

DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON.

SUNDAY'S DISCOURSE BY THE NOTED DIVINE.

Subject: "Our Own Times"—How We Can Better Our Generation—Our Responsibility to the Future—How We Can Help Our Neighbors.

Text: "David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep."—Acts xiii, 36.

That is a text which has for a long time been running through my mind. Sermons have a time to be born as well as a time to die; as cradle as well as a grave. David, how boy and stonemason, and fighter, and dramatist, and blank-verse writer, and prophet, did his best for the people of his time, and then went and laid down on the southern hill of Jerusalem that sound slumber which nothing but an archangel's blast can startle.

A TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

THE DRINK EVIL MADE MANIFEST IN MANY WAYS.

Touch Not the Cup—That Sterling "Journal of Civilization," Harper's Weekly, Provides Testimony With Strong Argument in Favor of Abstinence.

If you would have the rose be red, Or count her sweetness for a god, Have care no single drop to shed Of man's blood.

If you would have the snow be white When flakes are fluttering round you, Keep all your thoughts, though hid from sight, Clean, even as they.

If you would have true love at call, Forego the curious wiles of art, And strive to love men, first of all, With all your heart.

If you would have good men's respect, And walk securely in and out, Be sure the evil germ is checked Ere the bud sprout.

—Alice Cary.

Abstainers and Life Insurance.

Teetotallers will find a strong argument in favor of their attitude on the drink question in the recent report of James Melkie, of Birmingham, England, on the comparative value of abstainers and non-abstainers as subjects for life insurance. The report, according to a summary of it which is given by the New York Evening Post, is very favorable to the abstainers, and indicates that their lives should be insured at lower rates than those of their brethren who imbibe. Out of a large number of lives which Mr. Melkie drew conclusions from, he found that between the ages of twenty-five and thirty-four only a little more than half as many abstainers died as the actuary's tables gave reason to expect, between thirty-five and forty-four only about a third (34.4 per cent.) as many as was expected; between forty-five and fifty-four only half as many as were expected.

Again, let us look around and see how we can serve our generation. What are the plighted mortals we would be if we were anxious to die, and feed only the most insignificant part of a man, namely, his body, while we put forth no effort to clothe and feed and give him soul. Time is a little piece broken off of a great entity. What are we doing for the souls of this present generation? Let me say it is a generation worth saving. Most magnificent men and women are in it. We make a great ado about the improvements in navigation, and in locomotion, and in art and machinery. We remark what wonders of telegraph and telephone and the thestoscope. What improvement is electric light over a tallow candle? But all these improvements are insignificant compared with the improvement in the human race. In olden times, once in a while, a great and good man or woman would come up, and the world has made a great fuss about it ever since; but now they are so numerous that we speak of them as a class.

How to get saved? Be willing to accept Christ, and then accept Him instantaneously and forever. Get on the rock first, and then build the superstructure upon the same rock. Men and women have been saved quicker than I have been talking about it. What! Without a prayer? Yes. What! Without time to deliberately think over? Yes. What! Without a tear? Yes. What! Without a belief? Yes. What! Without a faith? Yes. What! Without a hope? Yes. What! Without a love? Yes. What! Without a will? Yes. What! Without a deed? Yes. What! Without a sacrifice? Yes. What! Without a cross? Yes. What! Without a crucifixion? Yes. What! Without a resurrection? Yes. What! Without a glorification? Yes. What! Without a glorification? Yes. What! Without a glorification? Yes.

Some Electrical Figures.

A local contributor who has been making a little investigation has dug out a number of very interesting electrical facts.

In 1884, he says, the total investment in electrical appliances throughout the United States did not aggregate much over $1,000,000, while today the capitalization of all the electrical concerns in the country is fully $1,900,000,000.

It is estimated that about $600,000,000 has been invested in electric lighting stations and plants in the United States. There are to-day in the United States about 14,000 miles of electric railroad, with a nominal capital of about $1,000,000,000 and employing about 170,000 men.

