In Prussia one person in every four hundred and fifty is insane. A Berlin scientist attributes this large proportion to intemperance among the lower class, and to educational cramming in early years among others.

In a debate on the Army Appropriation bill in the House yesterday, great excitement was caused by Mr. Sparks denouncing Mr. Clymer as a liar. Subsequently Mr. Sparks made an apology to Mr. Clymer and the House.

In the case of Mrs. Ferguson against the Manhattan Life Insurance Company to recover a $10,000 policy on the life of her husband. The jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff. The defense was that Ferguson committed suicide. But it was proved that he was insane.

Three convicts in the Western Penitentiary at Allegheny City, Pa., yesterday knocked keeper Hayes senseless, and bound and gagged him. They made a rope and attempted to scale the wall. Some of the Democratic papers in the West Branch section are urging the nomination of Judge Charles A. Mayer for Supreme Judge. Judge Mayer was prominently named for the position in 1877, but he declined to allow his name to go before the convention, as Colonel Noyes, also of Clinton county, was a candidate for State Treasurer.

The Connecticut Republican State Convention at New-Heaven chose delegates to the National Convention at Chicago. A slight effort was made to obtain an expression of the views of the Convention in regard to the Presidential candidate, but it met with little encouragement; and a resolution was adopted urging the vigorous and loyal support of the nominees of the Republican National Convention.

A man calling himself George M. Jones, of Boston, but who is believed to be Edwin Smith, of Philadelphia, was picked up on the street in New York, on Wednesday. One of his legs was broken, and he claimed that he had robbed. He was taken to the hospital, and yesterday shot himself through the heart. He appeared to be a man of culture and means, and had engaged passage to Europe on the steamer which sailed Wednesday.
