A Troy barber has a genuine opossum which he picked up in a corn field near Baltimore.

What papers are intended by the Mercury when it refers to the principle papers of Towanda?

Troy, Pa., is to have Pinafore, the California minstrels, a concert by the Troy cornet band and the cantata of Christmas, all within a few days.

The members of the congregation of Christ Church are requested to meet to-morrow (Tuesday), at 10 A. M., and afterwards and evenings thereafter to assist in decorating the church for Christmas.

The Grange Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Troy, Pa., will hold its annual meeting for the election of officers and directors on the second Thursday of January next, at 10 A. M., at Troy Grange Hall. All policy holders are entitled to vote.

The following item from the last Waverly Advocate will afford CHARLIE SMITH some consolation:

"Charles McIvy, who ran a foot-race almost alone, recently in Towanda, won $7,000 at Fleetwood Park, New York, on Thursday of last week, beating Hermon, of Canada, three yards, in a race of 150 yards. Jas. A. Bell, of this place, is in quite a snug little stake."

The Commissioners have finally decided to buy the MCKEAN place, near Burlington, for a poor-house farm. We fear the amount to be paid is $8,200. We think the location a good one and the farm well adapted to the purpose for which it is to be used. Now the Commissioners should erect suitable buildings, not more than two stories high, with such conveniences as those entitled to the benefits of such an institution require.

The farm purchased contains 207 acres, is nearly all tillable and well watered.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.—As a news and family paper the "old reliable" Tribune has never been surpassed, if equalled, and it is a better paper now than ever. Its treatment of all public questions is also able, dignified and candid. It never panders to passion or prejudice, but presents its arguments with clearness and force, and appeals to the good sense and honesty of its readers to support the right and oppose the wrong. This is one of the elements of its great influence among the people—an influence now admitted by the leading men of all parties. We invite attention to its prospectus in another place, and to its amazingly cheap offer of Chambers's Cyclopaedia as a premium.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—MAHLON ANGLE, who is engaged in buying hides and pelts for G. A. DAYTON, met with a mysterious accident in Sullivan county on Friday last. On the evening of that day his team were discovered a few miles this side of Forksville quietly walking along the street. On being taken to the hotel they were recognized by the proprietor, and search at once made for the driver and wagon. Mr. ANGLE was found at the house of Mr. LITTLE, in a partially unconscious state, unable to give any explanation in regard to the accident which had befallen him. A telegram was sent Mr. DAYTON on Saturday morning, who with JOHN J. SPALDING, a brother-in-law of the injured man, at once started for Forksville, to minister to him, and if possible learn the particulars of the affair. They found Mr. A. badly bruised about the head and face, but when they left him yesterday afternoon, he had not recovered his senses sufficient to explain satisfactorily the cause of the accident. The team which he was driving were both high spirited animals, and both have occasionally run away, but on this occasion gave no evidence of having been excited, and the wagon and harness were only slightly injured. These facts at first lead to a suspicion of foul play, but as his money was unmolested, there seems to be no ground for such a theory. The probabilities are that he was either attacked with a fit of some kind and fell from his wagon, or that the team became unmanageable and he was thrown to the ground with such force as to render him insensible. Dr. WOODBURN visited him on Saturday, and D. C. DAYTON is now at Forksville taking care of him. It is hoped he will soon be restored, when the mystery which now surrounds the affair will be cleared away.

At a special meeting of Mantua H. and L. Co., No. 4, held Saturday evening, the following independent nominations were made for Department officers for 1880:

Chief Engineer—CLARK B. PORTER, of No. 3.

1st Asst. Eng.—A. S. DOWD, of No. 1.

2d. Asst. Eng.—J. J. CAVANAUGH, of No. 4.

These nominations were made in opposition to the regular ticket formed at the convention held last week; although voted for by two of their delegates, being obnoxious to the company, as it is believed to be to the better portion of the Department generally.

It is believed a full vote will be polled, and the independent ticket elected, having as it has, at its head one of the best firemen in Towanda, CLARK B. PORTER. It is earnestly requested that all members desirous of a reform in the Department come to the polls and help elect him.

No. 4.

Personal.

E. A. PACKER, of New York, is in town. He is interested in an important suit to be tried in court this week.

In our description of the Catholic Church we inadvertently omitted mention of the Superintendent of the work, GARRET FITSGIBBON, of Binghamton N. Y. who has proven himself not only a skillful artizan but a master builder, well worthy to be entrusted with the most difficult work in his line.

DEDICATION OF THE CHURCH OF SS. PETER AND PAUL.—The new Roman Catholic Church of Saints Peter and Paul, corner of Third and Lombard streets, was dedicated yesterday by the Bishop of the Diocese, Rt. Rev. THOS. O'HARA, assisted by Bishops M'QUAID, of Rochester, and SHANAHAN, of Harrisburg, and some ten or twelve Priests. The dedicatory service was quite elaborate, but being rendered in Latin we were unable to comprehend the whole of. The sprinkling of Holy Water, and the burning of Incense were symbolical of the sacred purposes to which the building was set apart, and of prayer and praise which will be continually offered at the altar. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, which were full of meaning to the devout Catholic, Father KELLY gave notice of the evening service, and the fast days of the week. Bishop SHANAHAN delivered the dedicatory sermon. The discourse was founded on the text—"Go ye, therefore and teach all nations; baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world." The sermon was a most able, eloquent and convincing defense of the Christian religion, as the only system universal in its scope, and adapted to the requirements of all people. A mere synopsis of the masterly effort would convey but a faint idea of its beautiful harmony and consummate logic, and we forbear any attempt at a report of it, but should be pleased to print the sermon entire.

In the evening, after Vespers, Bishop Mc-

QUAID delivered a lecture which we hear well spoken of.

At both services the large church was crowded to its utmost capacity, all the protestant churches being well represented.

The ushers were JOHN PHELAN, THOS. FITSGERALD, JOHN QUIGLEY, ARTHUR COMISKY and FRANK J. BLUM. They were all tastily attired and wore white kids, with a rosette of white silk on the lapel of the coat.

FRANK SULLIVAN and TIMOTHY CORBETT waited upon the Priests.

The music was very artistically rendered by the Cathedral Choir of Scranton.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS.,
Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.

J. P. WICKERSHAM,
