YORK HIGH TOPS CENTRAL AT HOME BY SCORE OF 24-22

Visitor Display Better Team Work Toward End of Contest—Failure to Shoot Fouls Cause of Defeat—Girls Beat Lebanon Valley

Central High lost on its home floor, the Chestnut street auditorium last evening to the York quintet, one of the fastest in the State, by the score of 24 to 22. It was the fastest game the locals have engaged in this season and provided much good sport for the spectators.

The guarding was close and only eight foul shots were called during the evening, those being divided equally between the two teams. Wiest for York, caged two more fouls than the Harrisburg shooter. The locals seemed to have a slight edge on the visitors during the first part of the game although the score was always close but York showed better team toward the close of the game and drew away. Bingham, Rote and Winn played excellent games while Reed and Wiest played best for the visitors. The lineup: York Central, F. Wiest (Captain), Rote, Winn, Bingham, F. Briggs, Greaswald, G. Schetter, G. Kraber.

JAMES WANTS MORE MONEY

World's Series Pitcher Begins to Appreciate His Value Boston, Feb. 13.—Bill James, of the Braves' pitching staff, says the $4,000 he is under contract to receive this season isn't enough and he declares that he won't report for spring training unless he gets a raise. According to information received in Boston yesterday the coast boy believes that he is morally entitled to a better salary. James realizes that he is signed to a 2-year contract that is of the strictly ironbound variety. Regardless of that, he holds the belief that his sensational work during the season and in the world's series, when he pitched no-hit ball for five innings and allowed only two hits in the nine rounds, should get him a new contract with a higher figure named. "To date I don't intend to report," is the way Bill puts the proposition.

Yankees Make Early Start New York, Feb. 13.—The first detachment of Yankees left their homes for Chicago today and when assembled the party proceeded to Hot Springs, Ark. There they will go through the "boiling out" process before joining their mates at Savannah on March 10 to start active training for the 1915 campaign. Joe Kelly will have charge of the men at Hot Springs. Manager Donovan is still in town pondering over the problem of how he is going to sign Pipp and High, of the Tigers, at the club's terms. Donovan yesterday signed Jimmy Dugan to train the Yankees the coming season.

FAMOUS ATHLETE WHO RECEIVED INJURY MAY NOT COMPETE AGAIN

MELVIN W. SHEPARD. Melvin Sheppard, one of the greatest athletes in the world to-day, may never wear a spiked shoe again. While running in the fourth heat of a 300-yard handicap at the New York A.C. games, in New York, he struck a loose board in the floor and fell heavily, receiving an abrasion of the left leg and a deep cut on his left arm. He was taken to a physician and had several stitches taken in the cuts. It would not be surprising if it were soon announced that the once "Peerless Mel" was through with athletics.

Champlin Company All Next Week The motto of Charles K. Champlin during the past fifteen years that he has appeared at the head of his own company has been the best for the least money, which no doubt accounts for his wonderful success both artistic and financially. The reputation, gained by Mr. Champlin for the excellent manner in which he stages his productions has made him the most popular of all the popular priced organizations traveling, with the result that crowded houses await him in every city in which he appears, while the press and public have been unanimous in their praise of his performances. The repertoire that Mr. Champlin will present to the theatre-goers of Harrisburg is by far the greatest ever attempted by any popular priced organization. It consists of all the latest Metropolitan successes every one of which has had long runs in New York. The list for the week include "The Man From Home," William Hodges' big New York success; "The Littlest Rebel," in which the Farnum Brothers scored such a wonderful hit in at the Eltinge theatre, New York; "The Stranger," Wilton Lackaye's big New York and Chicago success; "The Heart of Maryland," David Belasco's famous play of the Civil war; "The Ghost Breaker," a stronger and better play than "Alias Jimmy Valentine"; "He Fell in Love With His Wife," "The Master of the House," and "The Reformer." Monday afternoon the play will be "The Reformer," the drama that set all Boston talking; and caused more newspaper comment than any other play ever seen in that city. Monday night, "The Man From Home" will be given. Seats are now on sale.—Adv.

The Prussian Guards Frederick the Great originated the Prussian guards. His ambition was to form a royal bodyguard of giants, and every country was ransacked by his agents to supply recruits. The most extravagant sums were offered to men of exceptional inches, and it is said an Irishman more than seven feet high, who was picked up by the Prussian Ambassador in London received a bounty of 1,300 pounds.—London Mail.

AT THE COLONIAL

This is the last day for Billy Van at the Colonial. Also the last day for the screamingly funny playlet called "Easy Money," that George Richards and company are presenting. In fact it is the consensus of opinion that the vaudeville that appears at the Colonial for the last half of the week, is one of the very best that playhouse has had. Al Lewis and company, presenting "The New Leader," is the big feature of the bill that comes to the Colonial for the first half of next week. This is the exuberantly funny act that Sam Mann and company presented at the Orpheum some few years ago. The cast of the present sketch is said to be very clever and incidentally the management declares it is the highest salaried act that ever appeared at the Colonial.—Adv.

Regent "The Gilded Fool," as presented today, is another production of one of the greatest of Broadway's successes. The plot deals with the progress of young Chauncey Short, a typical "Gilded Fool" who spends his days in idleness and his nights in frivolity. He meets "The Only Girl" and through love of her is awakened to a realization of his many short comings. The climax comes when after a fiercely fought financial battle, the "Gilded Fool" thwarts the contrivings of a thieving rascal, and saves his fiancée's father from financial disaster. Monday we present that charming and bewitching film favorite, Mary Pickford in her latest film "Behind the Scenes," a drama of theatrical life and of life in its more general aspects and proves Shakespeare's assertion that "All life is but a stage," is quite true and on this stage of life a real drama is being performed while a make believe play is in course of production on the stage. How the star of the play becomes the star of the real drama of life is cleverly and dramatically unfolded in five reels of film production.—Adv.

HOUSEMAID AND HER EMPLOYER SHE KILLED

Miss Carrie Davis and C. H. Massey. Alleging that her employer, Charles H. Massey, a wealthy resident of Toronto, Canada, made advances to her, Carrie Davies, a housemaid, shot and killed him at his home. According to her own statement the shooting took place a short while after Mr. Massey had entertained a party of friends at dinner at his residence. The maid said that after the dinner Mr. Massey entered the dining room where she was at work and took her in his arms and kissed her. She was reported to have said that she shot him in order that he should not come near her again.
