BROADEN SCOPE OF STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC BODY

Change Rules to Allow Members of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Associations to Play Outside School—Academics and Preps Included

Four important changes were made yesterday to the rules governing the Pennsylvania Scholastic Association.
Amendments to the present rules were adopted, as follows:

Allowing schools of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh which are now members of local organizations to join the State association and schedule contests with other members of the association. Heretofore only schools which were members of the association could play under the rules.

Allowing for athletic contests between members of the State association and academics and preparatory schools.
Up to this time the academy or prep school had to be a member of the association.

Providing that each student trying for an athletic team subject himself to a physical examination by a competent registered physician, showing him physically able to withstand the strain of exertion.

Providing that players on teams other than school teams may play on school teams, or vice versa, on written permission from the principal of the school.

The official year of the association was changed from September 1 to July 1, to extend from July 1 of one year to July 1 of the succeeding year. It was also decided that schools already members of this body should pay an additional dollar, which will entitle them to membership until July 1, 1915. Schools just entering will be forced to pay an annual fee of two dollars.

Following this meeting the officers for the association were elected for the coming year, to take office on July 1, 1915. They are: C. O. Althouse, Central High school, Philadelphia, president; Harry Houck, Williamsport High school, Williamsport, vice president; Edward Sargent, superintendent of public schools at Meadville, treasurer, and Lester Appenzeler, principal Lebanon High school, temporary secretary, to act until July 1, 1915.

Charles S. Davis, principal of the Steelton High school, and J. H. Saul, Penobscot High, Pittsburgh, were re-elected on the board of control for 3-year terms. Schools which entered the association yesterday are: Allentown High, Tarentum, Williamsport, Harrisburg Tech and York, increasing the roll of the association to fifty-two schools. Although Central High is not yet entered, it is probable that they will follow the two other local schools, the illness of W. S. Steele, principal, preventing them from taking any official action at this meeting.

Officials representing Central High, Philadelphia; Peabody High, Pittsburgh; Allegheny High, Pittsburgh, and Sunston High, all signified their intention of joining the association in the near future, the amendments to the laws making these additions possible.
With these schools entered, according to the statement of Charles S. Davis, of Steelton, retiring chairman of the board of control, all the other important schools of these cities will follow.

WHITE GOT THE MONEY

Chicago Lad Fought for Guarantee of $3,500

New York, Dec. 31.—The gross receipts of Tuesday night's ten-round bout between Charley White, of Chicago, and Joe Shugrue totaled $14, 128.

Of this amount White received a flat guarantee of $3,500, which was the sum his manager, Nite Lewis, demanded from Jimmy Johnston in Chicago before he would sign up for the battle.

Shugrue's end amounted to $2,684.
Shugrue worked on a guarantee of $2, 500, with an option of accepting 20 per cent. of the receipts after the state had deducted its 5 per cent. The percentage, therefore, gave Shugrue $184 more than his guarantee.

GANDIL INJURED

New York, Dec. 31.—"Chick" Gandil, the first baseman of the Washington Club, has severely wrenched his right arm, and it is feared that he may not be able to play up to his usual high standard next season. Gandil always has had trouble in getting his throwing arm into shape in the spring. A few days ago Gandil was driving his automobile, and in order to avoid a collision, he made a quick turn of the wheel, badly wrenching his right arm in the operation. Several ligaments were torn, and the arm is in bad shape.
Gandil will go to Bonesetter Reese in Youngstown, O., for treatment.

Cubs Failed to Muster a Team and Forfeit Game

The Pirates won from the crippled Phillies in the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A.
Basketball League last night by a score of 20 to 13. The Cubs forfeited the second game to the Giants, 2 to 0.
When the game was called they failed to produce enough men for the full lineup and Referee Geisel awarded the Giants the game. The lineup:

Pirates. Phillies.
Knoble F Rudy

GLEASON OUT OF BASEBALL

Veteran, Released by White Sox, Will Retire From the Game

"Kid" Gleason, veteran player, former member of the Phillies, and for the past three years assistant manager to Jimmy Callahan, of the Chicago White Sox, declares that he is out of baseball forever. Gleason was given his unconditional release on Tuesday by Clarence Rowland, the new manager of the Chicago Americans.

Gleason has no fault to find because of his release, and, as is characteristic with him, has nothing but good words for the Chicago Club. President Comiskey, ex-Manager Callahan and the new manager, Gleason says he is willing to step down and give the younger fellows a chance. He also declares the White Sox will have a splendid ball team in the field next season and that the new manager is capable of getting all there is to be gotten out of his players.

Last spring the Federal League was after Gleason, but he turned down a liberal offer, and since the close of last season has had an offer to manage the Brooklyn Club, of the independent league. Gleason has a wonderful record since he began as a pitcher for the Wilkes-Barre Club back in 1885. He is one of the best known and most popular men in the game to-day and his presence will be missed. He would make an excellent manager for some team, and it was hoped that he would be given the position of manager of the New York Yankees when the club was sold.
