Political Pointers.

Now that people have found in the cool weather a gratifying relief from the prostrating effects of the heat and humidity that have steadily prevailed throughout the summer, their attention will be about evenly divided between the fog ends of war news and the unraveling of political mysteries. The tug of war within the political lines is yielding gradually to activities of a demonstrative character over the strong undercurrent of feeling that prevail. The matter of State issues are left for others to wrestle with,—the local ticket is of more importance: It strikes nearer home.

The candidates whose names are being most discussed, are as follows: H. W. Osler, candidate for Sheriff, who has shown a sturdy and unswerving devotion to principles of high rank and the advancement of interests conducive to better citizenship and pure government in local affairs, and by such fidelity has won an enviable record and set a bright example to the weak and temporizing; it therefore behooves us all irrespective of party, on this occasion as we enter upon another campaign to once more step to the front and place the stamp of our approval upon such a candidate as we know worthy of our united support.

It should therefore be resolved by the citizens of Sullivan county to favor for the office of Prothonotary that magnificent type of American manhood, W. J. Lawrence, who has rendered faithful and most efficient service in that station during the present term that is about to end. A man of sterling qualities who will get the large majority that he justly merits.

There is a healthy sentiment that seems to be growing in volume as election day advances. It is that of the intelligent citizens awakening to the needs of an honest, business-like and capable man to represent a progressive people at Harrisburg, and heartily endorse the election for office of Assembly our esteemed and popular fellow citizen Dr. J. L. Christian a man of marked ability with truth and fidelity linked with his unstained record who has the courage to take a prominent and outspoken stand in the campaign, claiming no allegiance to factions nor to party dictators whatsoever, and a man whom all citizens favoring honest government can conscientiously lay their support upon with confidence as his integrity has before been tried and not found wanting. It is therefore natural that he meets with the stamp of approval from every fair-minded man throughout the entire county.

Of equal strength on the ticket is W. H. Woodin. As candidate for Congress he is a most formidable opponent, and is causing loss of much sleep to his adversaries. Mr. Woodin's record is an enviable one. He entered his father's car shop in the capacity of an ordinary workman cleaning castings, after leaving college where his record was one of brilliance. He worked his way up from the bottom, learning the details of the business by practical experience, and his close application to business soon caused his advancement until he reached the head of the establishment which he entered in its humblest capacity. He is a prominent light in political affairs, and the idol of the 1,600 men over which he reigns with generosity. And, figuring high, as he does, in church societies, organizations of various kinds, his social life in Berwick figures with great prominence. It will, therefore, be seen that Mr. Woodin carries with him not alone a political following of unusual significance, but his popularity extends into every walk of social or public life, making him a dangerous candidate for his adversaries.

As a public officer some men are worth more than others and some are worth less.

Judge Pomeroy Dead.

This week we are called upon to chronicle the death of one of the best known men in this county, Mr. F. B. Pomeroy, of Dushore. His death occurred on Thursday last and the news was received with expressions of deep regret.

Mr. Pomeroy was an old time resident of Dushore and one of the most highly respected citizens. He had been suffering for some time with Brights disease, but bore his sufferings with heroic courage.

Fayette B. Pomeroy was born at Troy, Pa., April 24, 1826. After receiving his education he was employed as traveling salesman by H. J. Grant of Ithaca, N. Y., and continued with that firm until 1870, when he moved to Dushore and engaged in the drug business which he continued to the time of his death. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Ellis of his native place, September 4, '66. Three children were born to them, Mrs. W. W. Appelman of Wilkes Barre, Mrs. W. W. Waddell, of Dushore, and Emily Pomeroy. Mr. Pomeroy was elected Associate Judge with President Judge Hon. Thos. J. Ingham in November 1876, on the Republican ticket, and at a time when the county was overwhelmingly Democratic. From that he acquired the title of "Judge" which still clings to his name.

Upon the organization of the First National Bank of Dushore he was elected one of the directors and by that body its vice-president and held that office two years, and subsequently elected president and has since held that office.

Deceased is survived by his wife, three brothers and two sisters, Augustus A., Charles B., Chauncey, Mary A. and Mrs. F. H. Huff of Troy, Pa.

The funeral was held from the late residence on Monday afternoon. All the business places were closed during the services.

The Diamond Dandies of Laporte, assisted by a number of street corner ball players from this town played Lopez on the latter's ground on Saturday. The contest lasted six innings when they tumbled to the knowledge that they did not understand the game and quit. The score stood 16-4 in favor of Lopez. The same afternoon the second nine of this place tackled the same weight of Lopez on the same grounds, and our boys did not seem to understand the game either, for when the game was called at the end of the seventh inning the score was 11-3 in favor of Lopez.
