LAST WEEK'S ELECTION

Republicans Carried Philadelphia by 43,667 Plurality.

FUSIONISTS SWEEP NEW YORK

Republicans Carried Pennsylvania by a Greatly Reduced Majority—The Result in New Jersey—Democrats Carry Maryland—Other States.

Harrisburg, Nov. 7.—While the Republicans carried the state of Pennsylvania by a handsome majority, the feature of the election was the immense drop in the size of the usual plurality. Whereas the usual figure has been 110,000, the result of Tuesday's vote shows that William P. Potter won by a margin of 46,336 in his fight for judge of the supreme court. Frank G. Harris was elected state treasurer and incidentally given a vote of greater confidence, with a plurality of 48,368.

The total vote for the leading candidates for state treasurer and supreme court justice follows:

Harris, Republican	433,488
Coray, Fusion	385,126
Harris' plurality	48,368

Justice of the Supreme Court.
Potter, Republican 431,443
Yerkes, Fusion 385,107

Potter's plurality 46,336
Allegheny county has given Harris 18,000 plurality and Potter 15,000. Chester county, a Republican stronghold, has been carried for Fusion, and Montgomery has gone the same way.

The total vote cast in the state was 850,000. The total vote cast last year was 1,173,210. Two years ago the total vote was 790,501.

Pennsylvania on Tuesday voted on three proposed amendments to the constitution, which provide for personal registration and voting machines. The propositions must, however, be acted upon by the legislature, which meets in 1903, before they can be embodied in the constitution.

The Vote in Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Notwithstanding the intense interest, the election throughout the city was conducted generally in an orderly manner. There were, however, numerous disputes at polling places and in a number of instances the disputants came away with broken heads, but no serious rows occurred anywhere. Both the regular Republicans and the Fusionists charge each other with wholesale fraud and promise to make numerous arrests. There were numerous arrests for violations of the election laws, but in nearly every case the offender was promptly bailed out by political friends.

John Weaver, the Republican candidate for district attorney, was elected over P. Fred. Rothermel, Jr., the Union party's nominee, the full returns from the 41 wards giving the Republican candidate a plurality of 43,667.

Maryland.
Baltimore, Nov. 8.—Complete returns from all the counties of the state and from the city of Baltimore show that Dr. Joshua W. Hering, the Democratic nominee for comptroller, has been re-elected by the very small plurality of 458.

Mr. Thomas Farran, of Calvert county, Republican, is elected clerk of the court of appeals by a plurality of 1,258 over J. Frank Turner, Democrat, of Talbot county, the present clerk. In the counties Mr. Turner had a plurality of 2,508, but was defeated in the city.

The legislature will stand as follows:

Senate.
Democrats	17
Republicans	9
Democratic majority in senate	8

House of Delegates.

Democrats	51
Republicans	44
Democratic majority in house	7

Dem. majority on joint ballot 15

Ohio.
Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—Governor Nash is re-elected by a majority of 67,661, more than he received two years ago. The Republicans have carried both houses of the legislature, thus insuring a Republican successor to Senator Foraker. The Democrats, however, declare that they won in many close legislative contests. Franklin county, in which is Columbus, gave Colonel Kilbourne, the Democratic candidate, a plurality, though elsewhere in the state the Republicans generally gained.

Rhode Island.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—Complete returns from the state give Gregory, Rep., for governor, 26,242; Garvin, Dem., 19,253. Gregory's plurality, 6,389, as against 8,859 last year. In the senate the Republicans have elected 31 members and the Democrats 7, and in the house the proportion is 51 Republicans to 4 Democrats.

Massachusetts.
Boston, Nov. 7.—Massachusetts gave Governor Crane, Republican, 70,304 plurality, a decrease of 33 1-2 per cent. from last year's plurality. Boston gave Josiah Quincy, the Democratic nominee, 7,700 plurality, about the same as W. J. Bryan received last year.

