CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Mrs. M. B. Trout who spent the past two months visiting friends in Adams, York, Lancaster and other counties returned home on Saturday last.

Rev. C. W. Seville is spending a few days here in waiting to enter the White Pine Sanatorium as a tuberculosis patient. Charles's many friends hope for a speedy and permanent recovery.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

One of the big annoyances to grocers is the man or woman who persists in pinching everything in the fruit line they can get their fingers on to its injury at the time and early destruction by decay. Why don't they confine their pinching to the coconuts and walnuts?

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

After having spent two years farming for Bert Henry and residing in the tenant house on the James Henry farm north of town Mr. A. J. Mellott with his family, returned to his farm in Whips Cove last week. Mr. Mellott and family are fine people and we are sorry to lose them from this side of the County.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

Among the out of town friends and relatives who attended the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Mock were George and Warren Miller, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Frank Miller, Hollidaysburg; Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Miller and daughter Olive and Mrs. Blair Appleby, Shade Gap, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Mock, Burd Cabins, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman, Knobsville.

Pennsylvania merchants who prepare their stock of Christmas nuts by mixing old dried-out and wormy goods of last Christmas season with just enough new fresh nuts to give a hint of the real thing, are going to run the risk of losing their ill-earned profits on the conglomeration by paying a fine of $60, the State Dairy and Food Department having decided to extend its chestnut crusade to all forms of nuts.

Birthday Oyster Supper.

An oyster supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barton, last Saturday evening, in honor of their son Bruce whose twenty-first birthday was Dec. 4th. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games. Bruce received many nice presents of which he is justly proud. Those present were Sadie, Lydia, Ada, Ella, Celia, Seibert, Ross, Brice, Walter, Gilliland, Eaton and Geo. Barton; Clarence, Russell, Jas. and Homer Akers; Amy and George Lodge; William and Elmer Cleveland; George and Clad Easley; Nora and Luis Schenck; Howard and Clara Whitfield; Lulu Mills, Mamie Golden, Olive Hixson, Ross Jackson, Earl Truax, Pierce Kelo, Marabell Lynch and Grant Simpson.

SEALS FOR SALE.

Don't You Want to Help in The Fight Against Consumption?

No people are so greatly in earnest as the Red Cross Society in their effort to destroy the Demon Tuberculosis that is destroying the lives of millions of people every year. To carry on this warfare takes money, and one means the Society is using is the selling of pretty seals to put on your letters or packages during the holiday season. A few pennies spent in this way will show to your friend that you are alive to the danger of the White Plague, and are enlisted in the fight for its destruction. You can get the seals at the First National Bank for a penny each, and no one gets any commission on sales. It is purely a work of love.

OAK GROVE.

Listen for wedding bells. Dallas Kerlin is on the sick list. Mrs. John Bergstresser has returned home from Kittanning, Pa., where she had been visiting her daughter Mrs. Wilbur Mills. The school children had a rest during institute week.

Mrs. J. R. McKelvey is visiting at her cousin Mrs. S. S. Gaster's. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Shore are the proud parents of a new baby boy.

Frank Benson has returned home from a hunting trip, and by all accounts is feasting on bear and deer meat.

George Bolinger is the champion butcher, having butchered five days last week.

Oak Grove school has received a library and the boys and girls are spending their nights at home reading good literature.

Mrs. Samuel Gladfelter is visiting her son Frank at Juniata, S. S. Gaster was at Mt. Union on business last Saturday.

Harry Benson as returned home from Franklin county where he has been employed for some time and has located at Wells Tannery.

The mother of Samuel Gaster being very poorly at his home, some of the neighbors and friends of his and his good wife surprise them by coming with knives last Thursday and helped them butcher three fine porkers which tip the scales at over 1,000 pounds. Those present were: George Bolinger and wife, Wm. Kerling and wife, James Benson and wife and J. R. McKelvey.

Saved From Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

WELLS TANNERY.

Mrs. J. R. Hunter, of Lewis town, is visiting her parents, Captain and Mrs. Harvey Wishart.

Custer Smith of Brush Creek has moved his family into the Elias House.

Joe Horton who moved to Glen dale about six weeks ago, moved back to our town last week. This shows there are worse places than Wells Tannery.

Mary Dennisar, of Saxton, and Mrs. Belle Hastings of Kearney, spent Saturday and Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Samuel Dennisar.

Will Madara of Altoona is visiting in the home of W. L. Sprowl. Miss Edith McCahan of Saxton was the guest of Mrs Paul Baumgardner, last week.

One of the greatly surprised men was Hayes R. Bivens last Tuesday evening when fifty-five of his neighbors rushed in on him to celebrate his birthday. They say a woman can't keep secrets. This don't apply to Mrs. Bivens, for she had been planning this affair for two weeks, and baked cakes galore for the happy crowd who, not only spent the evening pleasantly but half the night. Hayes was the recipient of many useful gifts, for which he is very thankful.

Card of Thanks.
