rooms of the Masonic Temple, Third and State streets, Harrisburg, seriously menaced that fine building.
21-Final football game between Technical High school, of Harrisburg, and Steelton High school, won by the former by the remarkable score of 54 to 0.
24-Foreign Trade Conference held in Harrisburg with distinguished representatives present from many cities and towns of Pennsylvania.
24-Large barn on a farm near Camp Hill tenanted by P. A. Sowers destroyed by fire, with the loss of twenty-one head of livestock.
24-Death of George H. Conklin, Steelton, a veteran of the Civil war.
25-H. B. Stevens, a railway mail clerk, fell dead on a Harrisburg street.
25-Caroline Weaver committed suicide at Dauphin county almshouse.
26-Annual Thanksgiving football game on Island Park between Central and Technical High schools of Harrisburg, won by the latter, 19 to 12, before a crowd of fully 8,000 persons.
27-A six-year-old Steelton boy killed by a street car after jumping off a wagon.
28-Sudden death of Miss Elma McKee, a Colorado postmistress, whilst on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McKee, of Harrisburg.
28-Steward G. Forney, 434 Harris street, for the second time submitted to an operation by which he gave a large amount of his skin to save the life of a boy to whom he was a total stranger who had been terribly burned July 2.
28-Judge Sadler, at Carlisle, sentenced Max Morgantau, of Harrisburg, to the electric chair for the murder of John M. Rupp, of Cumberland county, May 21.
28-Death in New York City of Miss Blanche E. Butler, 1716 North Third street, Harrisburg, a former stenographer on Capitol Hill.
29-Sudden death of Mrs. Lizzie Drummond, 1316 North Fourth street, Harrisburg, as she was about to leave the Harrisburg Hospital.
29-Death of Mrs. Mary M., wife of George H. Wingard, 544 Woodbine street, Harrisburg.
29-Sudden death of Samuel Jones, 627 Mahanogon street, Harrisburg, a watchman at the "Telegraph" building.

DECEMBER

- 1-Death of Ira Buser, for many years a prominent business man of Highspire.
1-Death at the Harrisburg Hospital, of Frank Hodge, after leaping from one of the second story windows of the building the day before.
2-George Driedale, a Hummelstown stone cutter, killed by a fall at a Palmyra school house on which he was working.
3-Carter Hotchkiss, playing an engagement in a Harrisburg theatre, sank down on the street whilst hurrying to a train and died in a few minutes.
3-Death of John Crain Kunkel, 11 South Front street, Harrisburg, owner of valuable farms in Dauphin and Cumberland counties.
3-Twenty-one-month-old Kennet Patterson, 1923 State street, Harrisburg, died from the effects of eating pills which he found whilst at play.
4-Edward Getkin, 643 Harris street, Harrisburg, an employe P. R. R.,

Appropriate For Christmas Giving FANCY INITIAL GLASSWARE Almost Free to Star-Independent Readers

This Cut Only Shows the Tumbler Sets. We also have Large Water Pitchers and Sugar and Cream Sets to match— nine (9) pieces in all.

Six (6) Tumblers, 18 cents—10 cents extra by mail. Large Water Pitcher, 73 cents—15 cents extra by mail. One (1) Sugar Bowl and one (1) Cream Pitcher, the set, 48 cents—10 cents extra by mail.

With One Coupon clipped from Page 2 the entire Nine (9) Pieces or any part of it.

Women readers of THE STAR-INDEPENDENT will not need much in the way of persuasion to see the unusual value of this new offer. The tumblers are of the finest thin-blown glass, pitchers and sugar and cream sets look well on the table or in the china closet. Your own initial on each piece. Each set is put up in a heavy corrugated carton.

This Fancy Initial Glassware was never sold in the ordinary way at such a low price. You may now obtain a complete set or part of a set at a nominal cost by clipping the coupon which appears on page 2 in this issue and by presenting it and the advertised price at the office of killed in railroad accident at Paoli.

THE STAR-INDEPENDENT Sets now on display. You are invited to call and inspect them yourself.