Nebraska.
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Nebraska has given a Republican majority of 7,000, thus electing Samuel H. Sedgwick as judge of the supreme court, and two regents for the State University over the Fusion nominees.

REPUBLICANS WIN NEW JERSEY
Murphy Elected Governor by 17,500 Plurality—Result in Atlantic.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Returns from the various counties of the state give Franklin Murphy, the Republican candidate for governor, a plurality of 17,500 over James M. Seymour, Democrat.

This is more than three times as much as Voorhees obtained for governor three years ago and about one-third the sweeping majority the state gave the national Republican ticket a year ago. Every county but four gave Murphy majorities. Hudson county, which is generally good for at least 10,000 Democratic, failed to reach that figure by 1,200. Camden county, where Seymour was expected to run very strong, despite the fact that the county is Republican, gave Murphy 4,745. McKinley's plurality in the county was 8,857, and three years ago Voorhees carried it by 4,105. Essex, which was the home county of both candidates, and where Seymour was expected to wipe out a Republican majority and obtain a thousand or so for himself, gave Murphy 6,773. Essex gave McKinley 18,583 a year ago, and Voorhees 4,687 three years ago.

The Legislature.
The Republicans will control both houses of the legislature by majorities of more than three to one.

Rep.	Dem.	Maj.
Senate	17	4
House	46	14
Joint ballot	63	18

Camden.
Camden, Nov. 7.—Recorder Joseph E. Nowrey, who was the Democratic candidate for mayor of Camden at Tuesday's election, was elected by a majority of 150. He was the only Democrat in the field who gained a victory, the Republicans having swept that town. Franklin Murphy, Republican candidate for governor, had a majority in the twelve wards of Camden of 3,500. All the Republican candidates for councils and freeholders were elected.

FUSION'S SWEEP IN NEW YORK
Low's Plurality is 29,864—Jerome Elected District Attorney.

New York, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from every district of Greater New York give Seth Low, Fusion candidate for mayor, 294,992, and Edward M. Shepard, Democratic candidate, 265,128, making Low's plurality 29,864.

Edward M. Grout, Fusionist candidate for controller, received 299,713 votes, and William Ladd, his Democratic opponent, 254,737, making the plurality of the Fusionist 44,976.

Returns from every election district in New York county give William Travers Jerome, Fusionist, a lead of 15,880 over Henry W. Unger, Democrat, in the race for the district attorneyship. The vote of the two follows: Jerome, 163,959; Unger, 148,079.

Complete returns show the election of the following justices of the supreme court: Morgan J. O'Brien, Democrat and Fusionist; Samuel Greenbaum, Fusionist; James A. Blanchard, Fusionist; John Proctor Clarke, Fusionist. Clarke, who got the smallest plurality of any of the men elected, headed Charles W. Dayton, the nearest man to him on the judicial ticket, by 6,116 votes, and beat Robert A. Van Wyck, the present mayor, by 29,080.

In the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, the following are the totals for mayor: Low (Fusion), 143,951; Shepard (D.), 136,192.

In the borough of Brooklyn: Low, 105,512; Shepard, 84,074.

In the borough of Queens: Low, 12,095; Shepard, 12,602.

In the borough of Richmond: Low, 6,750; Shepard, 6,046.

Virginia.
Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Virginia has given 30,000 majority for the Democratic ticket. Colored men who voted were very few.

The Republicans gain two senators and eight members of the house, leaving both branches of the legislature overwhelmingly Democratic.

Iowa.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—Iowa has elected A. B. Cummins, the Republican nominee for governor, by a plurality of 92,000, and the legislature, which will elect two United States senators. The Republicans are surprised at the large plurality, which exceeds that for president last year.

