

MORNING STAR AND CATHOLIC MESSENGER. NEW ORLEANS, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1868.

MISCELLANEOUS IRISH NEWS. CAVAN.—It is our melancholy duty to have to record the death of John Pranty, Esq., Ballyhaise, which sad event took place at his residence on the 20th September, after a short but severe illness. He was in the 54th year of his age at the period of his death, and had, throughout life, been an exemplary member of society. Entering in spirit, he amassed considerable means, which afforded him an opportunity of exercising his generous disposition towards the poor.—Northern Whig.

CLARE.—The Clare correspondent of the Cork Reporter says: "An interest about our local politics is passing away, people begin to talk about Clare. Colonel Vandelaar is popular amongst us, and most men here wish him well. However, we are waiting with anxiety to see his address. Clare is determined not to be the only exception in Munster by returning a candidate who will not oppose the No-Popery government. However, we feel that we may safely leave the matter in the hands of the patriotic bishop, clergy, and laity of Clare."

CORK.—On October 1, about a quarter to five o'clock A. M., the newly fitted establishment of Mr. P. O'Brien, situate in the New Square, Mitchelstown, was set fire to, it is presumed by some unknown hand. When seen about half-past five, the rafters were enveloped in a sheet of flame, and the scabbles windows revealed to the lookers-on that the devouring element had, before it got to such a height, done its work only too well, since both lofts had given way, and were affording fuel to the flame, which was ascending from beneath. At six o'clock the military fire engine, accompanied by Major Skerry, arrived, but it was too late to think of saving the doomed house; the only thing, therefore, to be done was to save the shops at either side, and in this they succeeded.—Examiner.

MR. SMITH BARRY, M. P., and Lady Mary Smith Barry, arrived at Fota on October 2, and were warmly received by a number of the tenantry on that portion of the Hon. gentleman's estates. An address of welcome was presented to Mr. Smith Barry on behalf of the tenantry, for which he expressed his cordial thanks.

DEERY.—The oldest woman in the province of Ulster—Elizabeth Edmonson, of Coleraine, is dead, aged 103 years.

DONEGAL.—Mr. Samuel Smith, of Lavey Strand, states that while engaged with his men on September 22, in sinking an acqueduct of more than ordinary depth, they came upon a layer of flags, resembling the foothpath of a town, on raising which they discovered a nicely-built vault, about sixteen feet by five feet, containing the skeleton of an enormous giant, the skull of which measured forty-five inches in circumference. Alongside the skeleton lay the corroded remains of a weapon of war, twelve feet long, shaped like a chisel, with a hook on the side. He had the whole removed to his residence at Lavey Strand, and intends to have them placed in some museum in Dublin; but before doing so the curious can satisfy themselves by paying a visit to his house.—Anglo-Celt.

DOWN.—On Saturday, Sept. 26, the workers of Messrs. Watson, Armstrong & Co., Edenderry Factory, Portadown, were treated by their kind employers to an excursion to Tynan Abbey, the residence of Sir James Stronge, Bart.

G. G. BLACK, Esq., of Newry, has been promoted by the Inspector General to the rank and pay of first-class sub-director. Mr. Black has been some fourteen years a constabulary officer.

MR. R. J. BROWN, solicitor, Newry, is at present seriously indisposed at his country residence, Shannon Grove.

