Runyan the Eye Man

at McConnellsburg, Friday and Saturday, February 25th and 26th

The farmland on the McDonald tract near Saluvia was not sold as reported.

Mrs. Grove Keefer (Annie Kendall,) of Chambersburg, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Kendall, in Big Cove.

Three car loads of horses were shipped out of Franklin county last week. Twenty-eight of the finest went to New York. One farmer received a little over $500 for one pair.

Dr. F. K. Stevens will be at Dr. Davis's office, Hustontown, 1st; 2nd, and 3rd day of March; at Dr. Palmer's office, at Needmore, on the 13th; at Brodbeck's Hotel, Burnt Cabins, on the 15th.

W. Erby Booth, one of Thompson township's school directors, was in town last Friday attending the Directors Convention, and was a profitable caller at the NEWS office.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Calvin Perry was the first Franklin county citizen to claim the five-dollar bounty for having killed a dog while it was chasing deer. Last week he found two dogs pursuing a doe that was nearly exhausted. He killed one of the dogs and badly wounded the other.

Mr. Frank Ranck, of Bethel township, is in Florida eating ripe oranges fresh from the trees while we are shivering and filling our ice houses. We received a picture post card from him a few days ago showing a big pineapple plantation. He's going to tell us more of what he saw when he returns.

Frank Skiles, of Pleasant Ridge and Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Palmer of Needmore, made a trip to McConnellsburg Monday in Frank's Maxwell. From all that we can gather from tourists, the road between Harrisonville and Scrub Ridge was never in such a wretchedly bad condition—even in ante-Lincoln Highway days.

Bedford, Centre, Columbia, Elk, Fulton, Mercer, Somerset, Tioga and Washington counties showed gains of 10 per cent, in the number of automobiles owned by farmers compared with a year ago. Allegheny, Bradford, Chester, Erie, Franklin, Lackawanna, Northampton, Perry, Schuylkill and Westmoreland counties showed gains of 80 per cent.

Twenty-four Adams county men met in Gettysburg last week and organized the Adams County Game and Fish Protective Association. It seems that the call for the organization came from farmers who desire clean sport. One of them asked to be sworn in as deputy game protector to serve without pay. He did not care to see his friends arrested for violations, but he wanted to stop illegal fishing and the killing of squirrels out of season in his locality. He received his appointment.

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Community Day.

Petersburg, six miles west of Huntingdon, Pa., is, doubtless, enjoying a big get-together jollification to-day. February 24th was selected as the date for a big meeting of farmers and citizens of the town. They have named it "Community Day." In addition to "big eats" at noon, the entertainment will include addresses by State College instructors, and others.

Only a few days ago, we read a severe criticism of the spirit that seems to separate, in many places, the people of the country from those of little towns whose sole existence depends upon the welfare of the surrounding territory. Like many city writers on rural subjects, the critic advanced some impractical suggestions, but he did repeat several good American ideas that have been preached for generations, one of which is, that there is no better way to build up a community than that of frequent business and social meetings of town and country people. There is nothing so good as a working knowledge of the needs of both sides since their welfare is inseparable.

Fined $60 and Costs.

We presume it will be safe to call for boiled eggs in the neighborhood of Landisburg, Perry county, for some time to come. Last week C. P. Stewart, of that place, was fined $60 and costs—$68.52 in all—for selling bad eggs. This is the first prosecution we have heard from outside of large cities. But the eggs did not "go bad" in the city—they were bad in the nests, and only last spring the NEWS predicted that the law would reach out to the source of bad eggs.

Brumbaugh Against Booze.

On February 19, Governor Brumbaugh addressed 300 ministers and Bible Class members in Philadelphia urging them to renew their fight for local option and civil and social reform in the state and city governments. He attacked crooked political leadership, crooked elections and boss control of legislation, and made a plea for "Christian, God-fearing citizenship of the kind that will" pray as they vote.

February Sale

February Sale

SIERER'S Furniture Store

Chambersburg, Pa.

We want to interest our McConnellsburg Patrons in our

ANNUAL FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

During this month we offer unusual inducements in every department of our store.

This sale occurs but once in every twelve months; it is not an accidental happening, but a well planned sale that we conduct to weed out our discontinued patterns, odd pieces and small assortments.

We have been told repeatedly that Furniture can be bought here for less money than elsewhere. Why we can sell cheaper, is no secret;

FOR, 63 YEARS,

We have been conducting a Furniture Store at the same location, have studied the business, and have built up a good trade by selling dependable furniture.

We own the building, which, with our location and expense-saving, makes our cost of doing business, less than stores more centrally located—hence, our ability to sell cheaper.

On Tuesday the February Sale price tag went on all reduced pieces, and the Sale will continue during the entire month.
