COUNCILMAN
PASSES AWAY

Samuel Goldsmith Dies After a Brief Illness—His Career.
Councilman Samuel Goldsmith, whose serious illness has been noted in these columns, died yesterday morning at 10:38 o'clock. Mr. Goldsmith had been ill for two months, his affliction being cancer of a malignant type, which developed with great rapidity. Four weeks ago he took his bed. His suffering during the last several weeks was most intense. He bore up, however, with remarkable fortitude and, fully aware of the hopelessness of his case, calmly and without a murmur awaited the end.
Samuel Goldsmith was born in Hesse Cassel, Germany, 46 years ago. He emigrated to this country in 1857. He landed in Baltimore and four years later came to Danville where he began his married life and has since resided. For many years he followed merchant tailoring, his establishment being on Mill street. Some five years ago he retired from business. He was one of our leading Hebrew citizens, a careful conservative man, public spirited and honorable in all his dealings. At the time of his death he was serving his second term as member of the borough council from the Third Ward. He was also one of the trustees of the Thomas Beaver Free Library. He was a member of Mahoning Lodge, No. 516, F. & A. M. He was also an Odd Fellow, a member of Montour lodge, 109, belonging to this order for a period of 40 years. He was also a member of Hermon Lodge, B'nai B'rith, this city. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Rose, wife of Max Gross, of Bloomsburg; Minnie, wife of Harry Ellenbogen, Misses Bertha, Ida, Blanche and Gertrude of this city, William and Simon of Buffalo, and Charles, an attorney, of Philadelphia.
The funeral will take place Friday at 2 p. m. The burial will be conducted with Masonic ceremony.

Eight Hundred Mile Drive.

Among the sojourners in this city over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Savage of Chazy, N. Y., who are driving to the Shenandoah valley, Virginia. They arrived in this city yesterday Saturday night having covered less than one-half of their long journey of eight hundred or a thousand miles.
Mr. Savage has two large strong horses and a comfortable covered wagon which answers as a home for the travelers during their long trip. While here they camped in the vacant livery stable at the rear of S. F. Ricketts' store, but Mr. Savage says that when suitable he prefers to camp out of doors where he sleeps perfectly secure guarded by a large and faithful watchdog which accompanies the wagon.
On July 4th Mr. and Mrs. Savage stopped at Plymouth, Luzerne county, to celebrate the day. They were two days covering the distance between that place and Danville. The distance traveled per day, Mr. Savage says, varied from twenty to thirty-five miles according to the degree of heat and the condition of the roads.
Mr. Savage says he is in no hurry, as his object is to see the country and enjoy the outing; otherwise he would have traveled by rail. The climate of Northern New York is too cold to suit his taste and he expects to locate in the Shenandoah valley, where the winters are less severe. It will be some two or three weeks before they complete their journey.

Pleasure Trip That was Spoiled.

As Miss Jennie Boden, of Union Corner, her guest, Mrs. Jones, of Denver, Col., and Harry Lyon, of this city, were driving up Northumberland street in a buggy last evening the dash board broke which caused the horse to kick. The three occupants of the buggy got out as best they could, but not until Miss Boden was slightly injured by a blow from the horse's foot. The animal finally kicked himself loose from the vehicle and ran through town dragging one of the shafts after him. He was caught at the Hotel Oliver. There was a good bit of excitement on Mill street until it was learned whether or not those in the buggy escaped injury.

Narrow Escape From Drowning.

While fishing at Cameron, Tuesday, Benjamin Nevius came within an ace of drowning as the result of a sudden attack of illness which is attributed to the effects of the heat. In company with Andrew Schott and Thomas Neville he had just cast his line into the river where the water was some fifteen feet deep. He was standing on his boat when he was heard to utter a peculiar sound and the next moment fell into the river. He was taken from the water by his two companions assisted by some others near. He was found to be unconscious. He was finally revived after being taken on shore, but not until after two hours' hard work.

Aged Woman Passes Away.

Mrs. Mary O'Driscoll, mother of Michael J. O'Driscoll, No. 256 West Mahoning street, was found dead in bed Sunday morning. The deceased, who was very old, although her exact age could not be ascertained, had been bedridden for a period of five years. She was born in Ireland, emigrating to this country fifty years ago. For a number of years she resided in Williamsport, returning to Danville twenty-one years ago. Within recent years she sustained several strokes of paralysis. Her son, Michael, is the only survivor.
Seats along the river bank are popular places during the hot weather.