DUBLIN.—The Representation of Dublin.—We are happy to perceive that the electors are commencing to stir themselves in reference to the coming battle between religious equality and Orangeism. The wards have heretofore done good work—they have devoted themselves with zeal and energy to the promotion of the registrations, and having so far attained success in that direction, they are now about to prepare for the great struggle for which the revision was but preliminary. To-day, at two o'clock, a public meeting at the Merchants-quay, Ushers-quay, and Wood-quay Wards will be held, for the purpose of meeting Mr. Jonathan Pim, and to adopt the most effective measures for securing the triumph of the Liberal cause at the approaching election. It is satisfactory to find Mr. Pim ready and willing to avail himself of this occasion to take counsel with his political supporters for the approaching contest. We have no doubt that this conference will be productive of the best consequences in the future, and that other wards will promptly follow the example which has been set them to-day. The agents of ascendancy are active and insidious, but a thorough union on the part of the great Liberal party will frustrate their machinations, and rescue from their intolerance the representation of the city. The first step towards establishing and extending that union lies in the effective and prompt organization of the wards, and we are, therefore, rejoiced to see that the good work is to be inaugurated.—Dublin Freeman's Journal.

At the Kingstown Police court, on September 25th, before Messrs. Dix & Allen, Thomas Knox, tobacconist and chandler, 53 Upper George's Street, Kingstown, was summoned by Mr. William Duffell, Supervisor of Excise, for having on the 20th May last one hundred and ten pounds weight of tobacco, commonly called roll, on his premises, in which there was found a certain material and matter other than water and oil only, that is to say a certain quantity, three pounds weight of starch, contrary to the statute made and provided, whereby he forfeited the sum of £200. The defendant submitted and was fined £50.

In Dublin a fire broke out on September 30th in the house of Mr. Smithson, oil merchant chandler, 52 Capel street. Intelligence of the occurrence having been received at the station, William street, Captain Ingram, with steam engine and a number of the members of the Fire Brigade, arrived promptly on the spot and at once set to work.

On September 23rd a deputation from the parishioners of Kingstown waited on the Rev. P. McCabe, E. P., at his residence, Beechmount, Glasdule, and presented him with an address congratulating him on his promotion to the pastorate of the adjoining parish of Glasdule Dalkey and Ballybrack.

The forty-sixth report of the Inspector-General of Irish Prisons has been issued, and shows a small increase in the number of criminals committed in 1867 as compared with the previous year.

Two gentlemen have been for some time freely spoken of as probable candidates for the representation of the city—Sir Dominick Corrigan, Bart., and Mr. Denis Caulfield Heron, Q. C.

FERMANAGH.—The fine chapel of St. Mary, Cleenish, which has been recently completed, and built under the direction of Rev. P. O'Carroll, P. P., was dedicated for divine worship on September 27th, by the Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Lord Bishop of Clogher. The sermon was preached by the Very Rev. Father Sebastian. The parish of Cleenish is situated about four miles from Enniskillen, and a chapel was very badly required, and has just only been completed.—Northern Star.

GALWAY.—That venerable clergyman, the Very Rev. Peter Daly, P. P., expired at his residence in Galway on September 30th, in the eighty-fourth year of his age, and fifty-fourth of his priesthood. The reverend gentleman, familiarly known as "Father Peter," had been connected with the ancient City of the Tribes for over forty years, and took a leading part in all the public boards and charitable institutions of Galway.—Loughrea Journal.

We have heard with pleasure that the Rev. M. E. Holland, O. D. C., of the Abbey Convent, Loughrea, has been appointed Provincial of the Carmelite Order in Ireland. This announcement will be received by the many friends of the venerable and esteemed gentleman with sincere gratification.—Ibid.

MR. JAMES D. McDONAGH, of Dunmore, has been elected Coroner for the Tuam District, in room of the late Mr. Andrew Hosty. The result of the election was the occasion of much rejoicing in Mr. McDonagh's native town, which was brilliantly illuminated.

The inhabitants of Clifden are about taking immediate action in the erection of a new church for the accommodation of the largely increased population.

KERRY.—A detachment of the 39th Regiment arrived in Tralee on October 2d, by the 4 o'clock train, to replace the detachment of the 48th Regiment stationed there for the last two or three months. While the gallant 48th were there they bore a very hard character, but on the night of October 1st they transgressed all bounds. The greater part of them were drunk, and began fighting among themselves. From this they proceeded to break the doors of people's houses, until the police interfered and restored order.

