EDUCATIONAL.

ST. JOSEPH SELECT SCHOOL. NAPOLEON AVENUE.

CONDUCTED BY THE SISTERS OF CHARITY. The course of instruction in this Institution includes all the branches of a polite education; and every effort is made to give to the youthful mind, and make the acquisition of religious and literary knowledge as attractive as it is important.

ST. PETERS SCHOOL. SECOND AND THIRD DISTRICTS.

Under the Direction of the Rev. C. MOYNIHAN. This School will be opened on TUESDAY, September 1, 1868, under the above direction, assisted by a full corps of teachers. Promotions will then take place in all the classes, and at the same time a graduating class will be formed.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL. NEAR CORNER OF COMMON AND MARAIS STREETS, New Orleans, Louisiana.

This Parochial School, under the direction of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, will reopen on TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1868. The remainder of the year will be its steady increase in the number of its pupils, and the large amount of public confidence with which it has been favored, especially during the past session, recommend it to the attention of parents and guardians.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION. The course of instruction pursued in this School is divided into three departments: The Primary, the Intermediate, and the Commercial.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION. To secure and preserve the health of the pupils, the Sisters pay particular attention to the quality of the diet, assuring themselves that it is both wholesome and nutritious; while abundance leaves no room for those ailments and diseases which result from the want of relaxation as so distributed that neither mind nor body should suffer from too continued an application to study.

TUITION. The system of education embraces the French and English languages. The branches of the course are: Reading, Writing, French and English Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra, and Modern Geography, the use of the Globes, Prose and Poetical Composition, History—Ancient and Modern, Sacred and Profane—Chronology, French and English Literature, Mythology, Rhetoric, Natural History, and Modern Geography, Botany, Book-keeping, Mathematics, etc. Music, Drawing, Plain and Ornamental Needle-work, Tapestry, Embroidery, Artificial Flowers, etc.

TERMS.—PAYMENTS TO BE MADE QUARTERLY, IN ADVANCE. Board and Tuition in French and English, per month, $3.00. Entrance Fee for the first year only, $10.00.

EXTRA CHARGES. Music on the Piano, per quarter, $3.00. Vocal Music, $2.00. Use of Globes, $2.00. Stationery, $2.00. Washing, $2.00. Tapesstry and Embroidery, $3.00. Artificial Flowers, $3.00. Drawing, $2.00. Painting, $2.00. Baths for the summer season, $2.00.

BOOKS FOR THE COURSE may be supplied by the parents or guardians, or procured at the Institution at moderate prices. Quarterly examinations are held, the results of which are transmitted by bulletin to the parents and guardians. Besides, monthly reports of conduct and progress are sent to the parents and guardians.

CHARTER OF THE NEW ORLEANS CATHOLIC PUBLICATION COMPANY.

ARTICLE I. STATE OF LOUISIANA, Parish of Orleans, City of New Orleans. BE IT KNOWN THAT ON THIS SIXTEENTH day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-second, before me, Wm. Joseph Castell, Notary Public in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared, the parties hereinafter named and undersigned, who declare that, availing themselves of the provisions of the statutes of Louisiana relative to the organization of corporations, they have agreed to form themselves into a corporation for the following specified objects and under the following stipulations, to-wit:

ARTICLE II. The official name of the corporation shall be the New Orleans Catholic Publication Company.

ARTICLE III. The business and legal domicile of the corporation shall be in the City of New Orleans, subject to removal only by a vote of three-fourths of the bona fide stock holders with the consent of the President.

ARTICLE IV. The object of this company is to publish a newspaper in the City of New Orleans and make such other publications as may hereafter be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V. The Vice President of the Company is the officer on whom, as such, situations may be served, and in whose name suit will be brought.

ARTICLE VI. The Capital Stock of the Corporation is fixed at One Hundred Thousand ($100,000) Dollars, in Five Thousand Shares of Twenty Dollars each, and each share is to be paid for at the time of signing, and the remainder whenever called in by the Board of Directors, at any time after sixty days shall have elapsed from the date of the act of incorporation, provided said remainder may be paid at any time, voluntarily by the stockholder, without any call of the Board, entitling him to a proportional dividend.

ARTICLE VII. This Corporation shall commence operations as soon as Two Hundred Shares of the Capital Stock is subscribed, and immediately thereafter the Stockholders may most and a portion of the Board of Directors, Directors must be stockholders; each share of stock subscribed shall be entitled to one vote. Stockholders may vote in person or by proxy of another stockholder.

ARTICLE VIII. In case it should become necessary to place this corporation in liquidation, there shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, such a number of persons as shall represent them, and whose signature shall be binding on the Company, in such capacity.

ARTICLE IX. No stockholder will be held responsible for any liability of the Company beyond the amount of his stock.

ARTICLE X. There shall be no sale of stock without the consent of the Board of Directors. No stock will be recognized unless approved by the Board.

