YEAR AND THE LAW.—The law is a thing. No wonder Dundreary, in one most misanthropic stories, says that it of those things that no fellow can find t dips its long finger into everything, e effect is somewhat different from that follows the movement of the writers in pl when they are stirred by an angel. one case, healing follows; in the other, ness and anything but a curative remains. The Albany Law Jourconsidered good authority for the ious utterances of the old dame, and lowing it has to say as to the coming nd its added day, should be known by business man in the state:

law, it is said, takes no notice of parts s, and as to the 29th of February, it no notice of the whole day. The 28th h are computed as one day. For ex--suppose a note is dated on the 28th of ry, 1880, payable one day from date, rily it would be payable on the 4th of March, and so it is in leap year, and not on the 3d. In Indiana the question has recently come before the supreme court, in respect to service of process in 1876, the last leap year.

 The law there requires ten days' previous service for the entry of judgment. In the case before the court the judgment was premature if the 28th and 29th of February were to be computed as one day. The court said:
 'It must be regarded as settled in this state that the 28th and 29th days of February in every bissextile year must be computed and considered in law as one day.'

The question is set at rest by our statute, 1 R. S., m. p. 610: s. 3, which provides that 'the added day of a leap year and the day immediately preceding, if they shall occur in any period so to be computed, shall be reckoned together as one day.' This embraces statutes, deeds, verbal or written contracts, and all public or private instrument.

Old Year, Rest.

Old year! Rest! thy work is done Thou shalt see earth's sin and sorrow Nevermore, beneath the sun:
 Ere the dawning of the morrow, Other hands shall ring the chime
 Of the morning march of Time;
 Old year! Rest! thy work is done.
 Angel spirits, hasten home!
 All thy sins have been forgiven;
 Snow-flakes falling from the dome,
 Are a pure, sweet sign from Heaven.
 That the gates have opened there To the touch of Faith and Prayer;
 Angel spirits hasten home!

Stricken mourners! wherefore weep?
 Love is kin to love supernal; Death is but a little sleep
 'Tween two days, and one's eternal.
 Earth shall bloom again, in token,
 That no bud is lost or broken;
 Life and hope shall take new wing,
 With returning birds, in Spring.
 Stricken mourners! wherefore weep?

 publican.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIREC-TORS AND TAX PAYERS—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS., Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says:
 "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.