Some doubt being expressed as to whether the ground in question belongs to the Reading Iron Company or to the individual property owners there, it was on motion of Mr. Sechler ordered that the alley be surveyed, the Street Commissioner and the Committee on Streets and Bridges to be present with the borough surveyor.
On motion of Mr. Brandt the Friendship Fire Company was granted permission to hold festivals on Market Square. The following bills were ordered paid:

A Sneak Thief's Bold Trick.

A well dressed stranger called at the home of Postmaster T. J. Price just before noon yesterday and asked to see the lady of the house. Mrs. Price was occupied up stairs and the stranger, who was admitted by Florence, the daughter, said he would wait in the hall until Mrs. Price came down. Miss Florence stepped into another room and from there saw the stranger examine several umbrellas in the rack, finally appropriating an elegant silver mounted one with a pearl handle after which he tiptoed out the house, quietly closed the door after him and skipped.
Miss May James saw the man pass her father's store and a minute or so later Master Edward Price came up with a story of the theft, but not until the man had disappeared. Just about that time Mr. James' delivery wagon came in and the merchant accompanied by his daughter and Master Edward Price mounted the wagon and started in pursuit. They visited two depots and were on their way to Riverside when near the other end of the bridge they ran across the man wanted with the umbrellas under his arm.
The fellow made no denial, but promptly handed over the umbrella. Mr. James told him to consider himself under arrest, but he begged so hard that he was finally permitted to go his way.

Still Another New Industry.

A stove polish factory is the latest industry to spring into existence in this city. A company of local capitalists is interested in the concern with H. C. Wheaton of Philadelphia. The polish will be manufactured in the Danville Mercantile Company's warehouse on Railroad street. Daniel Dietrich, of Sunbury, the inventor, will be the general manager. Mr. Dietrich is a familiar figure in Danville having canvassed the town many times selling this commodity under the name of the Black Diamond Polish. The name has been changed to Black Beauty and the company will be known as the Black Beauty Stove Polish Company. There will be an office and warehouse at 117 Market street, Philadelphia. Female help will be employed.

One of the Heat Victims.

FREDERICK REAM ELECTED

Made Principal of the Second Ward Building.
The school board held a regular meeting Monday night, the following members in their places: Fisher, Orth, Barber, Burger, Green, Harpel, Werkheiser, Keefer, Black, Byerly and Curry. The principal business on hand was the election of a principal for the Second Ward schools.
Dr. Harpel reported that the Committee on Teachers and Certificates met on the evening of July 5 and unanimously agreed upon Frederick Ream as principal of the Second Ward Grammar school. Mr. Ream was nominated before the board by Mr. Keefer. A ye a nay vote resulted in his election, eleven directors supporting him and one—Dr. Curry—not voting.
On motion of Mr. Green it was decided that the borough school property on Railroad street, consisting of a one-story school house and a dwelling, for which there is no use at present, be offered for sale. It will be disposed of at public sale.
Secretary Orth reported that the Supply Committee met and awarded contracts for supplies as follows:
A. H. Grono.....$72.84
C. H. Schmid..... 186.11
Acme Supply Co..... 25.76
J. L. Olcott & Co..... 18.10
The Building and Repair Committee presented a list of improvements needed at the different schools. The repairs were all of a minor order with the exception of the Fourth Ward, where the stack of the heating system was ordered raised, an addition of some twenty-five feet to be built on top to increase the draught. This improvement will cost some $100.
Treasurer Schram presented his statement of finances, which showed a balance on hand of $2930.34.
On motion of Dr. Curry the officers of the school board were instructed to sign the application of Miss Sara Williams for a State Normal diploma.
The contract for supplying the borough schools with coal was awarded to A. C. Amesbury. Mr. Amesbury's figures were as follows: No. 2, $3.89; No. 6, $3.59. Mr. Boyer's figures were: No. 6, $2.90; No. 2, $4.25.

Train Jumpers Come to Grief.