KILDARE.—The Right Hon. the Earl of Mayo has been pleased to appoint Mr. William S. Gray to be Register of Marriages at Naas.

KILKENNY.—The seventh annual show of the Gowran Farming Society was held on September 26th, on the beautifully situated grounds adjoining the demesne of Gowran Castle, and commanding fine views of Mount Leinster, Brandon Hill, Mount Loftus and Flaggmount, and within a short distance of the town of Gowran.

Our able contemporary, the Journal, says Sir John Gray will visit the patriotic city on October 5th, when he will address his constituents on the great subjects of the day. We know Sir John will get a welcome reception from the high-minded and warm-hearted men of Kilkenny.—Waterford News.

An inquest was held on September 25th, by Thomas Ixod, Esq., County Coroner, on the body of a respectable woman named Mary Kelly, residing at Finawn, near Stoneyford, who dropped dead on the previous evening whilst milking cows in her own yard.

J. H. BRACKEN, Esq., C. L., has returned to Kilkenny from leave of absence.

LEITRIM.—A melancholy instance of the uncertainty of life and of formidable disease arising from apparently a trivial injury, lately occurred in the vicinity of Carrick-on-Shannon. A fine young man, the son of a respectable farmer, named Shannon, when loading his cart, had occasion to raise a stone a few pounds weight, and in doing so it unfortunately fell on the tip of his little finger, giving a slight crush to the nail. He felt some pain in it for an hour or so, but after a short time he forgot all about it. In the course of ten days from the receipt of this trifling injury, he felt some pain and stiffness in the jaws, and was told by some "skilful person" that his tongue was inflamed. Two days more elapsed, and the symptoms continuing with increased violence, he consulted a medical man. Dr. Kiernan first recognized the formidable character of the disease, that of tetanus or lock-jaw, which opinion was subsequently confirmed by Dr. Swayne, whose services were requested in consultation with Dr. Kiernan, and whose experience in this disease has been considerable, we believe. All that medical science could do was tried on the occasion, but notwithstanding every care on the part of his medical attendants, whose efforts to relieve him were unceasing, the poor fellow's life succumbed to the repeated and violent spasms.—Roscommon Herald, September 23d.

MR. JEREMY CHAMPION, who for a lengthened period filled a civil appointment in India, has (on the recent death of his brother, the late Mr. Thomas Champion,) succeeded to the possession of the old family Leitrim Estate, near Fermoy, and is now, after a residence of over thirty-five years in India, about returning home to enjoy the same.

LIMERICK.—The Reporter states that the collection of Peter's Pence in the diocese of Limerick in 1868 amounts to £1,153 5s. 6d., including £10 from the bishop of the diocese, £10 from Lord Dunraven, and £10 from Mr. L. Kelly.

The county and city members—Major Gavin and Councillor Synn—have left town for the seaside. This confirms the belief that neither county nor city will be disturbed by a contest.

The Deanery of Limerick, which has been for some time vacant, has been conferred by the Irish Government upon the Rev. Maurice F. Day.

MR. STEPHEN HASTINGS, T. C., will be put in nomination by the Liberal party for the Mayoralty of Limerick.

LOUTH.—The Chairman of the County of Louth, J. C. Nelligan, Esq., sat in the Court-House, Dundalk, on September 26, for the purpose of revising the parliamentary voters' list for the borough. Mr. Chas. McMahon appeared for Sir George Bowyer, the sitting member, Mr. Healy, of Drogheda, for Mr. Phillip Callan, one of the Liberal candidates, and Mr. Charles M'Henry Denvir for Mr. Charles Russell, the third candidate.—Examiner.

At the recent revision for three Baronies of Upper Dundalk, Lower Dundalk and Louth, the Liberals gained 33 votes.

MAYO.—At the great meeting of Mr. G. H. Moore's supporters, held at Westport on September 22d, a speech was delivered by the Rev. Michael Curley, P. P., in seconding one of the resolutions.