4-Edward G. Smith, of Harrisburg, accused of the murder of his grandfather, John E. Bush, declared insane by a jury.
4-Death of Mrs. Katharine Grandon, aged 88 years, the oldest woman in Middletown.
6-Impressive memorial services for departed comrades held by the Harrisburg Lodge, B. P. O. E., in presence of a large audience.
8-Beginning, in Harrisburg, of annual poultry show of Central Pennsylvania Poultry Association.
8-Barn of John Swartz, near Boiling Springs, consumed by fire together with several head of valuable live stock.
8-Death of Mrs. Mary Bowers, 1219 North Front street, Harrisburg, aged 72 years.
8-Opening in Harrisburg of annual session Penna. Street Railway Association.
9-Sudden death of Mrs. Flora A. Keiter, 25 North Thirteenth street, Harrisburg, aged 81 years.
10-John Walters, of Penbrook, an employe of the Harrisburg Railways Company, was instantly killed in an accident in the Second street subway, Harrisburg.
10-A double three-story dwelling house, Main street, Steelton, in process of construction, destroyed by fire.
10-Death of Harry B. Davis, of Harrisburg, a timekeeper in the P. R. R. shops.
10-Death of Philip K. Meloy, 639 Harris street, Harrisburg, a retired brakeman, P. R. R.
11-Death of Daniel Bell, 1329 Weyth street, Harrisburg, aged 82 years, an active agent of the Underground R. R., in slavery days.
12-Harry A. Boyer, re-elected president of Harrisburg School Board on 15th ballot.
13-Death of Reuben Clemens, of Progress, aged 75 years.
13-George E. Throne committed suicide at 108 Linden street, Harrisburg, after shooting his wife and another woman.
14-Beginning of a week's benefit, at the Orpheum theatre, given by the Rotary Club, of Harrisburg, for benefit of Belgian sufferers in the great European war.
14-George Holloway, of Williams-town killed in a colliery accident.
14-Death of Henry K. Dellinger, 1851 Berryhill street, Harrisburg.
15-Susquehanna became icebound at Harrisburg during a period of intense cold which began after a snow storm on the 13th.
15-Death of Lemuel C. Brackbill, well-known Harrisburg canvasser, aged 71 years.
16-Skating inaugurated on the lake in Wildwood Park, Harrisburg.
16-Death of John R. Kinsey, 238 Crescent street, Harrisburg, aged 65 years.
16-Death of Abram A. Eaton, 1735 Market street, Harrisburg, aged 76 years.
16-Death of Daniel Nickens, 519 Myers street, Steelton.
17-At the funeral of Mrs. Julia Dare, 1341 North street, Harrisburg, who had died on the 14th, six sons acted as pallbearers at the request of the deceased.
17-A $1,000,000 fire in the heart of Pottsville's business district was the most destructive that had ever visited that city.
17-Second fire in less than a month in the Masonic Temple, Third and State streets, Harrisburg, caused a loss approximating $10,000, and for a time, seriously threatened the entire building.
17-Frank G. Hehn, of Harrisburg, killed in Cincinnati, in a revolver battle with the police, after he had robbed two banks there and escaped in his auto in a manner similar to his Ahoona bank robbery of March, 1914.
18-Death of Elmer E. Miller, 1108 Plum street, Harrisburg.
18-Death of Charles G. Carl, of Steelton, for nearly forty years an employe of the P. S. Company.

19-Amos Sheesley, of Pleasant View, found frozen to death on South street, Harrisburg, near P. R. R.
20-Stough evangelistic campaign of seven weeks duration terminated, with the statement that approximately 7,000 persons had "hit the saw just trail."
20-Death of Dallas T. Peters, of Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war.
FOURTH DEATH IN FAMILY
Son Dies Five Hours After Father Succumbs to Typhoid
Boyetown, Pa., Dec. 23.—Christmas will only add to the already overflowing cup of grief and sorrow of the Hilbert family, of Pikeville. Sylvester Hilbert, 28 years old, the fourth of the family to succumb to typhoid, died yesterday within five hours after the death of his father from that disease. His wife, who occupied a cot in the same room, witnessed his death. The young man's sister, who is ill in another room, knows of her father's death, but not of her brother's. A double funeral will be held of father and son Saturday. This makes the fourth death in the same house from typhoid fever within the past three weeks and still three more are lying critically ill.

PLANS FOR BIBLE CONFERENCE
Dr. Scofield Will Open It in the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday, January 3
The annual Bible Conference to be held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, Second and Locust streets, conducted by the Rev. Dr. C. I. Scofield, will open in Fahnstock Hall Sunday afternoon, January 3, at 3:30 o'clock. Sessions will be held every evening in the same place at 8 o'clock, up to and including the following Saturday. The last meeting will be Sunday afternoon, January 10, at 3:30 o'clock in Fahnstock Hall. The general theme for the conference will be "From Genesis to Revelations," a panoramic view of the Bible, illustrated by charts and maps. This is said to be not alone interesting and instructive, but one of Dr. Scofield's best efforts along Biblical lines. The association extends a most cordial invitation for all clergymen, Sunday school superintendents and teachers and Christian workers of whatever name or denomination, to work heartily in this conference. The Sunday afternoon meetings conducted by Dr. Scofield will be a continuation of the general theme for the conference, and will be open to both men and women.