Frank McCaffrey and Francis Matthews, boys about 16 years of age, were arrested before Justice Bare yesterday morning on the charge of trespassing. The two boys jumped a train on the P. & R. railway, Tuesday afternoon, riding to Newberry, where they spent the night. They were returning yesterday morning on a freight, when they were arrested at Mooresburg by two Coal and Iron Policemen.
As it was the boys' first arrest the officers were disposed to be lenient and agreed to drop the case if the costs were paid, and the boys given a reprimand by the justice. The boys, McCaffrey, father of one of the boys, appeared and paid one-half of the costs. Young Matthews was given until this morning to collect enough money to liquidate his share of the costs. The justice warned the boys that if they appeared before him again he would hand them over to court which might imply several weeks in jail awaiting trial and a term in the House of Correction to end with.

Shovel Factory Will Soon Start.

The new machinery has all arrived on the ground at the shovel factory and in a short time it will be installed. We were informed yesterday that in three weeks' time at the furthest, the works will be ready for operation, which will add a hundred or more men to the roll of wage earners in Danville. While a few employees, especially skilled in the work will be needed who will be brought from other places, yet the majority of the employees will be local workmen, a large number of whom have already made application for places in the plant.

Buy Times At Curry & Vannan's

Curry & Vannan have just completed a very fine piece of work for the Lukens Iron and Steel Company, of Coatesville, in the form of a plate straightening machine weighing 40,000 pounds. These works are kept busy in all departments filling their orders.
Mr. Vannan says he has never known business to continue in a more healthful state. And the best thing about it, he says, is that there are no booms. There is just a steady drift of things, in which the product and the demand are nicely balanced.
Interesting Church Service.
The services at St. Paul's M. E. church Sunday were decidedly interesting and impressive in character. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated both morning and evening. S. R. Thomas, a basso profundo, sang at both services and created a great impression. He possesses a remarkable bass voice singing with great ease and expression. His register is remarkable and his low tones were true and resonant. There was a large congregation present at both services.

Ten-Day Excursion.

The first low-rate excursion to Atlantic City this season will be run via Philadelphia & Reading Railway on Thursday, July 18th. Fortunately the horses were easily controlled and no one was injured.

MISS DERR'S
BAD FALL

Sad Result of a Trip Into the Country Saturday.
As the result of a trip into the country Miss Carrie Derr, 21 years of age, lies at her home, Mill street, in a critical condition suffering from a serious injury to her spine, sustained by a fall from a cherry tree.
Saturday last she joined several young friends on a drive to the farm of Wilbur Farnbacher, Liberty township. It was in the midst of the cherry season and the young people were soon amusing themselves by climbing about among the cherry trees. Miss Derr was seated on a limb some eight feet from the ground, when she lost her balance. As she fell one of the young men to save her grasped her dress. The goods, however, gave way and she accomplished nothing more than slightly breaking her fall. She alighted upon her back and at once experienced an agony of pain. From that moment to the present she has lain practically helpless.
All pleasure for the day was at an end and the party sadly returned to town, bringing with them the injured girl.

Entertaining Lecture.

The annual visit of Eugine Madge Wilson, a prominent member of the Salvation Army, is always of interest not only to the local corps but to religious people in general outside the organization. Eugine Wilson is the daughter of Rev. Henry Wilson, D. D., pastor of the Rev. Dr. Rainford of St. George's Episcopal church, one of the largest and most influential churches in New York City. A speaker of strong and pleasing personality, lucid style, and pleasing delivery she held a representative audience at St. Paul's M. E. church spell bound Friday night. She took as her subject: "Work and Methods of the Salvation Army."
Beginning with the birth of the organization in England 36 years ago, she reviewed the struggles, the derision and ill treatment encountered and dwelt with enthusiasm upon its final triumph, upon the conversions made under the most trying circumstances and its ultimate recognition by persons of education, prominence and wealth. She read the endorsements of many distinguished people, including Queen Victoria, Lady Henry Somerset, Frances Willard and others.

Tennis Club Organized.

