Maj. E. W. HALE, of "Woodside," will go to Florida for several weeks this winter.

The election of officers of the Fire Department takes place Mouday evening.

The Nail Works will require from two to four hundred kegs per day.

Illness will prevent Arch-Bishop WOOD from participating in the services at the Catholic Church to-morrow.

The next quarterly meeting of the Church of Christ of Bradford county will be held at Grover, beginning on Friday evening, Dec. 26th, and continuing over Sunday.

Don't put off your Christmas purchases until the last moment. FITCH has a full line of candies and confections, and now is the time to make your selections.

Attorney FOYLE has his new residence, on Third street, nearly ready for occupancy. It is said to be one of the most convenient, well arranged dwellings in town. We bespeak for Mr. F. and his good wife many years of happiness in it.

The particular attention of school directors and tax-payers is directed to a decision of Superintendent WICKERSHAM, in another column. Observance of the law will save directors much annoyance and prevent imposition of penalties.

The old adage "it never rains but it pours," has been verified in Mr. MALLORY's experience. Lately he sold his fast horse for $10,500, and now he has disposed of the old Fall Creek cars, which have been idle on the track near the Nail Mills for the past four or five years, for, report says, nearly $40,000.

The public will regret to learn that our excellent friend, W. H. D. GREEN, is about to vacate the hotel at Burlington. Under his administration the hostelry has gained an enviable reputation with the traveling public, and it will be fortunate indeed if the house falls into such excellent hands again. Mrs. G. knows how to prepare a meal fit for a prince.

A correspondent of the Gazette & Bulletin travelling in Kansas and visiting Topeka, met a former citizen of this county. He says: "We called on M. H. CASE, Esq., mayor of the city, who is an old acquaintance, and was formerly—some fourteen years ago—a young lawyer of Canton, Pa., and frequently attended courts in Williamsport. He is now serving his third term as mayor. This shows what a young man may accomplish by taking GREENEY'S advice and going west.

The publishers of the Reporter will give their readers a large and neatly printed Christmas supplement. The patrons of this paper ought to appreciate such evidences of enterprise and prosperity on the part of the publishers. It affords another proof that the Reporter is what it purports to be, the best paper published in Northern Pennsylvania, and as such is entitled to the generous and undivided support of the Republican party.

A Scranton choir will furnish music at the Catholic Church to-morrow.

Cigars of about every known brand at FITCH'S.

Superintendent's Notes.

Dec. 11th and 12th—Visited the following schools and teachers: LeRoy, No. 8, Belle Lyon; No. 2, Arville Webster; No. 1, Belle Chaapel. Smithfield—No. 14, Mary Brigham; No. 16, Enos Hubbard; No. 17, Mahlon Thomas; No. 15, Charles Hulbut.

Director McCraney present at No. 8, LeRoy, sharply criticised a number who came late, and would compel a number of youth idling time in streets, had he power, to attend school.

The sentimentalities opposed to compulsory education, are constantly attributing non-attendance to defective teaching.

No. 3 and No. 8, LeRoy Village, are both excellent schools, yet half a score of street Arabs were playing ball within a stones throw of the schools, and the director said nothing could induce them to attend. One of them was offered several shillings per week to stop swearing and smoking, and to attend school, but he was incorrigible. With such, "what will the harvest be?" Schools doing well.

No. 17, Smithfield, could bear from teacher a little more snap.

No. 1, LeRoy, showed admirable results in writing. This important branch has for several years been really neglected in our schools, but it is seldom now that a teacher is found in our county who is not doing good work in this subject.

Book of Life.

Book of Life! to thee I fly.
When the world weighs heavily,
Heavily upon my heart,
And earthy thoughts no peace impart,
Earthly hopes, all hollowness—
Earthy joys, deceitfulness—
Earthy praise, a tinsel gain—
Earthy pleasure, after pain—
Earthy stay, an ebbing wave—
Earthy end, the dark cold grave.
Wearily, wearily,
From worldly wastes, so drearily
That round me lie—
From trouble, toil, and vanity,
From care and strife,
To thee I turn, to thee I fly,
Book of Life.

Items from the Canton Sentinel of this week:

A barn belonging to FRANK MAYO, and situated nearly opposite his residence, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. The fire originated in the loft of the barn, and nearly all of its contents was saved. The Independent boys were on hand, but their services were but little needed.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to the Seventh Annual Reception of the Naid Co. No. 2, of Towanda, which will be held on New Year's night. From the well known character of the gentlemen composing the managing committee, a grand affair may safely be assured.

Mr. H. B. PARSONS has recently been making a canvas with a view to obtaining a correct list of the adult residents of this borough. The result shows that there are 312 males and 324 females, making the total adult population of the borough 636. As the adult population of any town is estimated to be about two-fifths of the entire population, it follows that the population of Canton at the present time is something like sixteen hundred.

Country dealers will find it to their advantage to buy their candies at FITCH'S.

ATHENS, December 13th.

At a meeting last night the subject of a reading room was discussed, and we are now in a fair way to have that much needed institution in this place. We hope it will prove a success, as it will, if the present plans are carried out.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS.,
Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.

J. P. WICKERSHAM,
Superintendent Public Instruction.