MONAGHAN.—Recently a police patrol, consisting of two men, was on duty at a place called Carrybeg, parish of Errigle, and were encountered by a body of men numbering about twenty, some of whom were armed. A policeman seized a gun from one of the party, the whole of whom then pressed round the two policemen, and forced them to deliver up the gun, and also attacked them for the purpose of wresting their arms from them, but the police resisted with great determination, and their assailants, seeing it was hopeless to disarm them, ultimately ran away without doing any mischief.

SLIGO.—On September 27, a very alarming accident occurred in Sligo, at the Friary, in Market street. Eleven o'clock Mass had concluded, and before the people left the chapel the bell, which is the largest in the county, commenced to ring for the second Mass. Suddenly the tongue came out of the bell, and fell with a noise which sounded through the chapel like thunder. The congregation became greatly alarmed, as it was supposed the belfry was falling, and a rush was made for the door. Many persons were knocked down, and the crushing was excessive, but no one was severely injured. The town clock, which is connected with the bell, is also injured by the accident.

TIPPERARY.—At the conclusion of the proceedings at the Tipperary Petty Sessions on September 24, Constable Cleary charged a young man named John Flemming, whom he had arrested during court, with being one of those who followed him and his party at Ballycobby on the day of the above outrage. The constable stated that the prisoner was one of the most prominent of the mob on that occasion, and had followed Mr. Scully and the police to within a field of Dwyer's house, where sub-Constable Morrow and the steward, Gorman, were murdered. Defendant was remanded for a week.—Clonmel Chronicle.

On the night of September 27, an attack was made by three men on a farmer named Duane, steward to the Rev. Mr. Homan, Cloughjordan. The man sought admission to the house in a friendly manner, but on Mr. Duane appearing at the door the men beat him unmercifully with sticks, inflicting severe injuries. Mr. Duane's daughter defended her father until they were obliged to make off. No arrest has yet been made.

The Free Press states that Mr. Moore, M. P., has lodged the purchase money, £14,500, and that on the 1st of November next the tenants of the townland of Ballycobby will make an exchange of landlords by which their peace and welfare will be definitely secured.

On September 26 the ceremony of profession of three young ladies—Miss Elizabeth Gubbins, (in religion Sister Mary Teresa,) Miss Annie Gubbins, (in religion Sister Mary Stanislaus,) and Miss Honora Cuddihy, (in religion Sister Mary Frances)—the two former sisters of the Rev. Father Gubbins, O. M. I., took place in Fethard Church. County Inspector Hemsworth, for many years stationed in the South Riding of Tipperary, is about to retire on full pay, with a good service pension. Acting Constable Michael McMahon, stationed at Fethard during the past three years, has been promoted to the rank of constable.

The Irish Poor Law Commissioners, having been asked the question by the Nenagh Board of Guardians, have replied that a man is not bound by law to contribute to the support of his mother-in-law.

WATERFORD.—At the Convent of Notre Dame, Namur, Belgium, Jane Mary Joseph, in religion Sister Catherine de la Croix, third daughter of Michael Gaule, Esq., Lismore House, Waterford, has made her vows and received the black veil.

MUSIC A STIMULANT.—Alfieri, often before he wrote, prepared his mind by listening to music. "Almost all my tragedies were sketched in my mind either in the act of hearing music, or a few hours after," a circumstance which has been recorded of many others. Lord Bacon had music played in the room adjoining his study; Milton listened to his organ for his solemn inspirations; and music was even necessary to Warburton. The sympathies which awoke in the poet sublime emotions, might have composed the inventive mind of the great critic in his visions of his theoretical mysteries. A celebrated French preacher, Bourdaloue or Massillon, was once found playing on a violin, to screw his mind up to the pitch preparatory to his sermon, which within a short interval he was to preach before the court. Curran's favorite mode of meditation was with his violin in his hand; for hours together he would forget himself, running voluntaries over the strings, while his imagination, in collecting its tones, was opening all its faculties for the coming emergencies at the bar.

