Mrs. W. L. DIMMOCK is quite sick.
Mrs. D. O. HOLLON spent Sunday with her parents in Wyalusing.
Prof. I. S. CRAWFORD, of the Smithfield graded school was in town on Saturday.
Miss ANNIE GOODRICH was registered at the Continental hotel, Philadelphia, Friday.
SAM CARNOCHAN, of Bath, N. Y., spent Sunday with his brother, Capt. W. H. CARNOCHAN on Chestnut street.
Miss HATTIE DELANO, who has been absent several weeks visiting friends in Troy, Elmira, Waverly and Athens, is home again.
Mrs. JOHN SPALDING, of Janesville, Wis., is visiting friends in this county and is at present the guest of her brother, W. H. CARNOCHAN, Esq., in this place.

WOOD & Co. are preparing to open their new photograph gallery about the first of next month. Mr. Wood's reputation as an artist will ensure the new firm success.

Our esteemed friend and subscriber, Judge STALFORD, of Brownton, was a caller at the REVIEW office Saturday. We regret to add that he was not at all well, but we hope he may soon be in the enjoyment of his usual health.

Capt. ABBOTT, of the Carbon Run mines, has again been afflicted. His eldest son, a promising young man of eighteen, who was just about to graduate at the Lehigh University, died of scarlet fever in Bethlehem on Saturday.

Mr. VANDORN and family left for their new home at Mt. Morris Friday. Mr. V. and one of the boys took the "overland route," making the journey in a buggy. The family made hosts of warm friends during their residence here, who will always be interested to hear of their prosperity.

FRANCIS M'CAULY, formerly a messenger boy at the Barclay depot, and now holding an important and responsible position in the telegraph service of the Lehigh Valley Co., was in town Saturday. He has the reputation of being one of the most expert operators in the country. We believe he is employed at Coxton.

The days and nights of same length now.

There will be a musical entertainment given in the parlors of the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening, together with refreshments. The proceeds are to be devoted to a most worthy object and we hope may be very large.

The dark and rainy weather on Friday evening did not keep a goodly number of grangers away from the entertainment at Oscaluwa Hall, North Towanda, and all who braved the inclemency were richly repaid for the effort. The literary exercises were exceptionally interesting, while the feast of good things did credit even to the ladies of North Towanda who have long enjoyed a high reputation for their proficiency in the culinary art. We deeply regret that we were prevented from enjoying the occasion.

Troy Tidings.

Mr. H. L. Rockwell is very ill.
Mr. C. J. Tymeson is quite sick.
The auction attracts many buyers.
Mr. E. C. Oliver will light his new store with gas.
The Troy House has been newly kalsomined throughout.
Mr. Brainard Bowen will rebuild his tannery at once.
A dancing school of forty pupils has been organized here.
Newbury, Peck & Co., are preparing to move into their new store.
Prof. McCollom has introduced military drill among the High School boys.
Mr. Wm. Peck, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, died on Thursday.

TROJANUS.

"Better be born lucky than rich." We are in receipt of a sack of buckwheat flour from the hand of John Jones, Esq., the chief mechanic of Mrs. Rockwell's mill, that verifies his skill and reputation as a miller, as well as the great perfection of the machinery for the manufacture of that very desirable article, to gratify the most childish epicure. A still more noticeable fact was found in the sack of wheat flour that accompanied the buckwheat. Their new and improved machinery that returns the millings to the eye of the stone and grinds it over again, increasing the quantity of the flour from two to four pounds per bushel, while it imparts a deliciousness to the flavor that hitherto has not been obtained hereabouts.

Our flouring establishments east of Buffalo but just now begin to press into their service this important fixture in the western flour-making. Mrs. Rockwell is eminently fortunate in obtaining the services of her brother, Esquire Wilson, as manager, as well as the enterprise of the young and aspiring mechanic, Mr. Jones, as chief miller. From the opening of the buckwheat business in the fall until now, the crowd daily around that mill has resembled the huddle of teams at a mass meeting. Their capacity for doing up wheat, buckwheat, corn and chop-feed, is a thousand bushels in twenty-four hours. N. D. P. Monroeton, March 19.

Miss DELPHENE ENNIS, daughter of ISAAC ENNIS, of Liberty Corners, died on Thursday last and was buried yesterday. She had been an invalid for two years, her disease being consumption. The deceased was a sister of Mr. GEORGE ENNIS, of the Ward House.