Lawn tennis is to be revived in Danville. Several lovers of the game in this city are endeavoring to form a tennis club. A vacant lot on West Mahoning street well adapted to the purpose has been secured as a ground and it is being put in shape as rapidly as possible. The first game may be played Wednesday next.
The following persons have already joined the club: William V. Oglesby, Esq., Purcell F. Angle, Edward Shultz, Charles Watson, E. F. Williams, J. O. Reed, Clarence Derr, Frank Newbaker, Dr. J. M. Baldy, Dr. I. H. Jennings, Ralph B. Diehl, and Stuart Rote.

Mrs. G. W. Peifer's Bad Fall.

Mrs. George W. Peifer, Mill street, met with a bad fall Monday. She accompanied her husband on a drive to their farm a couple of miles out of town and while there spent the time picking cherries. She was standing on a wagon, which had been driven under one of the trees. In order to reach the fruit she stepped upon one of the wheels, supporting herself by an overhanging limb, which unfortunately broke. She fell head first to the ground, bruising both knees and badly spraining her right wrist.
Wedding Anniversary.
The twelfth wedding anniversary of Professor and Mrs. C. W. Blakeslee was very pleasantly celebrated at Kipp's Run Tuesday. Professor and Mrs. Blakeslee, who reside at Long Branch, N. GOODRICH POST
WILL CAMP

A Two Weeks' Outing at DeWitt's Park Beginning July 23.
DeWitt's Park during the next few weeks through the efforts of Goodrich Post, No. 22, G. A. R., will afford something entirely new and unique in the line of entertainment. It will be a grand outing and picnic known as Post Camp No. 22, beginning Tuesday, July 23, and continuing for two weeks.
Tents will be erected in the park and the veterans will go into camp, living as far as possible the life of the soldier days over again. On the evenings of July 26th and 27th and of July 30th and August 3rd, there will be a grand camp fire, when several posts from neighboring towns will be present by invitation.
The post has planned for a general accommodation of the public and our citizens are invited to join with the veterans in their outing. Five hundred persons will be provided for. A large dining tent to be erected will seat five hundred at one time. Lodging also will be provided, all that is asked being that each person bring his own pillow, comfort or blanket. Single meals, which can be had at all hours, will be furnished at 25 cents. Lodging by the week (six days) will cost $3.75. In addition to music and dancing, amusements of all sorts will be in vogue.
The camp will no doubt prove very popular and it is expected that many families who heretofore went down the river or elsewhere camping will this year join the veterans in their outing, as thus they will not only be relieved from the burden of providing for the table and cooking, but they will also have an opportunity of seeing something of soldiers' life and their methods of whiling away time when in camp during the Civil war. The Post will be obliged to go to considerable expense and it asks for a liberal support, not only from all soldiers and sailors, but from the general public. All the proceeds over and above the cost will go to Goodrich Post, No. 22, G. A. R. Hacks will run daily between this city and DeWitt's Park. Joseph Shannon, Robert Miller, Ellis Rauck and Levi B. Sechler compose the committee. All inquiries should be addressed to Levi B. Sechler.

Training School Commencement.

The ninth annual commencement of the training school for attendants will be held at the State Hospital for the Insane tonight. These exercises are usually very interesting, although the attendance beyond the Hospital staff and patients is usually restricted to members of the press and a few friends of the graduates. The class of 1901 is made up of the following persons:
Jennie E. McClain, Miriam A. Rank, M. Jane Kopenhefer, Joyce B. Andrews, Sadie B. Schooley, Anna M. Hock, Nora B. Troutman, Blanche E. Milliken, Essie M. Rishel, Kathryn L. Gelmet, Jessie E. Rogers, Carrie A. E. LeFever, Lee Kaufman, Roy L. Bishop, J. Wesley Campbell, Harry S. Davis, P. Monroe Lov, Henry Wilson, D. D., nurse to the Rev. Dr. Rainford of St. George's Episcopal church, one of the largest and most influential churches in New York City. A speaker of strong and pleasing personality, lucid style, and pleasing delivery she held a representative audience at St. Paul's M. E. church spell bound Friday night. She took as her subject: "Work and Methods of the Salvation Army."
Beginning with the birth of the organization in England 36 years ago, she reviewed the struggles, the derision and ill treatment encountered and dwelt with enthusiasm upon its final triumph, upon the conversions made under the most trying circumstances and its ultimate recognition by persons of education, prominence and wealth.
