IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Back-ache or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poison from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

SHELDON LEWIS

Sheldon Lewis, whose interpretation of "Dutch Joe," in W. A. Brady's big production of "Life," at the Manhattan Opera House and is attracting such favorable notice, has been signed by Pathe to take a prominent part in the new serial "The Exploits of Elaine."

Mr. Lewis was born in Philadelphia, of German-American parentage and had hardly got beyond the nursing bottle stage before he announced to his parents his intention of going upon the stage. His father was in the wholesale milk business in Philadelphia and this fact was remembered by Mr. Lewis' first audience in an amusing way. He had secured an engagement in a small role at the Girard Avenue Theatre in Philadelphia. No sooner had he walked upon the stage than various of his boyhood playfellows in the audience shouted "Milk" at him and the rest of the crowd took it up. Uproarious applause greeted every line that he spoke and to use theatrical parlance he "took the show away from the star."

Better and better engagements followed, among them leading roles with such stars as Dorothy Donnelly, Francis Starr and Blanche Walsh, as well as with Ada Rehan in Shakespearean plays. When the endowed playhouse in Chicago, the first in America, was started he was secured to play in dramas by Maeterlinck, Henry Arthur Jones and other famous playwrights. He was also with Mrs. Pike in "The Pillars of Society" by Ibsen, as well as "Becky Sharp" and "Tess of the D'Urbervilles."—Adv.
