BETHANY PASTOR WILL PREACH TO MEMBERS OF SHAMROCK COMPANY

Firemen to March to Chapel To-morrow Night to Hear Sermon by the Chaplain

OVER-ANXIETY DR. FOX'S TOPIC

Clayton Albert Smucker at Stevens Memorial Will Give Third of Series of "Live Wire Sermons On Up-to-Date Subjects" in Evening

The members of the Shamrock Fire Company, a large number of whom hit the sawdust trail during the recent Stough evangelistic campaign in this city, will meet at their engine house to-morrow evening at 6.30 o'clock and march in a body to the Bethany Presbyterian chapel, Cameron and Cumberland streets, to hear a special sermon preached by the pastor and chaplain of the company, the Rev. John M. Warden. The Shamrock boys have an organized Bible class at Bethany chapel, the only firemen's Bible class in the city. The Rev. Mr. Warden is teacher, and only Shamrock members are admitted to membership. All members of the company, whether in full uniform or not, as well as all other firemen of the city, are invited to attend the services to-morrow night. The choir is arranging special music.

At Grace M. E. church, the Rev. Dr. J. D. Fox, at 10.30 will preach on "Steadying the Ark," or "The Majesty of Law," a lesson on over-anxiety. At the evening service the "Tragedy of Job, Act III. The Great Vindication," will be the subject. This study will reveal the fact that though the friends of Job accused him of hypocrisy and wickedness and explained the reason of his loss and suffering as punishment for his sins, yet God vindicated his cause as against the aspersions of his friends, and gave him twice as many sheep, camels and oxen as he had before. Moreover the joys of his domestic life were restored. But this was merely incidental to the real issue. It was the defense of his character as viewed by the Almighty that makes Job one of the greatest heroes in history. The study will show that discipline is the law of life; that the purest gold comes out of the hottest furnace; that the destruction and disintegration of the seed is the promise of its reproduction; that the gold of character and the music sweeter than the song of an angel, come out of bruised and broken hearts, and that we die to live.

At the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker is delivering a series of "live wire sermons on up-to-date subjects." To-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock, the third sermon in the special series will be given on "The Signs of the Time." On Sunday evening, May 9, he will preach on "Popular Forms of Idolatry To-day." In connection with this sermon he will answer the question often asked, "Do Roman Catholics Pray and Worship the Virgin Mary?" The last sermon will be given Sunday evening, May 16, on "Peter and the Keys to Heaven."

At Pine Street Presbyterian church the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Mudge, has been preaching for the last few weeks a series of sermons on "God." The final sermon of this series will be preached Sunday evening when the topic will be "The Reliable God." This service will be preceded by an organ recital at 7.15 p. m. when Mr. McCarrel will play "Concert Overture in F" (D'Erny), "Evensong" (Johnston). The choir will sing "I Saw the Lord" (Harris) and Mrs. Hertzler will sing "O Rest in the Lord (Elijah)" (Mendelssohn). At the morning service the topic of the sermon will be "God's Chief Criticism of Us." The meeting of the Women's Missionary Society will be held on Monday evening. The Missionary Guild will meet on Tuesday evening. The annual meeting of the congregation to elect trustees and to transact routine business will be held in the lecture room at 7.30 o'clock on Tuesday evening. At the mid-week service the topic will be "God Using Us."

HOW THE "BUZZER" TELLS THE NEWS IN THE TRENCHES

RECEIVING A GENERAL CALL FROM THE BASE

A WELL HIDDEN FRENCH TELEPHONE DEN.

The part which the telephone and telegraph in this war can scarcely be exaggerated. Every battery is dependent for much of its information upon hidden observers with telephones at their ears. Orders and instructions of all kinds are sent all over the field of operations by means of telephones or telegraphic instruments, or by telephones used as "buzzers" which, when the line is weak, gives out to the ear a long and short buzz. By this means the Morse code is used instead of the human voice, although a layman would think an ordinary telephone instrument alone was in use. In the above illustration the military operator is seen using the "buzzer" which is closely pressed to his ear as he listens to the message from his quarters. The message is being "buzzed" in Morse code.

EPWORTH LEAGUES PLAN EAGLESMERE INSTITUTE

At Stevens Memorial Service Address Will Be Made by Missionary Walter Hoffsommer, Who Is Visiting Parents After Eight Years in Japan

For four years the Epworth League of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church have held a summer institute at Eaglesmere, where Epworth League methods have been studied in detail under the direction of many of the church's most prominent instructors. Over one hundred young people attended this institute from various parts of the central part of the State last summer, and this year the directorate expect double that number to avail themselves of this opportunity to combine vacation pleasures with educational profit at this ideal vacation spot. The league of Harrisburg have taken the initiative in bringing the institute before the Methodist young people through the medium of stereopticon lectures, by which the scenic features of Eaglesmere will be emphasized.

J. Horace McFarland, the president of the American Civic Association, will lecture before the Harrisburg leagues May 14 on "Eaglesmere, the Scenic Marvel of Pennsylvania," illustrating his lecture with many beautifully colored lantern slides. Over five hundred tickets have already been sold for this lecture.

The Harrisburg way is being followed in various other parts of the territory covered by the Central Pennsylvania Conference, Williamsport having a similar lecture on the evening of May 18, at which some of the same lantern slides will be used that will be used at the Harrisburg lecture.

The lecture in this city will be given in the auditorium of the Stevens Memorial Methodist church and the Rev. A. S. Williams, the pastor of Curtin Heights Methodist church, a director of the institute, will present a brief outline of the work done there. The Stevens Memorial male chorus will sing during the evening. George B. Ahn, of Williamsport, the president of the institute, may be present also.

Epworth League services in this city to-morrow evening are as follows:

At the Curtin Heights service Miss Mary Kline will be the leader. Attendance last Sunday, 24.

Mrs. Diekel will have charge of the Epworth church league service. Attendance last Sunday, 53.

At the Fifth Street league the Emanuel Bible study class will have charge of the service. Dr. W. W. Rugh, Bible study director of the Philadelphia branch of the National Bible Institute of New York, will be the speaker. Miss Margaret Mathions will sing a solo. Attendance last Sunday, 66.

H. E. Smith, an instructor at the Harrisburg Academy, will be the speaker at the Grace church service. Attendance last Sunday, 76.

Miss Ida Beck will lead the service at the Ridge Avenue church. Attendance last Sunday, 74.

At the league service in the Stevens Memorial church Walter Hoffsommer, a teacher-missionary in Japan, will talk. Mr. Hoffsommer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoffsommer, South Seventeenth street, and with his family is visiting his parents after spending the past eight years in Japan. Miss Mabel Edwards will sing at this service. Attendance last Sunday, 89.

At the league service at St. Paul's church the pastor, the Rev. R. W. Runyan, will be the speaker, and there will be a roll call of the members. There will also be a duet by William Mell and E. Stoner. Attendance last Sunday, 28.

For a sturdy spring drink, try Pink's Wurzburger.—Adv.