Thrilling Escape From Death.
Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 11.—I. N. Deighley, master mechanic at the Continental Coke Works, had a thrilling escape from an awful death. He was standing on the cage at the top of the tippie, 380 feet from the bottom of the shaft, prying with a crowbar, when the cage suddenly dropped from under him. He clutched the crowbar and hung over the mouth of the shaft, but could not escape. The crowbar was slipping when he attracted help by his cries.

Rural Delivery in Delaware.
Dover, Del., Nov. 11.—The establishment of the rural free delivery for Kent county will probably not be ordered until the last of December, but it is thought that the system will be in operation by Christmas. Congressional Ball is keeping in touch with the residents of this section and holding conferences, in order that the appointments of carriers may be made in a business-like way.

Fatal Accident on Warship.
Athens, Nov. 11.—A terrible gun accident occurred on Saturday on board the British battleship Royal Sovereign outside of Astak harbor. An artilleryman forgot to close the breech before the gun was fired. One officer and six artillerymen were killed outright, the bodies being terribly mutilated, and the captain and thirteen sailors were seriously injured.

LI HUNG CHANG IS DEAD
The Famous Statesman Died Surrounded by Wife and Children.

Pekin, Nov. 7.—Li Hung Chang died at 11 o'clock this morning. The wife of Li and his two sons and daughter were with him when he died.

The end was quiet. His vitality slowly ebbed. For a time he lost consciousness, but he showed great tenacity, rallied at midnight, became semi-conscious, partook of nourishment and appeared to recognize his relatives. The foreign doctors left him early Wednesday, saying that nothing more could be done. His personal physician, Dr. Watt, then took charge. The controversy between the foreign and Chinese doctors had no effect on the patient, because he was already beyond hope of recovery.

The flames of the procession of paper effigies, chairs and horses burned in the courtyard of the yamen to carry his spirit to heaven, told the crowd of officials who were gathered in the narrow street outside the yamen that the end had come. Soon afterward a procession appeared bearing a costly coffin of teakwood, beautifully lacquered. This coffin Li Hung Chang took on his trip around the world, and he brought it from Canton when he came to Peking to settle the "Boxer" troubles. Since that time it had been kept in a temple here.

Horse Thief Publicly Whipped.
Dover, Del., Nov. 11.—William H. Decker was publicly whipped in the jail yard on Saturday by Sheriff Frank Reedy for horse stealing. The sentence was 20 lashes, which was the lightest that could be given under the statute which provides for the punishment of horse thieves. Decker is a middle-aged man and very frail, and it was feared that the flogging would cause an attack of heart failure, to which he is subject. Sheriff Reedy, however, applied the lash quickly and rapidly, and Decker was soon back in his cell. The prisoner, who appeared to lose his nerve entirely when taken to the post, became composed after the ordeal was over, and thanked the wardens for their care.

Record Price For Cattle.
Chicago, Nov. 8.—Cicely, a short-horn cow, recently of the Queen Victoria herd in England, was sold here yesterday for $5,000 to J. J. Robbins & Sons, of Horace, Ind. The animal cost Queen Victoria $4,000 a few years ago. Twenty other cows and bulls realized an average price of $1,323. These are record figures for short-horn cattle for the past 25 years.

Trolley Car Attacked by Mob.
Scranton, Pa., Nov. 11.—A trolley car on the Luzerne street line, near Eighteenth street, yesterday afternoon was attacked by a mob with stones. The non-union conductor, John Kroeber, of New York, was struck on the head by a stone and badly injured. He had to be taken to a hospital. All the windows in the car were smashed and the trolley pole broken.

Shot His Hand Off.
Annapolis, Md., Nov. 9.—Harry M. Revell, son of the late Dr. Harry M. Revell, of Anne Arundel county, accidentally shot his right hand off while squirrel hunting. He was pulling his gun after him, when the trigger caught in some vines and the weapon was discharged.

Davy, W. Va., Nov. 11.—John Isaacs and Homer Frowell, white, and Tom Tolesman, colored, all miners, were killed near here by the accidental explosion of several kegs of powder in a shafty.