WIT AND WISDOM.

One of the Laity.—A hen.

The subject that was taken into consideration was returned without any.

A man has got so deep into debt that not one of his creditors has been able to see him for months.

Why does an aching tooth impose silence on the sufferer? Because it makes him hold his jaw.

Pack your cares in as small a space as you can, so that you can carry them yourself, and not let them annoy others.

"I'll take the responsibility," as Jenks said when he held out his arms for the baby.

We have heard of but one old woman that kissed her cow, but there are thousands of young ones that kiss great calves.

A wag at a hotel recently ordered eleven beds for his own exclusive use, because he had been eleven nights without decent sleep, and wanted to make up the loss.

Why are washerwomen the greatest navigators in the world? Because they are continually crossing the line and running from pole to pole.

A man who recently married a fashionable wife, says he is very glad he had purchased an upright piano, for it is the only upright thing they have in the house.

"A tailor is the ninth part of a man," said a would-be wit in the presence of a knight of the shears. "But," responded the latter, "a fool is no part at all."

An exchange praises an egg, which, it says, "was laid on our table by the Rev. Brother Smith." Brother Smith seems to be a layman as well as a minister.

Many of our merchants advertise that we can buy of them at "cost." When we make the trial we find that we may buy of them at a very great cost.

It is said that the Englishmen in Canada patriotically avoid placing green spectacles on their noses, lest it be construed hoisting "the green above the red."

When we inquired of a friend a few days since what business he now followed, he replied, "Dentistry—the insertion of teeth in roast beef and bread and butter."

A waggish spendthrift recently said: "Five years ago I was not worth a cent in the world, now see where I am through my own exertions!" "Well, where are you?" "Why, I owe more than $3000."

There is a landlord in Boston who is in the habit of placing an extra fork beside the plate of such boarders as have not paid promptly, being a delicate intimation to "fork over."

"No man," said a wealthy, but weak-headed barrister, "should be admitted to the bar who hadn't an independent landed property." "May I ask, sir," said Curran, "how many acres make a wisecracker?"

Eve is said to be the only woman who never threatened to go and live with her mother, and Adam the first man who ever went to house-keeping without first trying to board with his mother-in-law.

The following announcement lately appeared in a paper: "Edward Eden, painter, is requested to communicate with his brother, when he will hear of something to his advantage—his wife is dead."

"I wonder what's the matter," said a wife to her husband, "that turkey I ate for dinner does not set well on my stomach." "Probably," replied the aggravating man, "because it wasn't a hen turkey."

LEARNING THE RULES.—When you see a man on a moonlight night trying to convince his shadow that it is improper to follow a gentleman, you may be sure it is high time for him to join the temperance society.

Some New York traders have placards in their windows, saying, "Here we speak German." "Here we speak French," etc.; upon which a Bovey retailer has improved by hanging out a sign, "Here we speak—the truth!"

"John," said a stingy old fellow to his hired man, as he was taking dinner, "do you know how many pancakes you have eaten?" "No, do you?" "Yes, you have eaten fourteen." "Well," said John, "you count and I'll eat."

A boy at a Presbyterian examination was asked, "What is the meaning of regeneration?" "O, to be a good boy." "Would you not like to be born again?" Tommy gave no reply, but on being pressed for an answer, at last said, "No." "Why, Tommy?" "For fear I might be born a girl."

"Can you give two sixpences for a shilling?" asked a little boy of a grocer's clerk. "Certainly," said the clerk, handing out two sixpenny pieces. "Well," said the boy, picking up the sixpences and turning to go out, "mother says she will send you the shilling to-morrow."

A doctor ordered one of his patients to drink flower of sulphur and water. The patient expressed his disgust by significant grimaces. "It is only the first glass that is hard to drink," said the doctor. "Then," rejoined the invalid, "I will begin with the second."