People can now actually converse at a distance of 1800 miles, and conversations at distances of 1500 miles are common. There are now nearly 1,000,000 telephones connected with this country's telephone service, employing a capitalization of about $100,000,000. Every day about 17,000 employees make on an average more than 3,000,000 telephone connections.—Electrical Review.

Perhaps the poorest opinion of music as a vocation is attributed to a builder in Glasgow. The man had sent his son to college, where the young fellow excelled in musical accomplishments. In course of time he announced to his father his firm intention to become a musician. The father objected vehemently. The son begged, and was at last affected to tears, declaring that he would never be happy in any other calling. This melted the father's heart, and he exclaimed: "All right, do as you like; but don't ever come round grinding your organ in front of my house!"—Waverly Magazine.

The Rush for Gold. From the Times, Bluff, Ill. The rush of gold seekers to the Klondike brings thrilling memories to the "forty-niners" still alive, of the time when they grided the continent, or faced the terrors of the great American desert on the journey to the land of gold. These pioneers tell some experiences which should be heeded by gold seekers of to-day. Constant exposure and faulty diet killed large numbers, while nearly all the survivors were afflicted with rheumatism.

Many of them with rheumatism. Such a sufferer as Adam Van gundy, who now resides at Bluffs, Ill., writes that he has been justly and was the first president of the Klondike. In a recent interview he said: "I had been a sufferer of rheumatism for a number of years and the pain at times was very intense. I tried all with proprietary medicines I could think of or hear of, but received no relief. I finally placed my case with several physicians and doctored with them for some time, but they failed to do me any good. Finally, with my hopes of relief nearly exhausted I read an article regarding 'Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People,' which induced me to try them. I was anxious to get rid of the terrible disease and bought two boxes of the pills. I began using them about March, 1897. After I had taken two boxes I was completely cured, and the pain has never returned. I think it is the best medicine I have ever taken, and will announce it at any time for my name to appear in any testimonial setting forth its good merits." (Signed) ADAM VANGUNDY.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 29th day of September, A. D. 1897. FRANKLIN C. FINE, Notary Public.

Mr. Vangundy's statement ought to be regarded as the criterion of the good merits of these pills. What better proof could a person want than the above facts. In Japan coins are generally of iron, and in Siam they are chiefly of porcelain.

Eight thousand carrier pigeons are kept for use in the German army. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists.

At a recent temperance meeting in Boston, Mass., it was stated that in one day 200,000 drinks were sold in the saloons of that city. In Massachusetts at present there are twenty cities and fifty-seven towns which have a liquor license. In their laws, and twelve cities and 264 towns which have voted for no license.

A corner's jury at Galesburg, Ill., recently returned a verdict condemning a liquor dealer who sold liquor to a man who was killed by the cars while drunk. The jury also found the dealer guilty for allowing the sale of liquor to drunkards.

One Good Spanish Viceroy.

On August 15, 1653, Don Francisco Fernandez de la Cueva, Duke of Albuquerque, started to rule New Spain as Viceroy.

He was one of the best Viceroyes that Mexico had. He waged relentless warfare on banditti in the highways and monopolists in the cities. During his Viceroyalty the English took Jamaica. It was Friar Gage who suggested this enterprise to Cromwell, having been in Mexico and the West Indies earlier in the century and knowing the defenseless condition of the coasts.

Albuquerque sent reinforcements to Jamaica and took measures to put the coasts of Mexico in a state of defense. He was the first to send settlers in considerable numbers to New Mexico, where his name, given to one of the towns, still survives. He was nearly assassinated by a soldier named Ledesma in the cathedral.

He was succeeded, in 1660, by the Conde de Banos, and was promoted to the Viceroyalty of Sicily.—Mexican Herald.

Most people appreciate a good thing at a fair price, but some few will only have the things that cost the most money. The Ivory is the favorite soap of most people. Some few want the high-priced toilet soaps and think they must be better because they cost more. No soap is more carefully made, or is made of better materials, than Ivory Soap. A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

These bonds are a first mortgage upon the entire plant, including buildings, land and other property of an Industrial Company located close to Chicago. The Company has been established for many years, is well-known and doing a large and increasing business. The officers of the Company are men of high reputation, esteemed for their honesty and business ability.