ARTICLE XI. The First President of the Board of Directors shall be the Most Rev. Jean Maréchal, Bishop of New Orleans.

ARTICLE XII. The Board of Directors shall consist of, besides the President, First, four members who shall be Clergymen, and five lay members, to be elected by a vote of the remaining Directors of this class. The Vice President to decide in case of a tie vote.

ARTICLE XIII. The three Directors of the second class shall be elected by the stockholders, at an election to be held annually in the month of December, (after the first election,) on such day as may be appointed by the Board of Directors, and the officers shall be elected by a vote of the majority of the company. At this election each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, and the majority of votes cast shall elect. In case of a vacancy occurring during the term of office, the same shall be filled by the remaining Directors of this class. The Vice President to decide in case of a tie vote.

ARTICLE XIV. This annual election of three Directors shall be the only mode in which stockholders, as such, may claim any influence in the control of the paper or the affairs of the corporation.

ARTICLE XV. No member of the Board of Directors shall receive any pay for his services, nor shall he hold any other office or employment in the paper for which he will receive any compensation.

ARTICLE XVI. The President shall hold his office until his death or voluntary resignation.

ARTICLE XVII. Upon a vacancy in the office of President occurring in either of these two modes, his successor shall be elected by the Directors of the first class, or as many of them as may be present in office. In case of absence or incapacity of the President, his place shall be filled by such one of the three Directors of the first class as he shall appoint Vice President.

ARTICLE XVIII. The Board of Directors shall have entire control of the business of the Company. They shall appoint editors and employees of the newspaper, and fix their compensation. They shall regulate the issue, size, name, frequency and time of publication of the paper. They shall have the power to buy material and make all arrangements for the conduct of the business, as they may deem proper, and they may call meetings of the stockholders, whenever desirable, and declare dividends of profit, if any.

ARTICLE XIX. To effect this there must be cast in favor of said amendment two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast, each share representing one vote, as hereinbefore provided, and the Board of Directors shall have the right of causing any share or shares upon which any instalment may be due, to be sold at auction or otherwise, as the Board may deem advisable.

ARTICLE XX. United States Internal Revenue stamps to the amount of twenty cents are affixed hereto, duly canceled at the execution hereof.

ARTICLE XXI. Should any stockholder refuse or neglect to pay punctually his share of the instalment due on the shares at the rate of eight per cent, per annum shall be added thereto from maturity until payment, and if any stockholder refuses, or neglects to pay his other instalment within thirty days after the specified time of payment, the Board of Directors shall have the right of causing any share or shares upon which any instalment may be due, to be sold at auction or otherwise, as the Board may deem advisable.

ARTICLE XXII. The term for which this Corporation is formed shall be twenty-five years.

ARTICLE XXIII. This done and passed in my office at New Orleans, aforesaid, the day, month, and year first above written, in the presence of Laurence McCormack and John A. Gilmore, competent witnesses, who, together with said parties and me, the said Notary, after due reading of these presents.

TO THE CATHOLICS OF NEW ORLEANS. THE NEW ORLEANS MORNING STAR.

For several years it has been a matter of astonishment, not to say of humiliation, that in the metropolis of the South, with a Catholic population so numerous, intelligent, and truly religious, there was not a single Catholic paper in English. Admitting that such a paper is in our city a desideratum, we intend, with the approval of the Ecclesiastical authority of this Diocese, to start a Weekly English paper, mainly devoted to the interests of the Catholic Church, which will be called the "MORNING STAR."

For the intellectual and material departments we have chosen men of faith and talent, able editors, and experienced managers, thoroughly devoted to the Catholic cause.

The "MORNING STAR" will be printed in quarto form of eight pages.

It will be published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. To prevent all failure, and to guarantee the permanency of the undertaking, it will be based on a joint stock company, administered according to the laws of Louisiana.

The joint stock company will be composed of stock to the amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, in Five Thousand Shares of Twenty Dollars per share—each share to be paid for at the time of signing, and the remainder whenever called in by the Board of Directors, at any time after sixty days shall have elapsed from the date of the act of incorporation, provided said remainder may be paid at any time, voluntarily by the stockholder, without any call of the Board, entitling him to a proportional dividend.

The patronage of the Rev. Clergy of the neighboring dioceses is earnestly solicited.

The whole management will be under the supervision of a committee of five persons, to be appointed by the Most Rev. Archbishop and three laymen, to be selected by the stockholders.

APPROVAL OF THE MOST REV. ARCHBISHOP. We approve of the aforesaid undertaking, and commend it to the Catholics of our diocese. We appoint Rev. M. J. Perche as President, and Rev. Thomas F. Smith as Vice-President, as ecclesiastical members of the committee.

J. M. Archbishop of New Orleans. New Orleans, December 12, 1867. The Rev. Parish Priest is invited to read this prospectus to their respective congregations.

N. J. PERCHE V. O., President of the Committee.