MAN KILLED AT COLLIERY
Wilkes-Barre Bridegroom of Five Weeks Crushed by Cars
Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 23.—John Keating, aged 27 years, a bridegroom of five weeks, was instantly killed at the Gaylord colliery of the Kingston Colliery Company yesterday when he was caught between two loaded cars and terribly crushed. For many years Keating was a fireman for the company, but three days ago he changed positions to become a timberman, because of better pay. He was about his duties when the accident happened.

INCENDIARY FIRES BARN
Greenbank Structure Destroyed With $6,000 Loss
Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 23.—The barn on Walter Houck's farm at Greenbank was destroyed Monday night by an incendiary fire. Twelve head of cattle and a number of hogs perished, and among the contents burned were five acres of 1913 and 1914 leaf tobacco. The loss is fully $6,000, only partially covered by insurance.

PUNCHED BOARDS SEIZED
State Police Sweep Lackawanna County of Gambling Devices
Scranton, Pa., Dec. 23.—Acting under the direction of District Attorney Maxey, forty State troopers, in small units, swept through this county yesterday, confiscating all punchboards and other devices, the use of which the District Attorney declares to be contrary to the gambling law. Thousands of boards were taken out of cigar stores and pharmacies and will be destroyed. Playing the boards costs either ten or five cents, and the rewards are various prizes for lucky punches, chiefly boxes of candy.
Two Firemen Injured
Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 23.—Two of the drivers of No. 1 Fire Company were injured yesterday morning when the supply wagon they were in skidded as the wagon turned into Charlotte street from West King, both firemen being thrown into the street.
Molders Resume Full Time
Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 23.—For the last two years the molders of the Mountville Manufacturing Company have worked only five days a week, but full time has been posted and extra hands are wanted.

NEW HOTEL VENDIG THE LAST WORD IN HOTEL CONSTRUCTION PHILADELPHIA, 13 AND FILBERT STREETS. 2 Minutes from PENNSYLVANIA and PHILADELPHIA & READING TERMINALS - NEAR TO EVERYWHERE. 200 Beautiful Outside Rooms with Bath and Flowing Ice Water. $2.00 and up. Popular Cafe, Grill and Restaurant. JAMES C. WALSH, Manager

NEW YEAR'S AT THE Y. M. C. A. Elaborate Plans Made for the Sixtieth Annual Celebration
The sixtieth annual New Year's celebration under the direction of the Young Men's Christian Association, Second and Locust streets, will be held Friday, January 1. An interesting program has been arranged for the day. There will be "open house" and a public reception from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. Men, women and children are invited. A special invitation is extended to the men of the city who are out of employment to come and partake of the Association's hospitality. A most cordial invitation also is extended to the mail carriers and messenger boys employed by the telegraph and telephone companies; also to the newboys of the city. Foreigners will be cordially welcomed. Refreshments will be served to all. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a gymnasium exhibition and basketball game for the entertainment of the visitors, under the auspices of the physical department. New Year's evening will be given over exclusively to the members and their friends. At that time the annual entertainment will be given. The artist engaged for the occasion is DeWitt Paxton, of New York, a widely known humorist. Admittance New Year's Eve will be by ticket only, and they will be controlled by members in good standing.

A Universal Bottle Is Just the Thing Keeps liquids hot all day and night or cold until the third day. Patent Rustless Shock Absorber protects filler against breakage. This is the most sanitary bottle made. We carry a complete assortment. Lunch Box, $1.50. Carafe, $5.00. Food Jar, $2.50. Vacuum Bottles, $1.00 to $2.50. Drinking Cups, $1.25 per set. Forney's Drug Store 426 Market Street

GIFTS OF PLANTS It is a satisfaction to know in advance that the gift you select will be appreciated by the recipient. Everybody loves plants. We have the largest line of carefully selected plants we have ever shown and they are priced so low that they are within reach of all. SOME SUGGESTIONS Auracarias, Dracaenas, Cocos, Begonias, Lorraine Palms, Scetti Ferns, W. K. Harris Ferns, New Single Crested Ferns, Mistletoe, the most superb we have ever offered. Ferns ranging in price from 25c to $5.00. Every variety of Xmas greens—toping, wreaths and genuine Canadian Balm Trees, the kind that do not drop their foliage. Open Saturday evening and every evening next week until Christmas. NEW HOLMES SEED CO. ADDRESS, 106-108 South Second Street