An Edinburgh journal, a little while since, inserted under the "Deaths" the demise of Mr. W. W. The gentleman being alive protested, and the week after the following correction appeared: "We regret to find that the announcement of the death of Mr. W. W. is a malicious fabrication."

"Facts are stubborn things," said a lawyer to a female witness under examination. The lady replied, "Yes, sir-ee, and so are women; and if you get anything out of me just let me know it." "You'll be committed for contempt." "Very well, I'll suffer justly, for I feel the utmost contempt for every lawyer present."

An old miser, who was notoriously parsimonious, being ill, was obliged reluctantly to consult a doctor. "What shall I do with my head?" said the old man; "it's so dizzy I seem to see double." The doctor wrote a prescription and retired: "When you see double you will find relief if you count your money."

THE HOLY SEPULCHRE.—The Liberte publishes an extraordinary item of intelligence. The Russian Government has demanded at Constantinople the joint proprietorship of the keys of the Chapel of the Holy Sepulchre. These have for many years past been entrusted to the special care of the French Consul at Jerusalem. The Liberte adds that the demand has been made with the view of weakening French influence in the East, for in a country where so much importance is attached to formalities, the consent of France to this step would signify the abdication of the preponderating part which she has hitherto played in the East. The same paper is assured that M. Bource has addressed a communication to the Marquis de Moustier, in which he strongly recommends that the French Government do not comply with the demand, remembering that the dispute about the holy places was the ostensible cause of the Russian war of 1854. This news, if it be true, is rather serious.

CHARTER OF THE NEW ORLEANS CATHOLIC PUBLICATION COMPANY.

STATE OF LOUISIANA, Parish of Orleans, City of New Orleans.

BE IT KNOWN THAT ON THIS SIXTEENTH day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-second year, we, Wm. Joseph Castell, Notary Public in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and understood, personally seen and approved, the parties hereto, and duly authorized, who declare that availing themselves of the provisions of the statutes of Louisiana relative to the organization of corporations, they do hereby present form themselves into and constitute a corporation for the following specified objects and under the following stipulations, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.—The official name of the corporation shall be the New Orleans Catholic Publication Company.

ARTICLE II.—The business and legal domicile of the corporation shall be in the City of New Orleans, Louisiana, and shall be a vote of three-fourths of the bona fide stock holders with the consent of the President.

ARTICLE III.—The object of this corporation shall be to publish a newspaper in the City of New Orleans and make such other publications as may afterward be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV.—The Vice President of the Company is the officer on whom, as such, citations may be served, and in whose name suit will be brought.

ARTICLE V.—The Capital Stock of the Corporation is fixed at One Hundred Thousand ($100,000) Dollars, in Five Thousand Shares of Twenty Dollars each, one half of such subscription to be paid at the time of the incorporation, the remainder whenever called in by the Board of Directors, at any time after sixty days shall have elapsed from the recording of the act of incorporation, provided said remainder may be paid at any time, voluntarily by the stockholder, without any call of the Board, entitling him to a proportional dividend.

ARTICLE VI.—This Corporation shall commence operations as soon as Two Hundred Shares of the Capital Stock is subscribed, and immediately thereafter the Stockholders may meet and elect a portion of the Board of Directors, who shall be elected by ballot, each share of stock subscribed shall be entitled to one vote. Stockholders may vote in person or by proxy of another stockholder.

ARTICLE VII.—In case it should become necessary to place this corporation in liquidation, they shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, some one of their number who shall represent them, and whose signature shall be binding on the Company, in such capacity.

ARTICLE VIII.—No stockholder will be held responsible for any liability of the Company beyond the amount of his stock.

ARTICLE IX.—There shall be no stock without consent of the Board, and no transfer of stock will be recognized unless approved by the Board.

ARTICLE X.—The First President of the Board of Directors shall be the Most Rev. Jean Marie Odin.

ARTICLE XI.—The Board of Directors shall consist of, besides the President, four other members, who shall be elected by ballot, and who shall be named by the President, and secured three other members to be elected by the stockholders.

ARTICLE XII.—The Directors of the Corporation shall be appointed and removed by the President, and their places filled with others appointed by him, as frequently as he shall see fit, stockholders' responsibility in anywise, on his part to the stockholders or any other persons, or to the supervision of the President, the complete control of the newspaper and of the general business of the corporation whenever he may see fit to exercise it.

ARTICLE XIII.—The three Directors of the second class shall be elected by the stockholders, at an election to be held annually in the month of October, at the time of the election, on such day as may be appointed by the Board of Directors, whereof due notice shall be given in the newspaper of the company. At this election each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, and the majority of votes cast shall elect. In case of a vacancy in the office of a Director, the place shall be filled by vote of the remaining Directors of this class. The Vice President to decide in case of a tie vote.

ARTICLE XIV.—This annual election of Three Directors shall be the only mode in which stockholders, as such, may claim any control in the control of the paper or the affairs of the corporation.

ARTICLE XV.—No member of the Board of Directors shall receive any salary or services, nor shall he hold any other office or employment in the paper for which he will receive any compensation.

ARTICLE XVI.—The President shall hold his office until his death or voluntary resignation.

ARTICLE XVII.—Upon a vacancy in the office of President occurring either of these two modes, his successor shall be elected by the stockholders, at the time of the election, on such day as may then be fixed. During any absence or incapacity of the President, his place shall be filled by one of the three Directors of the first class as he shall appoint Vice President.

ARTICLE XVIII.—This act may be amended by a vote of the stockholders. To effect this there must be cast in favor of said amendment two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast, each share representing one vote. Said amendment must have been proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the President.

ARTICLE XIX.—The term for which this Corporation is formed shall be twenty-five years.

ARTICLE XX.—Should any stockholder refuse or neglect to pay punctually his or her installment as the same falls due, or if he should die or be otherwise incapacitated, the rate of eight per cent. per annum shall be added thereto from maturity until payment, and if any stockholder refuses, or neglects to pay his or her installment within thirty days after the specified time of payment, the Board of Directors shall have the right of causing any share or shares upon which any installment may be due, to be sold at auction or otherwise, as the Board may deem advisable.

United States Internal Revenue stamps to the amount of twenty cents are affixed hereto, duly canceled at the execution hereof.

This done and passed in my office at New Orleans, aforesaid, the day, month, and year first above written, in the presence of Laurence McCormack and John A. Gilmore, competent witnesses, of the parish of Orleans, who have signed their names, domiciliated in this city, and me, the said Notary, after due reading of these presents.

J. M. ODIN, THOMAS J. SMITH, C. M., N. J. PEREIRE, JOHN B. DUFFY, SS. R. PETER HOLTON, JOHN FLANAGAN, JAMES O'DOWD, THOMAS J. KENNY, W. J. CASTELL, W. B. LANCASTER, D. F. SCAGLE, JOHN A. GILMORE, JOHN A. GILMORE, WM. J. CASTELL, Notary Public.

NEW ORLEANS, July 16, 1868. I, CHARLES H. LUZENBERG, District Attorney in and for the First Judicial District, Parish of Orleans, do hereby certify that I have carefully examined the foregoing Charter of the New Orleans Catholic Publication Company, and that I find nothing therein contrary to the Constitution and the laws of the State of Louisiana.

C. H. LUZENBERG, District Attorney First Judicial District. I, the undersigned, Deputy Recorder of Mortgages, do hereby certify that the present act of incorporation was duly recorded in this office—B. S., No. 7, folios 166, 167, 168, 169, 170. Signed, A. DUCATEL, Jr., Deputy Recorder.

A true copy of the original on file in my office.
